Major European Art Movements 1900-1945 A Critical Anthology:

Major European Art Movements, 1900-1945 Patricia E. Kaplan, Susan Manso, 1977 Les Fauves Russell T. Clement, 1994-05-25 This is the first comprehensive scholarly bibliography research guide sourcebook on the major French Fauve painters Henri Matisse and Georges Braque are treated in separate Greenwood bio bibliographies It includes information on 3 120 books and articles as well as chronologies biographical sketches and exhibition lists Each artist receives a primary and secondary bibliography with many annotated entries Secondary bibliographies include details about each artists life and career relationships with other artists work in various media iconography and more Designed for art historians art students museum and gallery curators and art lovers alike this volume organizes the vast literature surrounding this fascinating revolutionary 20th century art group Genuinely new art is always challenging sometimes even shocking to those unprepared for it In 1905 the paintings of Matisse Derain Vlaminck and their friends shocked conservative museum goers hence the eventual popularity of art critic Louis Vauxcelles's tag les fauves or wild beasts by which these artists became known Although it lasted only three or four years Fauvism is recognized as the first artistic revolution of international consequence in the 20th century It was based on the glorification of pure saturated colors and the free expression of primitivism It was a dynamic sensualism an equilibrium of passion and order fire and austerity that could not last By the end of 1908 Fauvism collapsed in the face of Cubism which moreover several Fauve artists helped to form The Spiritual in Twentieth-Century Art Roger Lipsey, 2011-10-20 Compelling well illustrated study focuses on the works of Kandinsky Mondrian Klee Picasso Duchamp Matisse and others Citations from letters diaries and interviews provide insights into the artists views 121 black and white illustrations A New History of Western Art Koenraad Jonckheere, 2022-10-15 A radical re examination of 2 500 years of European art deconstructing and demystifying its long history from ancient to present How has art evolved from the pursuit of the ideal human form to a black square on a white canvas Why is a banana duct taped to a wall worth more on the art market than a beautiful seventeenth century landscape By taking art for what it actually is a piece of stone or wood a sheet of paper with some lines drawn on it a painted canvas this lively and accessible account shows how seemingly meaningless objects can be transformed into celebrated works of art Breaking with conventional notions of artistic genius Koenraad Jonckheere explores how stories and emotions give meaning to objects and why changing historical circumstances result in such shifting opinions over time Tracing its story from ancient times to present A New History of Western Art reframes the evolution of European art and radically reshapes our understanding of art history Published in association with Hannibal Books Enchantment the Art and Life of Lilian Westcott Hale Diane Elizabeth Kelleher, 2013-10-28 As the title suggests this book concerns the art and life of the world's only American Linear Impressionist Lilian Westcott Hale Born in Connecticut in 1881 Hale was educated primarily at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts Boston and lived for many years in nearby Dedham moving to Charlottesville Virginia after the death of her beloved educator art critic author and painter husband Philip Leslie Hale A woman Hale far outpaced the success of many men including her husband During her early decades of activity Hale garnered innumerable national awards accolades and prizes and international acclaim for her oil portraits of children women in interiors and charcoal sketches of snowy landscapes all created in an Impressionist style utilizing only vertical strokes Hale was the originator and sole practitioner of a technique which paradoxically used line in an Impressionist manner While her classic art fell out of favor during the Modernist 1940s and later it is now once again very much in vogue My relationship with the artist's only child her daughter Nancy was of immeasurable assistance in the production of this book Diane Elizabeth Kelleher Shrewsbury Massachusetts 2013

Art as Abstract Machine Stephen Zepke, 2014-02-04 The aim of this book is to understand what Deleuze and Guattari mean by art Stephen Zepke argues that art in their account is an ontological term and an ontological practice that results in a new understanding of aesthetics For Deleuze and Guattari understanding what art is means understanding how it works what it does how it becomes and finally how it lives This book illuminates these philosophers discussion of ontology from the viewpoint of art and vice versa in a thorough questioning of aesthetic criteria as they are normally understood

Cubism and Futurism R. Bruce Elder, 2018-06-30 Cubism and futurism were closely related movements that vied with each other in the economy of renown Perception dynamism and the dynamism of perception these were the issues that passed back and forth between the two Cubism and Futurism Spiritual Machines and the Cinematic Effect shows how movement became in the traditional visual arts a central factor with the advent of the cinema gone were the days when an artwork strived merely to lift experience out the realm of change and flow The cinema at this time was understood as an electric art akin to X rays coloured light and sonic energy In this book celebrated filmmaker and author Bruce Elder connects the dynamism that the cinema made an essential feature of the new artwork to the new science of electromagnetism Cubism is a movement on the cusp of the transition from the Cartesian world of standardized Cartesian coordinates and interchangeable machine parts to a Galvanic world of continuities and flows In contrast futurism embraced completely the emerging electromagnetic view of reality Cubism and Futurism examines the similarity and differences between the two movements engagement with the new science of energy and shows that the notion of energy made central to the new artwork by the cinema assumed a spiritual dimension as the cinema itself came to be seen as a pneumatic machine

Flight Out of Time Hugo Ball, 1996-05-06 A key document Indispensable for an understanding of the beginnings of the Dada movement and Dada in Zurich Rudolf Kuenzli Director International Dada Archive In Flight Out of Time one can follow Dada's unfolding and expansion almost day by day Charles Haxthausen coeditor Berlin Culture and Metropolis

A World History of Art Hugh Honour, John Fleming, 2005 Over two decades this art historical tour de force has consistently proved the classic introduction to humanity's artistic heritage From our paleolithic past to our digitised present every continent and culture is covered in an articulate and well balanced discussion In this Seventh Edition the text has been revised to embrace developments in archaeology and art historical research while the renowned contemporary art historian Michael Archer has greatly expanded the discussion of the past twenty years providing a new perspective on the latest developments The insight elegance and fluency that the authors bring to their text are complemented by 1458 superb illustrations half of which are now in colour These images together with the numerous maps and architectural plans have been chosen to represent the most significant chronological regional and individual styles of artistic expression

Curtis, 1999 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the significant growth of sculpture as an artistic form in Europe and America from 1900 1945 Using a clearly defined thematic structure it identifies key issues and developments throughout this important period in the history of art Individual chapters cover public sculpture the monument the object image making the built environment the figurative ideal and different materials These themes broadly reflect the changing cultural and political climate of a turbulent period which included two world wars each preceded by widespread rising nationalism The practice of sculpture is considered within the wider artistic context of painting and architecture and the development of international art markets Auguste Rodin whose ground breaking exhibition opened in Paris in 1900 serves as the book's point of departure and as a recurrent point of reference Twentieth-Century American Art Erika Doss, 2002-04-26 Jackson Pollock Georgia O'Keeffe Andy Warhol Julian Schnabel and Laurie Anderson are just some of the major American artists of the twentieth century From the 1893 Chicago World's Fair to the 2000 Whitney Biennial a rapid succession of art movements and different styles reflected the extreme changes in American culture and society as well as America's position within the international art world This exciting new look at twentieth century American art explores the relationships between American art museums and audiences in the century that came to be called the American century Extending beyond New York it covers the emergence of Feminist art in Los Angeles in the 1970s the Black art movement the expansion of galleries and art schools and the highly political public controversies surrounding arts funding All the key movements are fully discussed including early American Modernism the New Negro movement Regionalism Abstract Expressionism Pop Art and Neo Expressionism Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. Supplement Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1962 Imperial Rome and Christian Triumph Jas Elsner, 1998 Western culture saw some of the most significant and innovative developments take place during the passage from antiquity to the middle ages This stimulating new book investigates the role of the visual arts as both reflections and agents of those changes It tackles two inter-related periods of internal transformation within the Roman Empire the phenomenon known as the Second Sophistic c. ad 100-300 two centuries of self-conscious and enthusiastic hellenism and the era of late antiquity c. ad 250-450 when the empire underwent a religious conversion to Christianity Vases murals statues and masonry are explored in relation to such issues as power death society acculturation and religion By examining questions of reception viewing and the culture of spectacle alongside the more traditional art historical themes of imperial patronage and stylistic change Jas Elsner presents a fresh and challenging account of an extraordinarily rich cultural crucible in which many fundamental developments of later European art had their origins a highly individual work wonderful visual and comparative analysis I can think of no other general book on Roman art that deals so elegantly and informatively with the theme of visibility and visual desire Professor Natalie Boymel Kampen Barnard College New York exciting and original a vibrant impression of creative energy and innovation held in constant tension by the persistence of more traditional motifs and techniques Elsner constantly surprises and intrigues the reader by approaching familiar material in new ways Professor Averil Cameron Keble College Oxford

Portraiture Shearer West, 2004-04-08 This fascinating new book explores the world of portraiture from a number of vantage points and asks key questions about its nature How has portraiture changed over the centuries How have portraits represented their subjects and how have they been interpreted Issues of identity modernity and gender are considered within a cultural and historical context Shearer West uncovers much intriguing detail about a genre that has often been seen as purely representational featuring examples from African tribes to Renaissance princes and from stars such as David and Victoria Beckham to ordinary people In the process she shows us how to communicate with the past in an exciting new way

Fashion Christopher Breward, 2003-04-24 This lively survey of 150 years of fashion covers everything from Haute Couture to the High Street and developing fabric technology from silk to fleece From Coco Chanel to Armani and Alexander McQueen Breward explores fashion as a cultural phenomenon Breward examines the glamorous world of Vogue and advertising the relationship between fashion and film and fashion as a business and goes beyond the surface to consider our interaction with fashion How have our ideas about hygiene and comfort influenced the direction of style How does our dress create our identity and status Details of dandies flappers and punks are contained within a clear overview of the period which will make you look at your clothes in a different light

Design in the USA Jeffrey L. Meikle, 2005-07-28 From the Cadillac to the Apple Mac the skyscraper to the Tiffany lamp the world in which we live has been profoundly influenced for over a century by the work of American designers But the product is only the end of a story that is full of fascinating questions What has been the social and cultural role of design in American society To produce useful things that consumers need Or to persuade them to buy things they don't need Where does the designer stand in all of this And how has the role of design in America changed over time since the early days of the young Republic Jeffrey Meikle explores the history of American design from the hand crafted furniture and artifacts of the early nineteenth century through the era of industrialization and the mass production of the machine age to the information based society of the present covering everything from the Arts and Crafts movement to Art Deco modernism to post modernism the MOMA to the Tupperware bowl Beautifully illustrated Design in the USA also includes suggestions for further reading a timeline and a list of relevant museums and web sites It is an excellent source of information for anyone seeking to uncover the imagination and industry behind American design American Photography Miles Orvell, 2003 150 years of American photography come alive in this exciting new book placing it in its cultural context for the first time Orvell examines this fascinating subject through a wide range of well known and less well known images He ranges from portraiture and landscape photography family albums and memory and analyses the particularly American way in which American photographers have viewed the world around them Orvell combines a clear overview of the changing nature of photographic thinking and practice in this period with an exploration of key concepts The result is the first coherent history of American photography which examines issues such as the nature of photographic exploitation experimental techniques the power of the photograph to shock and whether we should subscribe to the notion of a visual history Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun, 2002 In this study of the international modern movement in architecture Alan Colquhoun explores the complex motivations behind its revolutionary new style and assesses its triumphs and failures
