Merleau Ponty Perception Structure Language A Collection Of Essays:

Merleau-Ponty: Perception, Structure, Language: a Collection of Essays John Sallis, 1981 The Passionate Mind of Maxine Greene William F. Pinar, 2005-08-08 Maxine Greene is the most important philosopher of education in the United States today The author of Teacher as Stranger 1973 Landscapes of Learning 1978 Dialectic of Freedom 1988 and Releasing the Imagination 1995 Greene has influenced tens of thousands of teachers in North America as well as her colleagues in philosophy of education teacher education and curriculum studies While widely cited Greene has not until now been the subject of sustained scholarly analysis and investigation William F Pinar has organized a systematic study of Greene's contribution from several points of view studies of the four books studies of the intellectual and aesthetic influences upon her theory and her influence on the various specializations within the broad field of education the teaching of English arts education philosophy of education curriculum studies religious education cognitive theory and theory of teaching The book opens and concludes with Maxine Greene's own autobiographical statements Language, Mind and Body John E. Joseph, 2018 Where is language Centuries of efforts to incorporate language lie behind current concepts of extended mind and embodied cognition This book examines this question Merleau-Ponty's Last Vision Douglas Beck Low, 2000 Few writers' unfinished works are considered among their most important but such is the case with Merleau Ponty's The Visible and the Invisible What exists of it is a mere beginning yet it bridged modernism and postmodernism in philosophy Low uses material from some of Merleau Ponty's later works as the basis for completion Working from this material and the philosopher's own outline Low presents how this important work would have looked had Merleau Ponty lived to complete it

Philosophic Classics, Volume V Forrest Baird, 2023-05-31 For courses in 20th century Philosophy recent Continental Philosophy Anglo American Philosophy as part of courses in Contemporary Philosophy or courses on Epistemology or Metaphysics that take a historical approach This anthology in 20th century philosophical classics includes recent European and American philosophers and contains texts that are presently seen as classics or as emerging classics It features complete works or complete sections of works Includes introductions to each philosopher an abundance of drawings diagrams photographs and a timeline The Sense of Space David Morris, 2012-02-01 The Sense of Space brings together space and body to show that space is a plastic environment charged with meaning that reflects the distinctive character of human embodiment in the full range of its moving perceptual emotional expressive developmental and social capacities Drawing on the philosophies of Merleau Ponty and Bergson as well as contemporary psychology to develop a renewed account of the moving perceiving body the book suggests that our sense of space ultimately reflects our ethical relations to other people and to the places we inhabit Phenomenology 2005. Volume 3: Selected Essays from Euro-Mediterranean Area, part 2 Copoeru, Ion, Sepp, Hans Rainer, 2007-01-01 The Birth of Sense Don Beith, 2018-04-01 In The Birth of Sense Don Beith proposes a new concept of generative passivity the idea that our organic psychological and social activities take time to develop into sense More than being a limit passivity marks out the way in which organisms persons and interbodily systems take time in order to manifest a coherent sense Beith situates his argument within contemporary debates about evolution developmental biology scientific causal explanations psychology postmodernism social constructivism and critical race theory Drawing on empirical studies and phenomenological reflections Beith argues that in nature novel meaning emerges prior to any type of constituting activity or deterministic plan The Birth of Sense is an original phenomenological investigation in the style of Maurice Merleau Ponty and it demonstrates that the French philosopher s works cohere around the notion that life is radically expressive While Merleau Ponty s early works are widely interpreted as arguing for the primacy of human consciousness Beith argues that a pivotal redefinition of passivity is already under way here and extends throughout Merleau Ponty s corpus This work introduces new concepts in contemporary philosophy to interrogate how organic development involves spontaneous expression how personhood emerges from this bodily growth and how our interpersonal human life remains rooted in and often thwarted by domains of bodily expressivity The Immune Self Alfred I. Tauber,1996-10-28 The Immune Self is the first extended philosophical critique of immunology The Merleau-Ponty Reader Maurice Merleau-Ponty,2007-10-19 This title offers a comprehensive view of Maurice Merleau Ponty s work this selection collecting in one volume the foundational essays necessary for understanding the core of this critical 20th century philosopher s thought Maurice Merleau-Ponty Joan Nordquist,2000 Merleau-Ponty Rosalyn Diprose,Jack Reynolds,2014-12-05 Having initially not had the attention of Sartre or Heidegger Merleau Ponty s work is arguably now more widely influential than either of his two contemporaries Merleau Ponty Key Concepts presents an accessible guide to the core ideas which structure Merleau Ponty s thinking as well as to his influences and the value of his ideas to a wide range of disciplines The first section of the book presents the context of Merleau Ponty s thinking the major debates of his time particularly existentialism phenomenology the history of philosophy and the philosophy of history and society The second section outlines his major contributions and conceptual innovations The final section focuses upon how his work has been taken up in other fields besides philosophy notably in sociology cognitive science health studies feminism and race theory Elements of Responsible Politics B.P. Dauenhauer,2012-12-06 This collection of essays draws together work done during a period of more than fifteen years In the course of these years much has changed including much about politics Patterns of political activity have been transformed Ways in which we had been accustomed to construe politics have been substantially modified and sometimes replaced Some apparently intractable conflicts have been resolved Other apparently more manageable conflicts have shown shocking durability A number of political doctrines once considered indefinitely serviceable have lost all relevance And the material and technical resources at our disposal look strikingly different than they did just a few years ago Practical politics of whatever stripe encounters at every turn ever more grave environmental degradation But or so this collection assumes not everything political has changed Some political issues both theoretical and practical remain persistently trenchant Questions like the following demand ever renewed consideration What is the point and worth of belonging to a political community What entitlements and responsibilities follow upon such membership Or even more fundamentally what conditions are required for there to be politics at all Taken together the essays collected in this volume propose a way both to understand and to engage in politics which is properly responsive both to perennial political issues and to the peculiar exigencies of our era Some of them present criticisms of widely held warmly cherished ways of addressing political matters Others propose constructive alternatives

Art and Institution Rajiv Kaushik,2011-08-11 An examination of how for Merleau Ponty the work of art opens up the event of being

Modern Architecture Graham Livesey,2024-11-15 Modern Architecture The Basics examines technological stylistic socio political and cultural changes that have transformed the history of architecture since the late 18th century Broad definitions of modernity and postmodernity introduce the book which comprises 24 short thematic chapters looking at the concepts behind the development of modern and postmodern architecture These include major historical movements key figures and evolving building typologies There is also an emphasis on the changing city during the 19th and 20th centuries Approaches to representation and its impacts on architecture are studied along with the changing global role of architecture as cultural expression The book introduces new topics including gender race postcolonialism and indigeneity An undaunting contemporary and inclusive account of modern architectural history this is a must read for all students of architecture as well as those outside the discipline approaching the subject for the first time

Transformative Phenomenology David Allan Rehorick,Valerie Malhotra Bentz,2008-01-01 The fourteen authors in this collection used phenomenology the study of consciousness and hermeneutics the interpretation of meaning to conduct deep inquiry into perplexing and wondrous events in their work and personal lives These seasoned scholar practitioners gained remarkable insight into areas such as health care and illness organ donation intercultural communications high performance teams artistic production jazz improvisation and the integration of Tai Chi into education All authors were transformed by phenomenology s expanded ways of seeing and being

Critical Communities and Aesthetic Practices Francis Halsall,Julia Jansen,Sinéad Murphy,2011-11-17 Critical Communities and Aesthetic Practices brings together eminent international philosophers to discuss the inter dependence of critical communities and aesthetic practices Their contributions share a hermeneutical commitment to dialogue both as a model for critique and as a generator of community Two conclusions emerge The first is that one s relationships with others will always be central in determining the social political and artistic forms that philosophical self reflection will take The second is that our practices of aesthetic judgment are bound up with our efforts as philosophers to adapt ourselves and our objects of interest to the inescapably historical and indeterminate conditions of experience The papers collected here address the issue that critical communities and aesthetic practices are never politically neutral and can never be abstracted from their particular contexts It is for this reason that the contributors investigate the politics not of laws parties or state constitutions but of open indefinably critical communities such as audiences peers and friends Critical Communities and Aesthetic Practices is distinctive in providing a current selection of prominent positions written for this volume Together these comprise a pluralist un homogenized collection that brings into focus contemporary debates on critical and aesthetic practices Psychology Library Editions: History of Psychology Various, 2021-08-19 Originally published between 1928 and 1987 the volumes in this set provide an interesting look back at how psychology has developed as a discipline and some of the problems it has encountered along the way It includes volumes focusing on the history of specific fields such as developmental and experimental psychology as well as examining the roots of psychological theory as a whole and how it has informed many of the fields of psychology we know today

The Path of Archaic Thinking Kenneth Maly, 1995-03-02 This book demonstrates that the kind of philosophy called Continental thought belongs to America in its own right It reflects the depth originality and revolutionary character of Sallis's re-doing imagination of his twisting imagination free from a metaphysics of presence and of subjectivity The book includes essays by Walter Biemel Peg Birmingham Walter Brogan Fran oise Dastur Jacques Derrida Parvis Emad Eliane Escoubas Bernard Freydsberg Rodolphe Gasch Michel Haar John Llewelyn Kenneth Maly Adriaan Peperzak James Risser and Charles Scott This array of contributors demonstrates the place that Sallis's work has on the forefront of contemporary Continental thought The book concludes with an original piece by John Sallis himself in which he thinks the philosophical sense of wonder in Aristotle Plato Hegel the end of metaphysics and Heidegger

Crises in Continental Philosophy Arleen B. Dallery, Charles E. Scott, 1990-10-02 This book punctuates the moments of crisis in continental thought from the foundational crisis of reason in Husserl's call for a rigorous science of phenomenology to the current crisis of postmodernism and its rejection of Husserl's metanarrative of history and rationality The mediating links between these moments is the centrality of the epochal history of Being the power of cultural and disciplinary practices and the dispersal of meaning in the post Husserlian and post subjective philosophies of Heidegger Foucault Derrida and others Included here are the thoughts of leading scholars who critically discuss Husserl's analysis of the crisis of Western thought and the importance of the concepts of world in Husserl's early writings The authors analyze the deprivileging of philosophy as social critique through the text of Husserl Habermas Foucault and recent feminist theory They examine the end of the epistemological and morally autonomous subject in continental thought Together these thoughts articulate multiple points or moments of crisis without cure or end
