Arbitration and Human Rights Toms Krūmiņš, 2020-08-12 This book presents a creative synthesis of two ostensibly disparate fields of law arbitration and human rights More specifically it focuses on various legislative approaches to excluding the annulment of arbitral awards setting aside proceedings at the seat of arbitration and evaluates the compatibility of such approaches with the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR in particular the right to a fair trial under Article 6 1 The book first assesses the applicability and impact of the ECHR in particular Article 6 1 on international commercial arbitration It then analyses a number of legislative approaches to excluding setting aside proceedings focusing on two synergetic phenomena exclusion agreements and the total lack of setting aside proceedings in national arbitration law Lastly the book investigates to what extent the lack of setting aside proceedings in national arbitration law may lead to a violation of arbitrating parties right to a fair trial under Article 6 1 and puts forward certain de lege ferenda recommendations on how to best approach the regulation of setting aside proceedings in national arbitration law from the standpoint of compliance with the ECHR

The Illicit Trade in Art and Antiquities Janet Ulph, Ian Smith, 2015-11-05 This new text provides practical guidance on the modern law relating to cultural objects which have been stolen looted or illegally exported It explains how English criminal law principles including money laundering measures apply to those who deal in cultural objects in a domestic or international setting It discusses the recovery of works of art and antiquities in the English courts where there are competing claims between private individuals or between individuals and the UK Government or a foreign State Significantly this text also provides an exposition of the law where a British law enforcement agency or a foreign law enforcement agency is involved in the course of criminal or civil proceedings in an English court The growth of relevant international instruments which include not only those devoted to the protection of mankind's cultural heritage but also those concerned with money laundering and serious organised crime provide a backdrop to this discussion. The UK's ratification of the UNESCO Convention on Means of Prohibiting and Preventing the Illicit Import, Export and Transfer of Ownership of Cultural Property 1970 in 2002 is considered. The problems posed in attempting to curb trafficking in art and antiquities are explored and the effectiveness of the current law is analysed. The Emergence of EU

Contract Law Lucinda Miller, 2011-09-22 The emergence of a pan-European contract law is one of the most significant legal developments in Europe today. The Emergence of EU Contract Law: Exploring Europeanization examines the origins of the discipline and its subsequent evolution. It brings the discussion up to date with full analysis of the debate on the Common Frame of Reference and the future that this ambiguous instrument may have in the contemporary European legal framework. One of the central themes of the book is exploration of the multi-level open architecture of the EU legal order and the implications of that architecture for the EU's private law programme. The analysis demonstrates that the key to understanding European contract law in the 21st century lies in adopting a perspective and mechanisms suitable for a legal order populated by multiple sources of private law. Legal pluralism is offered as a theoretical construct with the capacity to shape the future of European private law, shifting the analytical spotlight beyond the traditional centralized legislative means of regulation. In so doing, softer mechanisms are introduced for the governance of contract law mechanisms that enable coordination between the different sites at which contract law operates. This reorientation in thinking about European contract law indeed about Europeanization itself enables the inevitable diversity and pluralism that is a feature of multi-level Europe to be captured within a framework that maximizes the opportunities for mutual learning and exchange across private law sites. Equity & Trusts Alastair Hudson, 2014-05-27 This new edition considers all of the academic commentary governing the area of equity and trusts, in particular the emerging law of restitution and the raft of new case law over the 1990s. It is suitable both as a scholarly reference and as a resource for students. The Politics of Canadian Foreign Policy, Fourth Edition Kim Richard Nossal, Stéphane Roussel, Stéphane Paquin, 2015-12-07 The fourth edition of this widely used text includes updates about the many changes that have occurred in Canadian foreign policy under Stephen Harper and the Conservatives between 2006 and 2015. Subjects discussed include the fading emphasis on internationalism, the rise of a new foreign policy agenda that is increasingly shaped by domestic political imperatives and the changing organization of Canada's foreign policy bureaucracy. As in previous editions, this volume analyzes the deeply political context of how foreign policy is made in Canada. Taking a broad historical perspective, Kim Nossal, Stéphane Roussel and Stéphane Paquin provide readers with the key foundations for the study of Canadian foreign policy. They argue that foreign policy is forged in the nexus of politics at three levels: the global, the domestic and the governmental, and that to understand how and why Canadian foreign policy looks the way it does, one must look at the interplay of all three. Equity & Trusts Law Directions Gary Watt, 2025

Equity and Trusts Law Directions Gary Watt, 2021 Equity & Trusts Law is an authoritative yet lively text with an emphasis on explaining clearly the key topics covered on equity and trusts courses Rich learning features demonstrate how the law of equity and trusts is applied in the real world and why it is such a stimulating and exciting field Corporate Insolvency Law Vanessa Finch,2002-09-12 Vanessa Finch provides an interesting look at corporate insolvency laws and processes She adopts an interdisciplinary approach to place two questions at the centre of her discussion Are current UK laws and procedures efficient expert accountable and fair Are fundamentally different conceptions of insolvency law needed for it to develop in a way that serves corporate and broader social ends Topics considered in this wide ranging book include different ways of financing companies causes of corporate failure and prospects for designing rescue friendly processes Also examined are alternative asset distribution of failed companies allocations of insolvency risks and effects of insolvency on a company s directors and employees Finch argues that changes of approach are needed if insolvency law is to develop with coherence and purpose This book will appeal to academics and students at advanced undergraduate and graduate level and to legal practitioners throughout the common law world Secured Credit and the Harmonisation of Law Gerard
