Making Face Making Soul Haciendo Caras Creative And Critical Perspectives By Feminists Of Color:

Making Face, Making Soul Gloria Anzaldúa, 1990 A bold collection of creative pieces and theoretical essays by women of color New thought and new dialogue a book that will teach in the most multiple sense of that word a book that will be of lasting value to many diverse communities of women as well as to students from those communities The authors explore a full spectrum of present concerns in over seventy pieces that vary from writing by new talents to published pieces by Audre Lorde Joy Harjo Norma Alarcon and Trinh T Minh ha At one level or another all the work in the collection seeks to find ways to understand and articulate our multiple identities and senses of place Making Face Making Soul is an exciting collection of dynamic important writings that all women of color and white feminists will learn from enjoy and return to again and again and again Sojourner the pieces are stunning in what they risk and reveal The San Francisco Chronicle Encyclopedia of Gender and Society Jodi O'Brien, 2009 Provides timely comparative analysis from internationally known contributors

English Literature and the Other Languages, 2022-06-08 The thirty essays in English Literature and the Other Languages trace how the tangentiality of English and other modes of language affects the production of English literature and investigate how questions of linguistic code can be made accessible to literary analysis This collection studies multilingualism from the Reformation onwards when Latin was an alternative to the emerging vernacular of the Anglican nation the eighteenth century confrontation between English and the languages of the colonies the process whereby the standard British English of the colonizer has lost ground to independent englishes American Canadian Indian Caribbean Nigerian or New Zealand English that now consider the original standard British English as the other languages the interaction between English and a range of British language varieties including Welsh Irish and Scots the Lancashire and Dorset dialects as well as working class idiom Chicano literature translation and self translation Ezra Pound's revitalization of English in the Cantos and the psychogrammar and comic dialogics in Joyce's Ulysses As Norman Blake puts it in his Afterword to English Literature and the Other Languages There has been no volume such as this which tries to take stock of the whole area and to put multilingualism in literature on the map It is a subject which has been neglected for too long and this volume is to be welcomed for its brave attempt to fill this lacuna Feminist Phenomenology Futures Helen A. Fielding, Dorothea E. Olkowski, 2017-06-16 Distinguished feminist philosophers consider the future of their field and chart its political and ethical course in this forward looking volume Engaging with themes such as the historical trajectory of feminist phenomenology ways of perceiving and making sense of the contemporary world and the feminist body in health and ethics these essays affirm the base of the discipline as well as open new theoretical spaces for work that bridges bioethics social identity physical ability and the very nature and boundaries of the female body Entanglements with thinkers such as Heidegger Merleau Ponty Beauvoir and Arendt are evident and reveal new directions for productive philosophical work Grounded in the richness of the feminist philosophical tradition this work represents a significant opening to the possible futures of feminist phenomenological research Putting Ideas to Work Mark Mattern,2006-07-08 In this innovative new text Mark Mattern offers a unique alternative to the traditional approaches to the study and teaching of political philosophy Rather than approaching it solely as a world of abstractions Putting Ideas to Work emphasizes its practical task Political ideas drawn from historical and analytical political philosophy are used to help rethink current public problems and imagine potential solutions to them Putting Ideas to Work is organized around five central tensions in political theory and practice individual and community freedom and equality justice and political order democracy and capitalism and power and citizenship Each section begins with a description and analysis of several contemporary public problems arising from these tensions Key political thinkers are then drawn upon to help understand the genesis of the public problems and to offer alternative ways of thinking about them The text is anchored throughout to an idea of strong democracy that functions as a standard against which theory and practice are measured Multiple and Intersecting Identities in Qualitative Research Betty

Merchant,Arlette Ingram Willis,2000-11 Extends the current discourse on the role of cultural knowledge in qualitative research especially research conducted by women of color w in their own community Challenges existing paradigms by questioning the assumption of objectivity in research Intersectionality and Beyond Emily Grabham,Davina Cooper,Jane Krishnadas,Didi Herman,2008-08-21 This collection addresses the present and the future of the concept of intersectionality within socio legal studies Including contributions from a range of international scholars this book interrogates what has become a key organizing concept across a range of disciplines most particularly law political theory and cultural studies and Aisara Yessenova Identity Poetics Linda Garber, 2001-10-17 Queer theory asserts Linda Garber alternately buries and vilifies lesbian feminism missing its valuable insights and ignoring its rich contributions Rejecting the either/or choice between lesbianism and queer theory she favors an inclusive approach that defies current factionalism In an eloquent challenge to the privileging of queer theory in the academy Garber calls for recognition of the historical and intellectually significant role of lesbian poets as theorists of lesbian identity and activism The connections Garber shows are most clearly seen when looking at the pivotal work of working class lesbians lesbians of color whose articulations of multiple simultaneous identity positions and activist politics both belong to lesbian feminism and presage queer theory Identity Poetics includes a critical overview of recent historical writing about the women's and lesbian feminist movements of the 1970s discussions of the works of Judy Grahn Pat Parker Audre Lorde Adrienne Rich and Gloria Anzaldúa and finally a chapter on the rise and hegemony of queer theory within lesbian/gay studies Between Worlds Cheryl G. Najarian, 2013-10-14 The purpose of this book is to illustrate the struggles of Deaf women as they negotiate their family educational and work lives This study demonstrates how these women resist and overcome the various obstacles that are put before them as well as how they work to negotiate their identities as Deaf women in the Deaf community hearing world and the places in between The scope of the book traces these women's lives in these three major sectors of their lives and provides a discussion of the implications for other linguistic minorities No Permanent Waves Nancy A. Hewitt, 2010 No Permanent Waves boldly enters the ongoing debates over the utility of the wave metaphor for capturing the complex history of women's rights by offering fresh perspectives on the diverse movements that comprise U.S. feminism past and present Seventeen essays both original and reprinted address continuities conflicts and transformations among women's movements in the United States from the early nineteenth century through today A respected group of contributors from diverse generations and backgrounds argue for new chronologies more inclusive conceptualizations of feminist agendas and participants and fuller engagements with contestations around particular issues and practices Race class and sexuality are explored within histories of women's rights and feminism as well as the cultural and intellectual currents and social and political priorities that marked movements for women's advancement and liberation These essays question whether the concept of waves surging and receding can fully capture the complexities of U.S. feminisms and suggest models for reimagining these histories from radio waves to hip hop

International Theory Steve Smith, Ken Booth, Marysia Zalewski, 1996-06-13 This book provides a major review of the state of international theory It is focused around the issue of whether the positivist phase of international theory is now over or whether the subject remains mainly positivistic Leading scholars analyse the traditional theoretical approaches in the discipline then examine the issues and groups which are marginalised by mainstream theory before turning to four important new developments in international theory historical sociology post structuralism feminism and critical theory The book concludes with five chapters which look at the future of the subject and the practice of international relations This survey brings together key figures who have made leading contributions to the development of mainstream and alternative theory and will be a valuable text for both students and scholars of international relations

Decentering the Center Uma Narayan, Sandra Harding, Sandra G. Harding, 2000-03-22 The essays in this volume bring to their focuses on philosophical issues the new angles of vision created by the multicultural global and postcolonial feminisms that have been developing around us These multicultural global and postcolonial feminist concerns transform mainstream notions of experience human rights the origins of philosophic issues philosophic uses of metaphors of the family white antiracism human progress scientific progress modernity the unity of scientific method the desirability of universal knowledge claims and other ideas central to philosophy

Beyond Machismo Aída Hurtado, Mrinal Sinha, 2016-03-29 Long considered a pervasive value of Latino cultures both south and north of the US border machismo a hypermasculinity that obliterates any other possible influences on men s attitudes and behavior is still used to define Latino men and boys in the larger social narrative Yet a closer look reveals young educated Latino men who are going beyond machismo to a deeper understanding of women s experiences and a commitment to ending gender oppression This new Latino manhood is the subject of Beyond Machismo Applying and expanding the concept of intersectionality developed by Chicana feminists A da

Hurtado and Mrinal Sinha explain how the influences of race class ethnicity sexuality and gender shape Latinos views of manhood masculinity and gender issues in Latino communities and their acceptance or rejection of feminism In particular the authors show how encountering Chicana feminist writings in college as well as witnessing the horrors of sexist oppression in the United States and Latin America propels young Latino men to a feminist consciousness By focusing on young high achieving Latinos Beyond Machismo elucidates this social group s internal diversity thereby providing a more nuanced understanding of the processes by which Latino men can overcome structural obstacles form coalitions across lines of difference and contribute to movements for social justice

Race, Ethnicity and Publishing in America C.

Cottenet,2014-06-26 Race Ethnicity and Publishing in America considers American minority literatures from the perspective of print culture Putting in dialogue European and American scholars and spanning the slavery era through the early 21st century they draw on approaches from library history literary history and textual studies

Research Method in the Postmodern James Scheurich,2014-01-02 In recent years research in the social sciences has been dominated by the debate on the merits of qualitative method versus quantitative methodology Until recently the debate appeared to have been won by those promoting the qualitative approach but then postmodern theory appeared on the scene challenging all our preconceptions about research method This book goes one step further than those working at the philosophical level showing the implications of postmodernism for practice

Landmark Essays on Rhetorics of Difference Damian Baca, Ellen

Cushman, Jonathan Osborne,2024-11-01 Landmark Essays on Rhetorics of Difference challenges the Eurocentric perspective from which the field of rhetoric is traditionally viewed Taking a step beyond the creation of alternative rhetorics that maintain the centrality of the European and Greco Roman tradition this volume argues on behalf of pluriversal rhetorics that coexist as equally important on their own terms A timely addition to the respected Landmark Essays series it will be invaluable to students of history of rhetoric literacy composition and writing studies

No More Secrets Janice

Ristock,2012-09-10 Violence is a male biological trait When women fight no one gets seriously hurt Lesbians don t abuse their spouses The truth revealed in Janice Ristock s groundbreaking book is that lesbian relationships sometimes do turn violent Based on interviews with more than one hundred lesbians who have suffered abuse and seventy five case workers No More Secrets is the first in depth account of this startling phenomenon Although one in four gay and lesbian couples are affected by domestic violence the problem has remained hidden for several reasons By giving voice to the victims Ristock helps women to address violence by breaking silences sharing secrets and naming the forms of abuse
