The Philosopher's Notebook ,      Talking Leaves ,2000      Reconstructing Value Elizabeth Kurucz,Barry Colbert,David Wheeler,2013-03-05 Reconstructing Value prepares contemporary business leaders for the increasingly important task of developing a sustainability vision and translating it across levels in an organization The book is based on insights gained over the past decade from research involving hundreds of practitioners front line managers to senior executives who have been working to integrate sustainability within their organizations It illustrates how building capacity for managing the complex issues of sustainability requires key process skills that leaders need to develop This book equips readers to respond to the risks and opportunities presented by global sustainability issues and reinvent new ways of doing business that will enhance organizational effectiveness while also building a more sustainable world Each chapter includes process questions to guide reflective practice and to build the requisite leadership capabilities for turning a sustainability vision into a value added organizational strategy Reconstructing Value helps readers to build integrative thinking skills such as how to engage critical complexity strategic and design thinking capabilities to enable organizational change that can assist them with becoming successful sustainability champions within their organizations Working for a Better World Dr. Carolyn Y. Woo, 2015-04-08

God makes promises and keeps them and these promises are about love for us During every challenge every disappointment I have held on to this Carolyn Woo grew up in Hong Kong a city of refugees who had fled from the communist government in China as her own parents had done Relatives crashed on their couches and brutal stories of Red Guards filtered through but the ferment of the time fueled a drive to create opportunities Wasting no time Carolyn earned her doctorate in the United States and eventually became the highly successful dean of the Mendoza School of Business at Notre Dame And then Catholic Relief Services offered her the position of CEO and President of the global humanitarian arm of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Initially not interested Carolyn eventually accepted the position for which her faith education business experience and personal background uniquely equipped her Working for a Better World is an engrossing account not only of Dr Woo s own life but of the ongoing critical work of CRS in meeting the needs of the poor the traumatized and the needy throughout the world From typhoon flattened cities in the Philippines to earthquake devastated Haiti CRS is there before the TV cameras arrive and there after they leave And there in over 100 countries helping subsistence farmers and health care workers orphans and refugees in those neglected places where the cameras never come We must be docile and attentive to the cry of the poor and to come to their aid Pope Francis has said And in doing so Dr Woo affirms we never know when or how we will encounter God Keep On Fighting Dorothy H. Christenson, 2015-07-15

Marian Alexander Spencer was born in 1920 in the Ohio River town of Gallipolis Ohio one year after the Red Summer of 1919 that saw an upsurge in race riots and lynchings Following the example of her grandfather an ex slave and community leader Marian joined the NAACP at thirteen and grew up to achieve not only a number of civic leadership firsts in her adopted home city of Cincinnati but a legacy of lasting civil rights victories Of these the best known is the desegregation of Cincinnati s Coney Island amusement park She also fought to desegregate Cincinnati schools and to stop the introduction of observers in black voting precincts in Ohio Her campaign to raise awareness of industrial toxic waste practices in minority neighborhoods was later adapted into national Superfund legislation In 2012 Marian s friend and colleague Dot Christenson sat down with her to record her memories The resulting biography not only gives us the life story of remarkable leader but encapsulates many of the twentieth century s greatest struggles and advances Spencer s story will prove inspirational and instructive to citizens and students alike The Different Faces of Motherhood Beverly Birns, Dale Hay, 2013-06-29

The Different Faces of Motherhood began during a conversation between the two editors developmental psychologists who have spent our professional careers working with infants and very young children We are well aware of the importance of infants to their mothers and of mothers to their infants However we were particularly aware of the fact that whereas our knowledge about infants increases exponentially each decade our assumptions about mothers change relatively little We were concerned about the theories that underlie the advice given to mothers and also about the assumption that mothers appear to be generic More and more we have learned about individual differences in babies but not more and more about individual differences in mothers Our second concern has been to expand our knowledge about mothers Our assumptions were few and our questions were many We believed that the experience of women would vary greatly both in outlook and in behavior depending on each woman s age marital status financial status ethnicity health education and work experience as well as a woman s own experience in her family origin and her relationship to her husband If we are to understand child development and believe that the early years are important in a child s life then it seems critical to examine our beliefs about mothers If we are to understand human development then being a mother is surely an important area of inquiry Quill & Quire ,2000
