Making Your Children's Ministry the Best Hour of Every Kid's Week David Staal, 2009-05-26 Promiseland is Willow Creek's highly successful children's ministry. Using examples from Promiseland and churches of all sizes around the country, this book provides step by step guidance and creative application exercises to help churches develop a thriving children's ministry, one that strives to be the best hour of every kid's week. Included are Scripture based principles and practical resources for church staff members and volunteers who agree with the critical role children's ministry plays in a local church. Making Your Children's Ministry the Best Hour of Every Kid's Week based on twenty eight years of experience at Willow Creek explains four ministry foundations: Mission, Vision, Values, and Strategy. Content includes Detailed answers to questions facing every children's ministry: What does Jesus expect from children's ministry? How can we evangelize lost kids and disciple saved kids at the same time and should we? How do we engage kids so they don't become bored? How do we get better at recruiting and leading volunteers? How can our ministry be a safe place for children? Six specific ministry values that address the needs of today's children.

Practical first steps for ministries that want to get serious about change Clear indicators of success in children s ministry

Shaped by the Story Michael Novelli,2013-10-15 After more than a decade in youth ministry Michael Novelli felt like he'd tried everything to connect his students to the Bible Then a missionary introduced him to the art of Bible storying an imaginative way to engage in the scriptures through storytelling creative reflection and dialogue He soon discovered that Bible storying was not only an effective teaching approach but a powerful way to awaken people to new purpose and identity rooted in the biblical narrative In 2012 Michael partnered with sparkhouse to create Echo the Story curriculum based on his approach to Bible storying Michael has seen people of all ages benefit from this imaginative way of encountering God through the Bible In this book you'll find methods for adapting Bible storying for varied contexts and ages testimonials from people using this approach tools to create your own Bible storying narratives and details about the proven learning theories guiding this approach

Meeting the Enemy Kevin J. O'Brien,2025-02-18 The catastrophic effects of climate change can seem overwhelming What can we do Who is responsible In the tradition of Walter Wink O'Brien reminds us that Christians have the power to name and oppose the enemies of God's good creation The fossil fuel industry is just such an enemy We can courageously confront these powers of evil and build a more faithful future O'Brien paints the structural evils of the fossil fuel industry in sharp relief helping readers understand that a Christian climate ethic must move beyond individualistic blame and individualistic solutions While we bear responsibility for our personal actions O'Brien demonstrates that fossil fuel companies are far more to blame for the contemporary climate crisis His reframing shows us that the problem is the system Having fully developed his case for the blame fossil fuel companies bear O'Brien helps readers consider the options available to us as Christians to bear witness to evil and address the roots of this system of powers that bind us O'Brien's approachable and engaging analysis makes Meeting the Enemy a powerful resource for both the classroom and informal educational settings
