Into the Mainstream Jorge Febles, 2009-03-26 Into the Mainstream Essays on Spanish American and Latino Literature and Culture is a direct outgrowth of Jorge Febles s involvement with the annual conference of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association In that sense the compilation expands on a project initiated in 1993 by Helen Ryan Ransom with her book Imagination Emblems and Expressions Essays on Latin American Caribbean and Continental Culture and Identity Bowling Green Ohio Bowling Green State University Popular Press 1993 David William Foster who penned a lengthy preface to that collection justified its intent by underscoring The very fact that our approach to culture is dominated by categories based on high academic institutionalized phenomena poses from the very outset the question of how to deal with all those other cultural manifestations that do not comfortably assimilate to the accepted canon Ryan Ransom 3 The past fourteen years however have witnessed a radical transformation of that so called canon due to the widespread acceptance of ideas espoused by cultural theorists like Garc a Canclini Homi Bhabha Said Stuart Hall Benhabib Bourdieu and countless others Therefore the ambivalence regarding what constitutes culture identified by Foster is inoperative nowadays to a substantial degree In fact a fundamental component of the postmodern outlook resides in the ability to blend comfortably the high and the low the elitist and the popular realms of production in a multiplicity of textual artifacts creative as well as critical in nature Hence the essays that conform Into the Mainstream do not question barriers anymore nor do they expound on the need to assign a discursive intellectual space to matters pertaining to popular culture Thus this collection espouses an inclusive approach in which a variety of analytical approaches coalesce to reflect on an equally kaleidoscopic textuality Pursuant to its comprehensive nature Into the Mainstream airs established as well as developing critical voices so as to reflect both ideological continuity and evolving viewpoints Scholars who have compiled strong academic records like Hortensia Morell Raquel Rivas Rojas Elsa Gilmore David Petreman and Benjam n Torres Caballero share a venue with younger critics like

Corey Shouse Tourino Roberto Vela C rdova Stacy Hoult Eduardo del R o Bruce Campbell Laura Redruello Dinora Cardoso and April Marshall as well as with two graduate students about to complete their academic preparation Nuria Ib ez Quintana and Mar a Teresa Vera Rojas The result is an eclectic compilation meant to elicit discussion on the basis of its variety Into the Mainstream s primordial objective is to place these provocative essays which are expanded versions of papers presented during the annual gathering of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association in the period 2002 2005 along with the numerous subjects they treat in the academic mainstream where they rightfully belong Latina/os and the Media Angharad N. Bibliography on Medical Education National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1966 Interracial Encounters Julia H. Lee, 2011-10-01 2013 Honorable Mention Asian American Studies Association s prize in Literary Studies Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series Why do black characters appear so frequently in Asian American literary works and Asian characters appear in African American literary works in the early twentieth century Interracial Encounters attempts to answer this rather straightforward literary question arguing that scenes depicting Black Asian interactions relationships and conflicts capture the constitution of African American and Asian American identities as each group struggled to negotiate the racially exclusionary nature of American identity In this nuanced study Julia H Lee argues that the diversity and ambiguity that characterize these textual moments radically undermine the popular notion that the history of Afro Asian relations can be reduced to a monolithic media friendly narrative whether of cooperation or antagonism Drawing on works by Charles Chesnutt Wu Tingfang Edith and Winnifred Eaton Nella Larsen W E B Du Bois and Younghill Kang Interracial Encounters foregrounds how these reciprocal representations emerged from the nation s pervasive pairing of the figure of the Negro and the Asiatic in oppositional overlapping or analogous relationships within a wide variety of popular scientific legal and cultural discourses Historicizing these interracial encounters within a national and global context highlights how multiple racial groups shaped the narrative of race and national identity in the early twentieth century as well as how early twentieth century American literature emerged from that multiracial political context

Black Masculinity and the U.S. South Riché Richardson, 2010-01-25 This pathbreaking study of region race and gender reveals how we underestimate the South s influence on the formation of black masculinity at the national level Many negative stereotypes of black men often contradictory ones have emerged from the ongoing historical traumas initiated by slavery Are black men emasculated and submissive or hypersexed and violent Nostalgic representations of black men have arisen as well think of the philosophical hardworking sharecropper or the abiding upright preacher To complicate matters says Rich Richardson blacks themselves appropriate these images for purposes never intended by their mostly white progenitors Starting with such well known caricatures as the Uncle Tom and the black rapist Richardson investigates a range of pathologies of black masculinity that derive ideological force from their associations with the South Military policy black liberation discourse and contemporary rap she argues are just some of the instruments by which egregious pathologies of black masculinity in southern history have been sustained Richardson s sources are eclectic and provocative including Ralph Ellison s fiction Charles Fuller s plays Spike Lee s films Huey Newton s and Malcolm X s political rhetoric the O J Simpson discourse and the music production of Master P the Cash Money Millionaires and other Dirty South rappers Filled with new insights into the region s role in producing hierarchies of race and gender in and beyond their African American contexts this new study points the way toward more epistemological frameworks for southern literature southern studies and gender studies

Chris Berry is Professor of Film and Television at Goldsmiths University of London The Aesthetics and Affects of Cuteness Joshua Paul Dale, Joyce Goggin, Julia Leyda, Anthony P. McIntyre, Diane Negra, 2016-12-08 Cuteness is one of the most culturally pervasive aesthetics of the new millennium and its rapid social proliferation suggests that the affective responses it provokes find particular purchase in a contemporary era marked by intensive media saturation and spreading economic precarity Rejecting superficial assessments that would deem the ever expanding plethora of cute texts trivial The Aesthetics and Affects of Cuteness directs serious scholarly attention from a variety of academic disciplines to this ubiquitous phenomenon The sheer plasticity of this minor aesthetic is vividly on display in this collection which draws together analyses from around the world examining cuteness's fundamental role in cultural expressions stemming from such diverse sources as military cultures high end contemporary art worlds and animal shelters Pushing beyond prevailing understandings that associate cuteness solely with childhood or which posit an interpolated parental bond as its primary affective attachment the essays in this collection variously draw connections between cuteness and the social political economic and technological conditions of the early twenty first century and in doing so generate fresh understandings of the central role cuteness plays in the recalibration of contemporary subjectivities Reconstructing Architecture Thomas A. Dutton, Lian Hurst Mann, 1996 Reconstructing Architecture was first published in 1996 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions To create architecture is an inherently political act yet its nature as a social practice is often obscured beneath layers of wealth and privilege The contributors to this volume question architecture's complicity with the status quo moving beyond critique to outline the part architects are playing in building radical social movements and challenging dominant forms of power The making of architecture is instrumental in the construction of our identities our differences the world around us much of what we know of institutions the distribution of power social relations and cultural values is mediated by the built environment Historically architecture has constructed the environments that house the dominant culture Yet as the essays in Reconstructing Architecture demonstrate there exists a strong tradition of critical practice in the field one that attempts to alter existing social power relations Engaging the gap between modernism and postmodernism each chapter addresses an oppositional discourse that has developed within the field and then reconstructs it in terms of a new social project feminism social theory environmentalism cultural studies race and ethnic studies and critical theory The activists and scholars writing here provide a clarion call to architects and other producers of culture challenging them to renegotiate their political allegiances and to help reconstruct a viable democratic life in the face of inexorable forces driving economic growth destroying global ecology homogenizing culture and privatizing the public realm Reconstructing Architecture reformulates the role of architecture in society as well as its capacity to further a progressive social transformation Contributors Sherry
