was still blessed to have loved and been loved to a magnitude I do not have words to describe A lifetime cannot be defined in terms of hours days years decades or century Regardless of the length of time any relationship lasts we must learn to live every minute like it is our last That is what my one true love taught me He added truth honesty love and devotion together and we had a sum total of joy and happiness divided by the number of offsprings produced by that love And we never parted in anger or unforgiveness because no one can predict what the next minute will bring Sometimes I think my love was just too wise for this world that is why God called him home to be with Him As I look back over our life together I feel enormously blessed by God to have had such a love as this in my lifetime Only God made it possible Only God allowed me to experience total bliss for a little while 29 8 years Words cannot describe the memories stored in my memory bank of our span of time together In all my days of blissful retreat the only thing I feel I did not do enough of is giving grateful praise to the Almighty for creating that soul mate just for me and I for him Life will go on and in each whisk of air against my skin as I sit and read I will remember it is you my love stopping by to see me every now and then God saw you were getting tired So He did what He knew was best He watched and waited for the exact time You were in most need of some rest You did not say to me farewell Nor even a wave good bye God took you swift and easy I dare not ask God why He gave you to me for a while I loved you with all my heart I showed you I told you daily Even in death we are not apart Rest easy Honey until I get there I will know you when I arrive We will be just two angels forever Always partners side by side

Making Love in the Twelfth Century ,2016-04-29 New sparkling translations of the Letters of Two Lovers the Tegernsee Letters and selections from the Regensburg Songs Nine hundred years ago in Paris a teacher and his brilliant female student fell in love and chronicled their affair in a passionate correspondence Their 116 surviving letters some whole and some fragmentary are composed in eloquent highly rhetorical Latin Since their discovery in the late twentieth century the Letters of Two Lovers have aroused much attention because of their extreme rarity They constitute the longest correspondence by far between any two persons from the entire Middle Ages and they are private rather than institutional which means that according to all we know about the transmission of medieval letters they should not have survived at all Adding to their mystery the letters are copied anonymously in a single late fifteenth century manuscript although their style and range of reference place them squarely in the early twelfth century Can this collection of correspondence be the previously lost love letters of Abelard and Heloise And even if not what does it tell us about the lived experience of love in the twelfth century Barbara Newman contends that these teacher student exchanges bear witness to a culture that linked Latin pedagogy with the practice of ennobling love and the cult of friendship during a relatively brief period when women played an active part in that world Newman presents a new translation of these extraordinary letters along with a full commentary and two extended essays that parse their literary and intellectual contexts and chart the course of the doomed affair Included too are two other sets of twelfth century love epistles the Tegernsee Letters and selections from the Regensburg Songs Taken together they constitute a stunning contribution to the study of the history of emotions by one of our most prominent medievalists
