General Assembly. House of Representatives, 1897 The Land and the People of Nineteenth-Century Cork James S. Donnelly Jr, 2017-07-06 First published in 1975 Using estate records local newspapers and parliamentary papers this book focuses upon two central and interrelated subjects the rural economy and the land question from the perspective of Cork Ireland's southernmost country The author examines the chief responses of Cork landlords tenant farmers and labourers to the enormous difficulties besetting them after 1815 He shows how the great famine of the late 1840s was in many ways an economic and social watershed because it rapidly accelerated certain previous trends and reversed the direction of others He also rejects the conventional view of the land war of the 1880s arguing that in Cork it was essentially a revolution of rising expectations in which tenant farmers struggled to preserve their substantial material gains since 1850 by using the weapons of agrarian trade unionism civil disobedience and unprecedented violence This title will be of interest to students of rural history and historical geography Routledge Library Editions: Rural History Various, 2021-07-14 The volumes in this set originally published between 1969 and 1990 draw together research by leading academics in the area of the rural history and provide an examination of related key issues The volumes examine social change in rural communities approaching the industrial revolution whilst also providing an overview of the history of rural populations in England France Germany Mexico and the United States This set will be of particular interest to students of history business and economics A Shot in the Moonlight Ben Montgomery, 2021-01-26 The sensational true story of George Dinning a freed slave who in 1899 joined forces with a Confederate war hero in search of justice in the Jim Crow south Taut and tense Inspiring and terrifying in its timelessness Colson Whitehead Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Underground Railroad Named a most anticipated book of 2021 by O The Oprah Magazine Named a must read by the Chicago Review of Books One of CNN's most anticipated books of 2021 After moonrise on the cold night of January 21 1897 a mob of twenty five white men gathered in a patch of woods
