Conjure Cards Jake Richards,2021-04-01 A unique divination deck based on the authentic backwoods traditions folklore and superstitions of Appalachia For centuries people living in Appalachia have used homemade playing cards for fortune telling and dream interpretation This tradition has arisen over many generations of backwoods conjurers grannie witches and yarb doctors The Conjure Cards fortune telling deck was created by Jake Richards author of Backwoods Witchcraft and fashioned after the folklore superstitions and dream symbols that he grew up with in western North Carolina Jake offers these common Appalachian methods of divination paired with the honored pastime of sharing and interpreting dreams Examples The Nine of Diamonds shows a headless rooster to dream of a headless animal is a sign of a haint or plat eye which is a spirit who didn t have proper burial The Ace of Spades usually named the death card is an old fashioned baby cradle because to dream of a birth predicts a death The little joker is a witch or enemy and is represented by the folkloric black cat while the big joker is the devil and is symbolized by one of the devil s forms in Appalachia the black dog The black dog represents evil spirits so if it is paired with the black cat and the Ten of Spades a grave stone it could mean a family haint is haunting you or an enemy has conjured the dead against you The Ace of Diamonds shows two wedding ring and predicts news luck and proposal If shown with the Five of Hearts a chapel with a stained glass window and the Ten of Diamonds sunflowers it would predict a happy marriage or undertaking
