The Psyche and Psychism Torkom Saraydarian, 1981      A Psychological and Poetic Approach to the Study of Christ in the Fourth Gospel Eva Gore-Booth, 1923      Transactions and Encounters Roger Luckhurst, Josephine McDonagh, 2002

This book examines Irish Poor Law reform during the years of the Irish revolution and Irish Free State. This work is a significant addition to the growing historiography of the twentieth century which moves beyond political history and demonstrates that concepts of respectability, social class and gender are central dynamics in Irish society. This book provides the first major study of local welfare practices and exploration of policies, attitudes and the poor. This monograph examines local public assistance regimes, institutional and child welfare and hospital care. It charts the transformation of workhouses into a network of local authority welfare and healthcare institutions including county homes, county hospitals and mother and baby homes. The book's exploration of welfare and healthcare during revolutionary and independent Ireland provides fresh and original insights into this critical juncture in Irish history. The book will appeal to Irish historians and those with interests in welfare, the Poor Law and the social history of medicine and institutions.      Psyche's Lamp Robert Briffault, 1921

Special Pathology and Therapeutics of the Diseases of Domestic Animals Ferenc Hutyrá, József Marek, 1916      The Feminine in Jungian Psychology and in Christian Theology Ann Belford Ulanov, 1971

The Feminine in Jungian Psychology and in Christian Theology investigates the implications for Christian theology of Jung's special insights into the feminine. In it Ann Belford Ulanov gathers together in one volume what Jung and Jungians have discovered about the feminine in order to explore what Jungian thought and methods may illuminate about the place of the feminine in Christian theology. Jung focuses on the human person and sees as central its mixture of masculine and feminine elements. In a time when so much is asserted and written about women in society, their rights, roles, identities, needs and contributions, it is especially significant that Jung asserts the existence of the feminine as a key element not only in women but in men as well. No less contested are the roles and identities of Christians. Ulanov brings into focus the deep and fascinating connections between theology and psychology.      A Practical Medical Dictionary ... Thomas Lathrop Stedman, 1916
