Pattadakal George Michell, 2002 The Temples At Pattadakal Badami Identified With The Ancient City Of Vatapi And Aihole In Northern Karnataka Were Built By The Early Chalukyas The Most Important Line Of Kings To Rule This Part Of The Deccan From The Sixth To The Eighth Century World Heritage Monuments and Related Edifices in India 'Alī Jāvid, Tabassum Javeed, 2008 Hundreds of India's stunning temples are catalogued and copiously illustrated in this two volume work loaded with color photographs A brief introduction to the principal religious groups who have made their home in this dynamic region leads into a description of the developmental stages of various architectural components and artistic styles in the different regions over the past 1500 years from pre historic cave art and ancient temples hewn out of solid bedrock to more recent European style Christian churches such as those in Goa India's religions and historical turning points are briefly discussed enabling readers who may be less familiar with Indian cultures to recognize the value of the region's cultural heritage The author details the technological and artistic progress of Indian temple construction in the context of cultural and religious shifts throughout history The four indigenous religions of India Hinduism Buddhism Jainism and Sikhism as well as Christianity are each appreciated on their own merits The Taj Mahal the most famous was declared a World Heritage Monument in 1983 It has been described lyrically as a tear drop on the cheek of time poetry in marble a dream in marble and an image of paradise and in such superlatives as the greatest achievement of all Indo Islamic architecture the most beautiful of all monuments made by the hands of man But the UNESCO World Heritage Center has also singled out a wealth of monuments that preceded and followed its construction denoting them as important elements of the heritage of human civilization In this work researched through personal visits to World Heritage sites in India and the monuments associated with them the author shares his enjoyment of the depiction of human beauty in decorative sculpture and architecture and the narration of mythology therein This is one work bound in two volumes

Tourism in India Saurabh Kumar Dixit, 2021-06-07 Tourism is one of the fastest growing industries in India contributing enormously to the Indian economy Indian civilization and culture have followed the tradition of Atithi Devo Bhava treating Guest as God from time immemorial Tourism in India is fairly rich and diverse in terms of its attractions and resources nevertheless the body of knowledge of tourism as a discipline is relatively unexplored in terms of scholarly research The tourism industry in India has not been able to perform to its most impeccable potential due to several obstructions Lack of efficient marketing and positioning of its tourism resources in the global market is one of the prominent causes of this The Indian tourism industry cannot achieve the desired growth and impetus unless it is backed by intense promotional and marketing strategies abreast of the global business arena In this volume an effort has been made to uncover a deeper understanding of marketing perspectives of tourism in India using an interdisciplinary approach The chapters in this book reflect the prevailing scenario in the hospitality and tourism business in India as posited by renowned global experts on this subject The book is an essential resource to students researchers and scholars interested in examining the existing marketing strategies as well as exploring the suggested strategies that can be adopted to promote tourism in India The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Anatolia
