Mbiti, 1990 African Religions and Philosophy is a systematic study of the attitudes of mind and belief that have evolved in the many societies of Africa In this second edition Dr Mbiti has updated his material to include the involvement of women in religion and the potential unity to be found in what was once thought to be a mass of quite separate religions Mbiti adds a new dimension to the understanding of the history thinking and life throughout the African continent Religion is approached from an African point of view but is as accessible to readers who belong to non African societies as it is to those who have grown up in African nations Since its first publication this book has become acknowledged as the standard work in the field of study and it is essential reading for anyone concerned with African religion history philosophy anthropology or general African studies Magic, Witchcraft, and Ghosts in the Greek and Roman Worlds Daniel Ogden, 2002 In a culture where the supernatural possessed an immediacy now strange to us magic was of great importance both in the literary mythic tradition and in ritual practice In this book Daniel Ogden presents 300 texts in new translations along with brief but explicit commentaries Authors include the well known Sophocles Herodotus Plato Aristotle Virgil Pliny and the less familiar and extend across the whole of Graeco Roman antiquity Annals of Ireland by the Four Masters as translated into English by Owen Connellan Michael O'Clery, 2003 The second volume of the 2 book set for The Annals of Ireland by the Four Masters as translated by Owen Connellan This is the volume that contains the large fold out map at the back of the book

Kabamba Kiboko, 2017-02-23 An examination of the language of divination in the Hebrew Bible particularly in 1 Samuel 28 3 25 the oft called Witch of Endor passage Kiboko contends that much of the vocabulary of divination in this passage and beyond has been mistranslated in authorized English and other translations used in Africa and in scholarly writings Kiboko argues that the woman of Endor is not a witch The woman of Endor is rather a diviner much like other ancient Near Eastern and modern African diviners She resists an inner biblical conquest theology and a monologic authoritarian view of divination to assist King Saul by various means including invoking the spirit of a departed person Samuel Kiboko carries out a Hebrew word study shaped by the theories of Mikhail M Bakhtin regarding the utterance heteroglossia and dialogism in order to understand the designative connotative emotive and associative meanings of the many divinatory terms in the Hebrew Bible She then examines 1 Samuel 28 and a number of prior translations thereof using the ideological framework of African feminist postcolonial biblical interpreters and translation theories to uncover the hidden ideology or transcript of these translations Finally using African contextual cultural hermeneutics and cross cultural translation theory Kiboko offers new English French and Kisanga translations of this passage that are both faithful to the original text and more appropriate to an inculturated liberation African Christian hermeneutic theology and praxis
