Multiculturalism in Education and Teaching Carl A. Grant,2014-11-13 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key article salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field Carl A Grant has spent the last 35 years researching teaching thinking and writing about some of the key enduring issues in multicultural education He has contributed to a multitude of books and articles and is former President of the National Association for Multicultural Education In his selected works Carl Grant brings together 14 of his key writings in one place Starting with a specially written Introduction which gives an overview of his career and contextualises his selection within the development of the field the book is divided into three parts Race and Educational Equity Theorizing Multicultural Education Multicultural Teacher Education This book not only shows how Carl Grant s thinking developed during his long and distinguished career it also gives an insight into the development of the fields to which he contributed     The Role of the University in the Preparation of Teachers ,     The Care and Education of Young Bilinguals Colin Baker,Anne Sienkewicz,2000-01-01 This text is a comprehensive Introduction for all professionals working with bilingual children For speech therapists doctors psychologists counsellors teachers special needs personnel the book addresses important issues at a practical level     Cultural Education - Cultural Sustainability Zvi Bekerman,Ezra Kopelowitz,2008-02-06 This volume is a path breaking contribution to the study of efforts of diaspora indigenous and minority groups broadly defined to use education formal and informal to sustain cultural continuity while grappling with the influences and demands of wider globalizing nationalizing or other homogenizing and assimilatory forces Particular attention is given to groups that use educational elements other than second language teaching alone in programs to sustain their particular cultural traditions. The focus of the book on cultural sustainability changes the nature of questions posed in multicultural education from those that address the opening of boundaries to issues of preserving boundaries in an open yet sustainable way. As forced and elective immigration trends are changing the composition of societies and the educational systems within them, bringing a rich diversity of cultural experience to the teaching learning process, diaspora indigenous and minority groups are looking more and more for ways to sustain their cultures in the context of wider socio political influences. This volume is a first opportunity to consider critically multicultural efforts in dialogue with educational options that are culturally particularistic but at the same time tolerant. Academics will find this an excellent reference book. Practitioners will draw inspiration in learning of others efforts to sustain cultures and will engage in critical reflection on their own work vis à vis that of others. Teachers will realize they do not stand alone in their educational efforts and will uncover new strategies and methodologies through which to approach their work.

The studies in this book while centred primarily on the North American context have wide international significance and interdisciplinary reach and address a range of educational contexts across K 12 education and less formal educational settings. They explore the racialized construction, positioning and experiences of bi multilingual students and the implications of this for educational policy, pedagogy and practice. The chapters draw on a range of critical theoretical perspectives including CRT, LatCrit, Indigenous epistemologies and bilingual education; they also address significant methodological questions that arise when undertaking critical ethnographic work including the key issues of positionality and critical reflexivity.
