Nine Green Gardens:

Nine Green Gardens Gillian Clarke, 2000 This sequence of poems celebrates the restored gardens at Aberglasney near Llandeilo in the Towy valley west Wales The poems are complemented by photographs taken from the collection made during the renovation of these ancient lost gardens

Hollow Palaces Kevin J. Gardner, John Greening, 2021-09 As a genre of poetry the country house poem was born in the seventeenth century As English country house society itself grew in prominence the poem of commemoration diminished in popularity not until the Edwardian era when the country house as an institution began to wane was there a renewed interest in country house poetry As the power and influence of landed society dwindled the country house began to haunt the English literary imagination and our poets found in its dereliction a frequent subject and theme This book gathers modern and contemporary country house poems into one collection Poets representing a diversity of class race gender and generation offer a wide variety of perspectives stately exteriors and interiors crumbling ruins gardens both wild and cultivated and the voices of noble owners servants and curious visitors

Captured Landscape Kate Baker, 2018-03-20 The enclosed garden or hortus conclusus is a place where architecture and landscape come together It has a long and varied history ranging from the early paradise garden and cloister the botanic garden and giardini segreto the kitchen garden and as a stage for social display The enclosed garden has continued to develop into its many modern forms the city retreat the redemptive garden the deconstructed building As awareness of climate change becomes increasingly important the enclosed garden which can mediate so effectively between interior and exterior provides opportunities for sustainable design and closer contact with the natural landscape By its nature it is ambiguous Is it an outdoor room or captured landscape is it architecture or garden Kate Baker discusses the continuing relevance of the typology of the enclosed garden to contemporary architects by exploring influential historical examples and the concepts they generate alongside some of the best of contemporary designs brought to life with vivid photography and detailed drawings taken primarily from Britain the Mediterranean Japan and North and South America She argues that understanding the potential of the enclosed garden requires us to think of it as both a design and an experience Captured Landscape provides a broad range of information and design possibilities for students of architectural and landscape design practising architects landscape designers and horticulturalists and will also appeal to a wider audience of all those who are interested in garden design This second edition of Captured Landscape is enriched with new case studies throughout the book The scope has now been broadened to include an entirely new chapter concerning the urban condition with detailed discussions on issues of ecology sustainability economy of means well being and the social pressures of contemporary city life
