Japan's Cultural Policy Toward China, 1918-1931 See Heng Teow,2020-03-23 Most existing scholarship on Japan's cultural policy toward modern China reflects the paradigm of cultural imperialism In contrast this study demonstrates that Japan while motivated by pragmatic interests international cultural rivalries ethnocentrism moralism and idealism was mindful of Chinese opinion and sought the cooperation of the Chinese government Japanese policy stressed cultural communication and inclusiveness rather than cultural domination and exclusiveness and was part of Japan's search for an East Asian cultural order led by Japan China however was not a passive recipient and actively sought to redirect this policy to serve its national interests and aspirations The author argues that it is time to move away from the framework of cultural imperialism toward one that recognizes the importance of cultural autonomy internationalism and transculturation

Special Relationship in the Malay World Ho Ying Chan, 2018-07-31 Ho Ying Chan provides an expert analysis of Malaysia Indonesia relations He demystifies the concept of a special relationship rescuing it from woolly sentimental rhetoric that often emanates from political figures and popular commentators His well informed study shows how a state's will to survive in the amoral world of international relations drives its conduct even in circumstances of common identities and common strategic interests with other states He evaluates comparative evidence to shed light on how a special relationship leads to the emergence of a pluralistic security community This is a conclusion of insight and value not only to the field of Southeast Asian Studies but also to the wider community of International Relations scholars Professor Clinton Fernandes University of New South Wales Australia Empirically rich and theoretically interesting this book offers an illuminating account of how material and ideational dynamics shape the evolution of Malaysia Indonesia relations Focusing on what is arguably the most vital bilateral relationship in Southeast Asia it addresses the circumstances conditions and constraints that determine the double edged effects of the culturally bound special relationship Ho Ying Chan argues that while their shared serumpun identities and strategic interests do give rise to a considerable closeness between Malaysia and Indonesia the politics of power imbalance have prevented the transformation of the special relationship into a pluralistic security community as their egoistic understanding averts the formation of collective self The book generates useful insights on the interplay of cross border cultural affinity and political necessity inviting readers to ponder the politics of identity and survivability at the international level It is a welcome addition to the growing literature of Southeast Asian international relations Dr Kuik Cheng

Greatness and Decline Srdjan Vucetic, 2021-02-18 Exceptionalist ideas have long influenced British foreign policy As Britain begins to confront the challenges of a post Brexit era in an increasingly unstable world a re examination of the nature and causes of this exceptionalist bent is in order Arguing that Britain's search for greatness in world affairs was and still is a matter of habit Srdjan Vucetic takes a closer look at the period between

Clement Attlee's New Jerusalem and Tony Blair's New Labour Britain's tenacious pursuit of global power was never just a function of consensus among policymakers or even political elites more broadly. Rather, it developed from popular everyday and gradually evolving ideas about identity circulating within British and more specifically English society as a whole. To uncover these ideas, Vucetic works with a unique archive of political speeches, newspapers, history textbooks, novels, and movies across colonial, Cold War, and post-Cold War periods. Greatness and Decline sheds new light on Britain's interactions with the rest of the world while demonstrating new possibilities for constructivist foreign policy analysis.
