Magnum Landscape:

Magnum Landscape Magnum Photos, 1996 In the tradition of monumental Magnum books this publication brings together an eclectic assortment of work by the finest photographers of our time capturing a riveting and seductive series of fleeting moments around the world For half a century Magnum photographers through countless commissions and their own personal work have produced images that comment on the state of the world In photographing the landscape they are not just spectators but participants aware that the land itself has been shaped by man and that the very notion of a landscape depends on a human viewpoint As each photographer records and interprets a diversity of subject matter to form a unique personal style the variations on this theme are endless landscapes of war of agriculture of industry of cities and motorways of desolation celebration and tranquillity The photographs assimilated in this book invite us to rediscover landscape and urge us to think more profoundly not only about planet earth in its entirety but about our own place in it Imagining Landscapes Monica Janowski, Tim Ingold, 2016-05-13 The landscapes of human habitation are not just perceived they are also imagined What part then does imagining landscapes play in their perception The contributors to this volume drawn from a range of disciplines argue that landscapes are imagined in a sense more fundamental than their symbolic representation in words images and other media Less a means of conjuring up images of what is out there than a way of living creatively in the world imagination is immanent in perception itself revealing the generative potential of a world that is not so much ready made as continually on the brink of formation Describing the ways landscapes are perpetually shaped by the engagements and practices of their inhabitants this innovative volume develops a processual approach to both perception and imagination But it also brings out the ways in which these processes animated by the hopes and dreams of inhabitants increasingly come into conflict with the strategies of external actors empowered to impose their own ready made designs upon the world With a focus on the temporal and kinaesthetic dynamics of imagining Imagining Landscapes foregrounds both time and movement in understanding how past present and future are brought together in the creative world shaping endeavours of both inhabitants and scholars The book will appeal to anthropologists sociologists and archaeologists as well as to geographers historians and philosophers with interests in landscape and environment heritage and culture creativity perception and imagination Landscape John Wylie, 2007-08-07 Landscape is a stimulating introduction to and contemporary understanding of one of the most important concepts within human geography A series of different influential readings of landscape are debated and explored and for the first time distinctive traditions of landscape writing are brought together and examined as a whole in a forward looking critical review of work by cultural geographers and others within the last twenty to thirty years This book clearly and concisely explores landscape theories and writings allowing students of geography environmental studies and cultural studies to fully comprehend this vast and complex topic To aid the student vignettes are used to highlight key writers papers and texts Annotated further reading and student exercises are also included For researchers and lecturers Landscape presents a forward looking synthesis of hitherto disparate fields of inquiry one which offers a platform for future research and writing Laxton's Building Price Book 2002 V B Johnson, 2001-10-10 Laxton s gives you access to the most reliable and current data All 250 000 price elements have been individually checked and updated for the 2002 edition so that your estimates are always accurate and cost competitive Laxton s makes analytical estimating simple and straightforward by displaying a complete breakdown for all measured items under 10 separate headings all on a single page This shows you a complete price build up at a glance and gives you the option to make price adjustments wherever necessary You can find the sections you need quickly and easily via the special marker system on the front cover and page edges The free CD with this price book contains Masterbill s ESTIMATOR software and fully resourced data on all the price elements in Laxtons Not only does the CD offer fast and efficient pricing at the touch of a button it gives details of all the resources required to do the job Laxton s approximate estimating section gives all in pricing for quick reference on the cost of composite items such as floors helping you calculate the cost implications of using plywood sheeting rather than softwood boarding for example Laxton s Basic Price section gives you a quick price on hundreds of items from concrete work to roofing materials to save you going through hundreds of lists from suppliers manufacturers and building merchants Laxton s Brand and Trade Names section lists over 12 000 brands and trade names and company addresses to help you locate specific items Latest wage rates fees and allowances All 250 000 price elements checked and updated

Nature, Landscape, and Building for Sustainability William S. Saunders, 2008 The complexity and scale of the environmental problems confronting humanity today provoke a wide range of responses from indifference to anger to creativity Among a growing number of architects landscape architects and planners however these problems have inspired a new vision sustainability to guide their practices In Nature Landscape and Building for Sustainability a diverse group of contributors considers the concept of sustainability both philosophically and practically Some take a broad view of the divisions between nature and humanity exploring the incomprehensible scale of human intervention in the natural world the relationship between how we feel about nature and what we do about it and the commodification of the natural world Other essays focus on sustainable design practices sustainability s roots in the American conservation tradition its utility as a framework for future design practice and the necessity of moving beyond demonstration projects into the mainstream Together these essays suggest that the gap between the promise and reality of sustainable design although significant can be bridged through diligence and practice Contributors D Michelle Addington Yale U John Beardsley Harvard Graduate School of Design Albert Borgmann U of Montana Missoula Peter Buchanan Peter Del Tredici Harvard Graduate School of Design Robert France Harvard Graduate School of Design Susannah Hagan U of East London Kristina Hill U of Virginia Catherine Howett U of Georgia Niall Kirkwood Harvard Graduate School of Design Lucy R Lippard Bill McKibbin Michael Pollan Rossana Vaccarino Vaccarino Associates St Thomas William S Saunders is editor of Harvard Design Magazine and assistant

Routledge Handbook of Landscape Character Assessment Graham Fairclough, Ingrid Sarlöv Herlin, Carys Swanwick, 2018-05-11 In this multi authored book senior practitioners and researchers offer an international overview of landscape character approaches for those working in research policy and practice relating to landscape Over the last three decades European practice in landscape has moved from a narrow if relatively straightforward focus on natural beauty or scenery to a much broader concept of landscape character constructed through human perception and transcending any of its individual elements Methods tools and techniques have been developed to give practical meaning to this idea of landscape character The two main methods Landscape Character Assessment LCA and Historic Landscape Characterisation HLC were applied first in the United Kingdom but other methods are in use elsewhere in Europe and beyond to achieve similar ends This book explores why different approaches exist the extent to which disciplinary or cultural specificities in different countries affect approaches to land management and landscape planning and highlights areas for reciprocal learning and knowledge transfer Contributors to the book focus on examples of European countries such as Sweden Turkey and Portugal that have adopted and extended UK style landscape characterisation but also on countries with their own distinctive approaches that have developed from different conceptual roots as in Germany France and the Netherlands The collection is completed by chapters looking at landscape approaches based on non European concepts of landscape in North America Australia and New Zealand This book has an introductory price of 125 205 which will last until 3 months after publication after this time it will revert to 140 225 Landscape and Englishness, 2006-01-01 In the papers collected in this the first volume of the Spatial Practices series Englishness is reflected in the spaces it occupies or dwells in Broadly influenced by a renewed and growing interest in questions of cultural identity its emergence in Victorian theories and fictions of nationality and the new cultural geography the papers cover a rich variety of spaces and places which have been appropriated for cultural meanings the rural countryside and farmland of the Home Counties in the early nineteenth century as Arcadian idyll in Cobbett as the land to die for in war propaganda and as nostalgia for a unified organic English culture in Lawrence Morton and Priestley's travel writing but also in the Shell Tourist Guides to motoring in rural England English moorland the sacred geographies of monuments in Hardy and others the traditional seaside deconstructed in Martin Parr's photography and the sea as English Victorian imperial territory and its symbolic breezes in Froude's travel writing The English landscape is also a paradigm for the description of other places in D H Lawrence's travel writing or for the colonial territory itself in Rushdie's writing India a displacement of other landscapes This collection of papers examines the assumption that constructions of rural England provide the basis for an understanding of Englishness The Photo Review Stephen Perloff,1996

Picturing Scotland through the Waverley Novels Richard J. Hill,2016-04-22 Innovative and accessibly written Picturing Scotland examines the genesis and production of the first author approved illustrations for Sir Walter Scott's Waverley novels in Scotland Consulting numerous neglected primary sources Richard J Hill demonstrates that Scott usually seen as disinterested in the mechanics of publishing actually was at the forefront of one of the most innovative publishing and printing trends the illustrated novel Hill examines the historical precedents influences and innovations behind the creation of the illustrated editions tracking Scott's personal interaction with the mechanics of the printing and illustration process as well as Scott's opinions on visual representations of literary scenes Of particular interest is Scott's relationships with William Allan and Alexander Nasmyth two important early nineteenth century Scottish artists As the first illustrators of the Waverley novels their work provided a template for one of the more lucrative publishing phenomena Informed by meticulous close readings of Scott's novels and augmented by a bibliographic catalogue of illustrations Picturing Scotland is an important contribution to Scott studies the development of the illustrated novel and publishing history Human Landscapes in

Classical Antiquity John Salmon,Graham Shipley,2013-02-01 Human Landscapes in Classical Antiquity shows how today's environmental and ecological concerns can help illuminate our study of the ancient world The contributors consider how the Greeks and Romans perceived their natural world and how their perceptions affected society The effects of human settlement and cultivation on the landscape are considered as well as the representation of landscape in Attic drama Various aspects of farming such as the use of terraces and the significance of olive growing are examined The uncultivated landscape was also important hunting was a key social ritual for Greek and hellenistic elites and wild places were not wastelands but played an essential economic role The Romans attempts to control their environment are analyzed This volume shows how Greeks and Romans worked hand in hand with their natural environment and not against it It represents an outstanding collaboration between the disciplines of history and archaeology Magnum Landscape 10 Copy Counterpack Phaidon Press,

Landscape Resilience

Catrin Schmidt,2021-10-25 This book explains what makes landscapes resilient Why are some landscapes able to recover quickly from disruptive events or crises while others are completely thrown off balance for the foreseeable future The author sets out in search of the influencing factors and conditional structures of landscape resilience and not only evaluates the current state of the art but also explores landscapes around the globe that could not be more contrasting from arid agricultural landscapes to boreal forest landscapes from atolls to saline landscapes from terraced landscapes to cities Just as diverse as the landscape types are the factors considered that can put landscapes under stress However diverse the case studies are in detail their fascinating mosaic shows at the same time that there are overarching principles that can be used to increase the resilience of landscapes in a targeted way so that landscapes emerge from crises strengthened rather than weakened This book is a translation of the original German 1st edition Landschaftliche Resilienz by Catrin Schmidt published by Springer Verlag GmbH Germany part of Springer Nature in 2020 The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence machine translation by the service DeepL com A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content so that the book will read stylistically differently from a conventional translation Springer Nature works continuously to further the development of tools for the production of books and on the related technologies to support the authors

Emerging

Landscapes Davide Deriu,Krystallia Kamvasinou,2016-05-06 Emerging Landscapes brings together scholars and practitioners working in a wide range of disciplines within the fields of the built environment and visual arts to explore landscape as an idea an image and a material practice in an increasingly globalized world Drawing on the synergies between the fields of architecture and photography this collection takes a multidisciplinary approach combining practice based research with scholarly essays It explores and critically reassesses the interface between representation the imaginary and symbolic shaping of the human environment and production the physical and material changes wrought on the land At a time of environmental crisis and the end of nature shifting geopolitical boundaries and economic downturn Emerging Landscapes reflects on the state of landscape and its future mapping those practices that creatively address the boundaries between possibility opportunity and action in imagining and shaping landscape

Island Landscapes

Gloria Pungetti,2016-11-10

Island Landscapes takes a critical look at the evolution of European islandscapes and seascapes to examine the conditions facing them in the twenty first century Considering island landscapes as an expression of European culture this book envisages future trends and presents clearly the need to find a balance between preservation and development to ensure sustainability Both large and small islands are illustrated in the book including the British Isles Malta and Cyprus as well as archipelagos in Norway Italy and Greece Their unique identities and values reveal the remarkable breadth of cultural heritage possessed by these diverse European islands An interdisciplinary approach is applied to the history perception characterisation and planning of islandscapes and seascapes in Europe to support culturally oriented strategies for these fragile landscapes

Zen Landscapes Allen S. Weiss, 2013-09-15 The essential elements of a dry Japanese garden are few rocks gravel moss Simultaneously a sensual matrix a symbolic form and a memory theater these gardens exhibit beautiful miniaturization and precise craftsmanship But their apparent minimalism belies a true complexity In Zen Landscapes Allen S. Weiss takes readers on an exciting journey through these exquisite sites explaining how Japanese gardens must be approached according to the play of scale surroundings and seasons as well as in relation to other arts revealing them as living landscapes rather than abstract designs Weiss shows that these gardens are inspired by the Zen aesthetics of the tea ceremony manifested in poetry painting calligraphy architecture cuisine and ceramics Japanese art favors suggestion and allusion valuing the threshold between the distinct and the inchoate between figuration and abstraction and he argues that ceramics play a crucial role here relating as much to the site specificity of landscape as to the ritualized codes of the tea ceremony and the everyday gestures of the culinary table With more than one hundred stunning color photographs Zen Landscapes is the first in depth study in the West to examine the correspondences between gardens and ceramics A fascinating look at landscape art and its relation to the customs and craftsmanship of the Japanese arts it will appeal to readers interested in landscape design and Japan's art and culture

Landscapes of Encounter Liam Gearon, 2002 Brian Moore 1921–1999 is one of the few novelists whose literary portrayal of Catholicism effectively spans the period prior to and following the Second Vatican Council Many critics have discussed how Moore's life is reflected in his works while others have dismissed his fictions as simple narratives in the mould of classical realism In this timely book Gearon contends that Moore's fictions are far more complex as he was one of the great observers of Catholicism in all its modern and historical controversy
