Photography Mike Davis, 2022-12-26 This book provides photographers with the foundation to craft more compelling photos from concept all the way through to creation and distribution on the path to making a living Based on real life practice and experience former National Geographic and White House visual editor Mike Davis takes readers on a journey starting with addressing the motivation behind an image and how this determines the rest of the creative process He goes on to articulate best technical practices to create the narrative through photo composition and what to do with your work after the photos are completed Each section offers exercises for applied learning and a series of appendices cover assignments structures a compilation of critical words and concepts a comprehensive resource guide of organizations competitions grants collectives and agencies book publishers and printers and more This is an ideal resource for students and practitioners alike to gain a more informed understanding of photographic expression and learn how to effectively execute these visions The Making of English Photography: Allegories , Since the production of the first negative by William Henry Fox Talbot in Wiltshire s Lacock Abbey in 1835 English photography has played a central role in revolutionizing the production of images yet it has largely evaded critical attention The Making of English Photography investigates this new enterprise and specifically how professional photographers shaped a strange aesthetic for their practice The Making of English Photography examines the development of English photography as an industrial commercial and most problematically artistic enterprise Concentrating on the first decades of photography s history Edwards tracks the pivotal distinction between art and document as it emerged in the writings of the men of science and professional photographers suggesting that this key opposition is rooted in social fantasies of the worker Through a close reading of the photographic press in the 1860s he both reconstructs the ideological world of photographers and employs the unstable category of photography to cast light on art class and industrial knowledge Bringing together an array of early photographs recent historical and theoretical scholarship and extensive archival sources The Making of English Photography sheds new light on the prevailing discourses of photography as well as the antinomies of art and work in a world shaped by social division Photographic Apparatus, Making and Adapting Frederick W. Cooper, D. W. Gawn, 1902 Discusses the equipment needed for successful photography Includes in depth information on darkrooms and camera accessories Lewis Carroll's Photography and Modern Childhood Diane Waggoner, 2020-05-26 Pictures and conversations photographic meaning Liddell girls Alice and her sisters Pretty boys and little men becoming a boy Theatrical transformations fancy dress In fairyland partial dress and the nude Active Landscape Photography Anne Godfrey, 2022-09-28 How can photography be transformed into an active process of investigation for landscape architecture and environmental design The second book in Godfrey s series Active Landscape Photography presents engaged photographic methods that turn photography into a rigorous thoughtful endeavor for the research planning and design of landscape places Photography is the most ubiquitous and important form of representation in these disciplines Yet photography is not specifically taught as a core skill within these fields This book creates a starting point for filling this gap

Concepts and working methods from contemporary photography and critical cultural theories are contextualized into situations encountered in the daily practice of landscape architecture and environmental design. These methods can be integrated into practices in academic and professional settings or picked up and self-taught by an individual reader. Part I: Methods presents easily accessible approaches to photography, creating a core set of active skills. Part II: Practices discusses working methods of specific contemporary photographers and extrapolates their practices into common planning and design situations. Contemporary photographers presented include Richard Misrach, Dawoud Bey, Duane Michals, Latoya Ruby Frazier, Mark Klett, Sophie Calle, Joe Deal, Robert Adams, Naima Green, Bernd and Hilla Becher, Stephen Shore, David Hockney, Amy Serrano, William Christenberry, Jeff Wall, and Sohei Nishino. Beautifully illustrated in full color with over 150 images by Godfrey and her students and contemporary photographers, this book provides both clear guidelines for a set of diverse methods as well as a deeper discussion about the implications of making and using photography in environmental design for professionals, academics, students, and researchers.
