Magic Numbers Baseballs Best Single Season Hitters Decade By Decade:

Magic Numbers Mel R. Freese, 1998 Baseball's magic numbers 30 homers a .330 average or 100 RBIs Since 1901 only 42 men have achieved three of these hitting feats in the same season Of these 14 did it only once Babe Ruth was the first to enjoy a super season when he had 54 homers 137 RBIs and a .376 batting average in 1920 The 42 players combine for a total of 90 such seasons or fewer than one per year for both leagues combined Ruth himself tops the list in number of super seasons achieved with 10 followed by such greats as Jimmie Foxx Lou Gehrig Stan Musial and so on Decade by decade this work traces the history of offensive super seasons focusing on the men who accomplished them and examining those who came close Those who achieve two of the feats are considered as having had near miss seasons This too is a difficult accomplishment Appendices list super season and near miss achievers in order of number achieved their career statistics rankings of leagues by number of super seasons and a listing of super seasons per decade International Sport: A

Bibliography, 1995-1999 Richard William Cox, 2004-04-22 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new
