Making Economic Connections:

Making Economic Connections Larry W. (Larry Wayne) Smith, 2002 Making Global and Local Connections Tapio Bergholm, Lewis R. Fischer, M. Elisabetta Tonizzi, International Maritime Economic History Association, 2007 This book provides a series of case studies concerning ports and port communities from around the world in attempt to determine the impact of globalisation on the port industry and the link between local and global port conditions It also presents the case for the absolute necessity of ports and port systems to trade and industry on a global scale The book is comprised of ten essays the first six of which concern local issues in a rapid globalising industry The second section contains the remaining four essays which consider port systems from national perspectives

Evaluation of the Economic Relationships on the Basis of Statistical Decision-Making in Complex Neutrosophic Environment

Social Forces in the Re-Making of Cross-Strait Relations

André Beckershoff, 2023-08-11 Adopting a critical political economy perspective this book sheds new light on the social and political struggles that shaped the political dynamics of Taiwan China relations and cross Strait rapprochement between 2008 and 2014 Presenting a careful analysis of primary sources and interviews the book reconstructs the historical political and socio economic factors that shaped Taiwan's path to the Sunflower Movement of 2014 reinterpreting this process as a struggle over Taiwan's role in the global economy It challenges received wisdoms regarding the rise and fall of the rapprochement First the study argues that the rapprochement was not primarily driven by political elites but by capitalist conglomerates within Taiwan which sought a normalisation of economic relations across the Taiwan Strait Second it finds that Taiwan's social movements during that period were not homogeneous but rather struggled to find a common vision that could unite the critics of the rapprochement The insights provided not only offer a deeper understanding of Taiwan's protest cycle between 2008 and 2014 but also serve to recontextualise the political dynamics in post Sunflower Taiwan As such it will appeal to students and scholars of Taiwan Studies East Asian Politics and Social Movement Studies

The Making of National Economic Forecasts Lawrence Robert Klein, 2009-01-01 In this valuable volume Nobel Prize winner Klein gathers together a group of authors who focus on forecasting models for a number of economies The variety of the models and the structural differences among them are especially interesting Readers interested in forecasting methodologies will find much of value in this volume Highly recommended I Walter Choice This important book prepared under the direction of Nobel Laureate Lawrence R Klein shows how economic forecasts are made It explains how modern developments in information technology have made it possible to forecast frequently at least monthly but also weekly or bi weekly depending upon the perceived needs of potential forecast users and also on the availability of updated material The book focuses on forecasts in a diverse range of economies including the United States China India Russia Germany Japan South Korea and Turkey At a time of great economic uncertainty this book makes an important contribution by showing how new information technology can be used to prepare national economic forecasts

The Politics of International Economic Relations Jeffrey A. Hart, Joan Edelman Spero, 2013-06-17 The first and definitive book of its kind Joan Spero's The Politics of International Economic Relations has been fully updated to reflect the sweeping changes in the international arena With the expertise of co author Jeffrey Hart the fifth edition strengthens the coverage of political and economic relations since the end of the Cold War economic polarization in developing nations and the roots of economic decline in centrally planned economies A new chapter on industrial policy and competitiveness debates further illustrates the changing dynamics of International Political Economy Ideal as a supplement to the International Relations course or as the core text in International Political Economy Spero and Hart's The Politics of International Economic Relations continues to give students the breadth and depth of scholarship needed to understand the politics of world economy

Engaging New Institutional Economics with New Testament Studies Alex Hon Ho Ip, 2024-12-15 In Engaging New Institutional Economics with New Testament Studies Methods and Case Studies on Wealth Poverty Economic Relationships and Material Culture the intersection of economics and biblical scholarship takes center stage offering a groundbreaking approach to understanding the economic underpinnings of the New Testament This book explores how the vast economic landscape of the Roman Empire shaped early Christian communities delving into themes of wealth poverty and material culture through the lens of New Institutional Economics NIE The book also conducts a thorough literature review addressing a common misunderstanding rooted in the confusing use of the term economics Many scholars have narrowly assumed that economics refers exclusively to neo classical economics However this work deliberately advocates for the merits of NIE demonstrating how it offers a more nuanced framework for analyzing the economic realities of the ancient world and their impact on New Testament narratives Through detailed case studies including an analysis of wealth possession in the Gospel of Luke the book illustrates how NIE can unlock new insights into the New Testament's engagement with economic structures Far from being merely an academic exercise this book argues that the New Testament offers profound wisdom for navigating the ethical and moral complexities of economic behavior in the modern world Scholars and readers alike will find a valuable resource for exploring the rich yet often overlooked economic dimensions of the New Testament

The Diplomatic Making of EU-China Relations Lucie Qian Xia, 2024-04-11 This book provides a novel theoretical framework to understand EU China diplomatic relations The existing scholarly literature on EU China relations is characterised by a dichotomous distinction between material and ideational factors and overemphasises the interest versus value motif undergirding EU China relations The diplomacy and future direction of the relationship seem as opaque as their extent remains incalculably complex This book takes us beyond binary motives by introducing a novel theoretical model of diplomatic relationship building that brings to the fore the more nuanced and latent factors to make sense of EU China diplomatic relationship building the new theory captures the relational nature of diplomatic relationship building by integrating the social layer of intentions in understanding international diplomacy This study further sheds light on the opportunities and challenges in enhancing EU China relations through a comparative in depth investigation of the processes practices and politics of EU China climate change and agricultural trade relations over the past two decades The book draws on a rich collection of original data encompassing over 100 interviews with stakeholders of EU China relations conducted from 2015 2023 strengthened by participant observation at EU and Chinese institutional headquarters and in diplomatic fora that has taken place over the past ten years Enriching these data are newly disclosed official minutes and documentation regarding EU China negotiations and cooperation This book will be of much interest to students of diplomacy studies Chinese politics EU politics and international relations in general

Making Makers Michael P. M. Finch, 2024-05-07 Making Makers presents a comprehensive history of a seminal work of scholarship which has exerted a persistent attraction for scholars of war and strategy Makers of Modern Strategy It reveals the processes by which scholars conceived and devised the book considering both successful and failed attempts to make and remake the work across the twentieth century and illuminating its impact and legacy It explains how and why these influential volumes took their particular forms unearths the broader intellectual processes that shaped them and reflects on the academic parameters of the study of war in the twentieth century In presenting a complete genesis of the Makers project in the context of intellectual trends and historical contingency this book reflects on a more complex and nuanced appraisal of the development of scholarship on war In so doing it also offers contributions to the intellectual biographies of key figures in the history of war in the twentieth century such as Edward Mead Earle Peter Paret Gordon Craig and Theodore Ropp Making Makers contributes to an intellectual history of military history and contextualises the place of history and historians in strategic and security studies It is not only a history of the book but a history of the networks of scholars involved in its creation their careers and lines of patronage crossing international boundaries from Europe to the USA to Asia and Australia It is an investigation of ideas individuals and groups of work completed and scholarship produced as well as contingency and opportunities missed

U.S.-Japanese Economic Relations United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on International Trade, Finance, and Security Economics, 1982

Facing Asia - Japan's Role in the Political and Economic Dynamism of Regional Cooperation Blechinger, Verena, Legewie, Jochen, 2000-05-04 Facing Asia examines the political and economic processes of regionalism and regionalization in Asia with a focus on Japan and Japanese actors The articles by eminent scholars address the forces that tie the region together They treat topics ranging from Japanese bilateral and multilateral ODA and the activities of state and non state actors on the regional level to issues such as Japanese multinational corporations foreign direct investment in Asia and regional financial institutions Methodologically the authors draw on disciplinary strengths in either the social sciences or economics while organizing their treatment around a shared political economic perspective By looking at Asia through an interdisciplinary lens the volume offers something to anyone interested in Japanese involvement in the politics and economics of the region In the final chapter the editors weave together the different approaches to Japan s place in Asian regional cooperation in the 1990s and beyond India-Africa Economic Relations in the New Global Economy Rick Rowden,2025-03-18 While there have been many books about China s growing economic role in Africa this book explores the much less well known story of India s growing economic role in Africa And like the big debates about China s role in Africa this book similarly asks if India is acting as a helpful development partner in Africa an exploitative new colonizer or if the answer ultimately has to do with the degree of agency exercised by African governments While the book documents the significant increase in Indian aid trade and FDI in Africa in the new millennium it also offers much more It comprehensively looks at theories of economic development the debates about the role of trade and industrial policies in economic development strategies colonial and post colonial literature and controversial features of today s global political economy as the background to study Africa and frames Africa India economic relations in these broad contexts The book reviews the history of India s diplomacy trade and investment in African countries since decolonization with a focus on the increased economic ties of the past two decades The main question examined is about the longterm impact that India s economic relations are having in African economies and if India is helping Africa to successfully develop over time or not The author examines India s economic and strategic interests in the African region and offers a comparative analysis of Africa s trade with India China the European Union and other African nations The book also explores a number of outstanding issues in India Africa relations today such as Africa s role as a source of oil gas and critical minerals needed by India the lifesaving role of Indian generic medicines across the continent the nature of the agricultural development model that India is introducing in Africa and key areas where Indian and African governments are cooperating in the international arena The book offers a critical and in depth look into the partnerships India has developed with African countries and contributes to the debate on economic relations between a more developed emerging market like India and less developed countries A major contribution to the emerging area of South South economics this book part of the Critical Political Economy of South Asia series will be useful for scholars and researchers of economics development economics development studies public policy diplomacy African studies political economy South Asian economics and international politics and trade Appendix to the Report of the Japan-United States Economic Relations Group Japan-United States Economic Relations Group,1981

Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. Parliament,1983 Interpreting U.S.-China-Taiwan Relations Xiabing Li,Xiabo Hu,Yang Zhong,2003-02-27 Interpreting U S China Taiwan Relations presents an up to date multidisciplinary approach to this often troublesome relationship through essays written by experts in the fields of political science economics military science history and communications It begins with a focus on the relationship between the U S and China as China presses forward with new development while the United States encourages a balance of power in East Asia It evaluates the successes and failures of the relationship and the forces behind the stands that they take that feed the stress of the relationship The second group of essays deals with the relationship between China and Taiwan They examine the recent changes and tentativeness surrounding the situation caused by the death of Deng Xiaoping and the social and economic problems of China yet communicate a tremendous optimism that a breakthrough will occur in the future The final essays explore the evolution of China's perceptions of its international environment as it begins to understand and respond to external circumstances better and more positively

The Impact of Governments on East-West Economic Relations Steven Elliott-Gowerd, 2016-07-27 In this volume the perceptive reader will find many clues to the future of the Soviet Union Eastern Europe East West economic relations and the impact of governments in this area The authors are aware of the mistakes of the past the limitations of centralized planning the dangers and the futility of confrontation and the global significance of the new roles that governments must play in the transitional period of political and economic reform in the East

The Making of India's Foreign Policy Jayantanuja Bandyopadhyaya, 2003

The New Economic Diplomacy Stephen Woolcock, 2025-04-29 The New Economic Diplomacy fifth edition explores how states conduct their external economic relations make domestic decisions negotiate internationally and how these processes interact It provides the reader with an understanding of and the means with which to analyse the processes of decision making and negotiation in international economic relations and clarifies our understanding of economic diplomacy and how it can be understood as consisting of commercial diplomacy negotiating international cooperation economic statecraft and economic sanctions To capture the emergence of new trends and the intensification of old ones this new edition focuses on Responses to geopolitics in economic diplomacy The intensification of domestic pressures on decision making in international economic relations The weakening of multilateralism and emergence of a multipolar system The continued importance of policy processes in responding to these challenges and Case studies to illustrate how this economic diplomacy is affected by different domestic and international settings This book will be of interest to scholars and students of the decision making processes in foreign economic policy including those studying international relations government politics and economics It will also appeal to practitioners those working in NGOs and others wishing to understand how decisions are taken and negotiations conducted

Digital International Relations Corneliu Bjola, Markus Kornprobst, 2023-11-03 This book analyses how digital transformation disrupts established patterns of world politics moving International Relations IR increasingly towards Digital International Relations This volume examines technological agential and ordering processes that explain this fundamental change The contributors trace how digital disruption changes the international world we live in ranging from security to economics from human rights advocacy to deep fakes and from diplomacy to international law The book makes two sets of contributions First it shows that the ongoing digital revolution profoundly changes every major dimension of international politics Second focusing on the interplay of technology agency and order it provides a framework for explaining these changes The book also provides a map for adjusting the study of international politics to studying International Relations making a case for upgrading augmenting and rewiring the discipline Theory follows practice in International Relations but if the discipline wants to be able to meaningfully analyse the present and come up with plausible scenarios for the future it must not lag too far behind major transformations of the world that it studies This book facilitates that theoretical journey This book will be of much interest to students of cyber politics politics and technology and International Relations Freedom vs Necessity in International Relations Professor David Chandler, 2013-03-14 The last two decades have seen the remarkable rise to dominance of human centred understandings of the world Indeed it is now rare to read any analysis of insecurity conflict or development which does not discuss the need to empower or capacity build local individuals or communities In this path breaking book Chandler presents a radical challenge to such approaches arguing that the solutions to the world's problems are now not perceived to lie within external structures of economic political and social relations but instead with individuals and groups who are often seen to be the most marginal and powerless This fundamental change has gone hand in hand with the shift from state based to society based understandings of the world Chandler provocatively argues that human centred approaches have limited rather than expanded the transformative possibilities available to us and if real change is to be achieved both at a local and a global level then a radical re think in Western thought is required
