40 focuses on the repetition of the encounter on the mountain This double encounter is expressed in a narrative structure of preparatory episodes climaxed by the theophany The tension of the narrative is linked to the people as the unlikely heroes of encounter and solved by the divine descent from the divine mountain to the man made tent The new situation of permanent encounter is foregrounded by the juxtaposed stories of pre and post Sinai journey and the theme of the substitution of Moses underlines a radical reinterpretation of traditional concepts inviting the reader to embark on a process of identification
