Paul Faber, Surgeon George MacDonald, 1879 Originally published in 1878 Paul Faber Surgeon is the second in MacDonald's classic Wingfold Trilogy Wingfold at last a curate of solid faith which he has made real through a rigorous search for truth encounters atheist Paul Faber Both men's stories are journeys of faith although Faber experiences no religious conversion As MacDonald says of him in the end He was growing and that is all we can require of any man

Paul Faber, Surgeon George Macdonald George MacDonald, 2018-02-12 The rector sat on the box of his carriage driving his horses toward his church the grand old abbey church of Glaston His wife was inside and an old woman he had stopped on the road to take her up sat with her basket on the foot board behind His coachman sat beside him he never took the reins when his master was there Mr Bevis drove like a gentleman in an easy informal yet thoroughly business like way His horses were black large well bred and well fed but neither young nor showy and the harness was just the least bit shabby Indeed the entire turnout including his own hat and the coachman s offered the beholder that aspect of indifference to show which by the suggestion of a nodding acquaintance with poverty gave it the right clerical air of being not of this world Mrs Bevis had her basket on the seat before her containing beneath an upper stratum of flowers some of the first rhubarb of the season and a pound or two of fresh butter for a poor relation in the town      Paul Faber, Surgeon George MacDonald,2018-07-22
