Making America Competitive Policies For A Global Future:

Making America Competitive Marcia L. Whicker, Raymond Moore, 1988-10-26 In this groundbreaking new study Whicker and Moore address an issue of critical importance to the future economic and political stability of the United States how can this nation become more competitive in international markets Drawing upon economic theory political philosophy and specific policy expertise the authors organize their work around two principle themes that just as the role of government in a changing world is evolutionary policies must evolve to reflect shifting economic realities and that previously hostile attitudes among U S management labor and government must be replaced by cooperation in order to ensure effective long term competitiveness abroad
