Description :

Marriage equality is here to stay; Understand the benefits and complications Full legal marriage is now available in all U.S. states. But there are still many questions that same-sex couples should discuss before walking down the aisle. Learn how marriage will affect: your family if you have children your taxes, and your responsibility for your partner's debts. Making It Legal also covers state laws on same-sex domestic partnerships and civil unions, and explains whether your registration will be recognized if you move to another state.

Making It Legal:

Making Legal History Anthony Musson, Chantal Stebbings, 2012-01-26 The first book to address the way that the broad and inclusive subject of legal history is researched and written      Making Legal History Daniel J. Hulsebosch, R. B.

Bernstein, 2013-09-20 One of the academy's leading legal historians William E. Nelson is the Edward Weinfeld Professor of Law at New York University School of Law. For more than four decades Nelson has produced some of the most original and creative work on American constitutional and legal history. His prize-winning books have blazed new trails for historians with their substantive arguments and the scope and depth of Nelson's exploration of primary sources. Nelson was the first legal scholar to use early American county court records as sources of legal and social history and his work on legal history in England, colonial America and New York has been a model for generations of legal historians. This book collects ten essays exemplifying and explaining the process of identifying and interpreting archival sources, the foundation of an array of methods of writing American legal history. The essays presented here span the full range of American history from the colonial era to the 1980s. Each historian has either identified a body of sources not previously explored or devised a new method of interrogating sources already known. The result is a kaleidoscopic examination of the historian's task and of the research methods and interpretative strategies that characterize the rich, complex field of American constitutional and legal history      The Cambridge Handbook of Psychology and Legal Decision-Making Monica K. Miller, Logan A.

Yelderman, Matthew T. Huss, Jason A. Cantone, 2024-02-29 Presenting state of the art research, this Handbook summarises emerging and establishing topics in the area of legal decision making. Interdisciplinary in its approach, it covers decisions made within the criminal justice system, the trial process and clinical settings. Chapters written by accomplished academics and experts in the field synthesize historical context, identify gaps in existing literature, propose future directions of study and discuss policy limitations. It also includes perspectives from the field: essays written by professionals—a judge, an attorney, a police officer, a trial consultant and a probation officer—to bridge the gap between academic research and its application to the real world. It is intended as a go-to resource for students and researchers who want to immerse themselves in a body of scientific research to understand its history and shape its future      Beliefs and Expectancies in Legal Decision Making

Bradley McAuliff, Brian Bornstein, 2016-02-26 Beliefs and expectancies influence our everyday thoughts, feelings and actions. These attributes make a closer examination of beliefs and expectancies worthwhile in any context, but particularly so within the high stakes arena of the legal system. Whether the decision maker is a police officer assessing the truthfulness of an alibi, a juror evaluating the accuracy of an eyewitness identification, an attorney arguing a case involving a juvenile offender or a judge deciding whether to terminate parental rights, these decisions matter and without doubt are influenced by beliefs and expectancies. This volume is comprised of research on beliefs and expectancies regarding alibis, children's behaviour while testifying, eyewitness testimony, confessions, sexual assault victims, judges' decisions in child protection cases and attorneys beliefs about jurors perceptions of juvenile offender culpability Areas for future research are identified and readers are encouraged to discover new ways that beliefs and expectancies operate in the legal system This book was originally published as a special issue of Psychology Crime Law      Social Consciousness in Legal Decision Making Richard L. Wiener, Brian H. Bornstein, Robert Schopp, Steven L. Willborn, 2007-05-11 This book invites the legal and psychology communities to work together in solving some of our most pressing social problems It examines four controversial areas involving people s perceptions of others The book is therefore a guide to understanding the valuable contribution of social scientific research in policy formulation in the law and it addresses the role of psychology in substantive law and legal decision making      Constructing Objectivity: Emotions in Legal Decision-making Stina Bergman Blix, Sharyn Lee-Anne Roach Anleu, Mojca M. Plesnicar, Louise Victoria Johansen, 2025-08-28 The field of Law and Emotion originated in discussions that disputed the bifurcation of emotion and law In the past decade these discussions have inspired socio legal research on the dynamic and social dimensions of court work The field has grown exponentially in diverse disciplines such as sociology law philosophy anthropology and criminology At the core of legal decision making lies the fundamental principles of objectivity impartiality and independence The Research Topic Constructing Objectivity Emotions in Legal Decision making addresses the dialectical processes of translating these principles into everyday judicial practice across a wide range of legal systems Building on empirical research including observations interviews shadowing vignettes and workshops with legal professionals this collection engages with objectivity in the making It addresses such questions as What role does court architecture and material objects play in the emotional dynamic of the legal procedure How do judges manage victims emotional statements or evaluate their credibility How do judges make independent decisions in a collective setting What role does extra legal lay specialist expertise play in co constructing legal knowledge of relevance to decision making How do judges embrace the idea of objectivity How is all this influenced by the growing digitalization of courts and hearings In so doing it investigates the complexity of objectivity as an ideal a judicial value requiring performance promoting courtroom atmosphere and as sometimes feigned      Shelter law-making : Legal response to the massive migration caused by Russian aggression against Ukraine : National report - Poland Aleksandra Mężykowska, Anna Młynarska-Sobaczewska, Piotr Polak, 2025-06-30      Shelter law-making : Legal response to the massive migration caused by Russian aggression against Ukraine : National report - Hungary Réka Friedery, 2025-06-30      Shelter law-making : Legal response to the massive migration caused by Russian aggression against Ukraine : General report on Visegrad countries: Czech Republic, Hungary, Republic of Poland, Slovak Republic Réka Friedery, Věra Honusková, Aleksandra Mężykowska, Miroslava Mittelmanová, Anna Młynarska-Sobaczewska, Lukáš Novák, Piotr Polak, 2025-06-30 The General Report presented below constitutes a summary of information and conclusions contained in the national reports on Czechia Hungary Poland and Slovakia and is the final output of Grant no 22320067 entitled Shelter law making Legal response to massive migration caused by Russian aggression against Ukraine co financed by the Visegrad Fund The national reports constitute the basis for the General Report therefore references to all sources and data are to be found there The main goal of the project was to analyse the legal actions taken and instruments created by the four Visegrad countries V4 in response to the large scale and unprecedented influx of people after 24 February 2022 the outbreak of the full scale invasion of the Russian Federation against Ukraine Above all we identified the need to compare the actions taken in individual countries in order to distinguish the recurring solutions identify those that have failed and select those that proved to be the most effective good practices In our opinion the findings of the project will provide a solid basis for more effective legal actions related to the current migration crisis and possible crises in future The conclusions and recommendations are in the final parts VI and VII of the General Report

Creating Legal Worlds Greig Henderson, 2015-07-06 A legal judgment is first and foremost a story a narrative of facts about the parties to the case Creating Legal Worlds is a study of how that narrative operates and how rhetoric story and style function as integral elements of any legal argument Through careful analyses of notable cases from Canada the United States and the United Kingdom Greig Henderson analyses how the rhetoric of storytelling often carries as much argumentative weight within a judgement as the logic of legal distinctions Through their narrative choices Henderson argues judges create a normative universe the world of right and wrong within which they make their judgements and fashion their own judicial self images Drawing on the work of the law and literature movement Creating Legal Worlds is a convincing argument for paying close attention to the role of story and style in the creation of judicial decisions

The Routledge International Handbook of Legal and Investigative Psychology Ray Bull, Iris Blandón-Gitlin, 2019-09-11 The Routledge International Handbook of Legal and Investigative Psychology explores contemporary topics in psychological science applying them to investigative and legal procedures Written by recognized scholars from around the globe this book brings together current research emerging trends and cutting edge debates in a single comprehensive and authoritative volume Drawing from both research and practice this handbook highlights many important issues such as how to investigate and prosecute rape the value of emotional affect in homicide investigations and factors affecting jurors and suspects decision making By considering current research the authors inform both legal and investigative professionals of findings that are of direct relevance to them and the steps that can be taken to improve efficiency This collection will inform investigative and legal professionals advanced psychology students academics researchers and policy makers It will also be of great interest to researchers from other disciplines including criminology policing and law

International Economic Organizations in the International Legal Process Sergei A. Voitovich, 1994-12-08 Voitovich presents a clear and lucid discussion of the manner and form in which international economic organizations IEOs participate in two main stages of the international legal process law making and law implementation The book is based on normative instruments and fragments of practice of about fifty IEOs In order to ensure a proper and timely realization of their normative acts IEOs exercise a number of law implementing functions which are subject to a thorough comparative examination The author concludes that existing IEOs not being ideal institutional models possess a sufficient arsenal of law implementing instruments to make a considerable impact on the international legal regulations in the economic field The book will be of interest to academics and economic political scientists

Yearbook Law & Legal Practice in East Asia, Volume 3 (1997-1998) Annie J. de Roo, Robert W. Jagtenberg, 2023-09-20 This is the third volume in the series Yearbook Law Legal Practice in East Asia which addresses the legal systems of this important region and provides an insight into some of the most topical issues in East Asian law and practice The overall focus of the series is on the legal aspects of doing business in East Asia although legal issues of a more general nature may also be included where these are relevant for a better understanding of the particular legal culture concerned The majority of the contributions to this major work comes from legal practitioners and scholars specialising in East Asian business law

Artificial Intelligence in Legal Systems Eriona Çela, Narasimha Rao Vajjhala, Behrouz Aslani, 2025-09-02 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of the transformative impact of artificial intelligence AI on legal frameworks within the European Union and beyond It illustrates both the promising benefits of AI in improving access to justice and the significant challenges that necessitate thoughtful regulatory frameworks and interdisciplinary cooperation This book highlights the expansive applications of AI ranging from case management to predictive analytics while also scrutinizing ethical challenges and legal implications It addresses the pressing issue of data protection in the context of Generative Pre trained Transformer GPT technology emphasizing the EU s commitment to individual privacy rights This book also evaluates AI s role in public governance using Albania as a case study and examines the potential of blockchain technology in enhancing legal processes The ethical nuances surrounding AI s integration into legal systems are critically examined particularly regarding algorithmic bias and human oversight This book advocates for a collaborative approach involving legal experts and data scientists to navigate these complexities effectively This book is a key resource for postgraduate students researchers and legal professionals seeking to better understand the benefits and risks of incorporating AI into legal practice

The Legal Construction of Personal Work Relations Mark Freedland FBA, Nicola Kountouris, 2011-12-15 This book explores the conceptual framework of European employment law focusing on understanding the law s construction of employment relationships The book draws on extensive comparative research of the legal architecture of employment relations in national legal systems and EU law to analyse the traditional model of the contract of employment and the difficulties of using the traditional model to frame modern working relationships The authors then present a new model of the foundations of employment relationships based on the concept of a personal work nexus and explore the potential of their model to shape the future development of employment law Throughout the book the authors analyse the interaction of domestic and EU employment law and discuss the possibility of future legal harmonisation in the area. They conclude by exploring the potential for a common framework for European employment law in the context of broader debates surrounding the harmonisation of European private law.
