Daniel Wayne Roberts,2021-08-31 The so called New Perspective on Paul has become a provocative way of understanding Judaism as a pattern of religion characterized by covenantal nomism which stands in contrast to the traditional Lutheran position that argues that the Judaism against which Paul responded was legalistic This new perspective of first century Judaism has remarkably changed the landscape of Pauline studies but it has done so in relative isolation from the Pastoral Epistles which are considered by most critical scholarship to be pseudonymous Because of this lack of interaction with the Pastoral Epistles this study seeks to test the hermeneutic of the New Perspective on Paul from a canonical perspective This study is not a polemic against the New Perspective on Paul but an attempt to test its hermeneutic within the Pastoral Epistles Four basic tenets of the New Perspective on Paul taken from the writings of E P Sanders N T Wright and James D G Dunn are identified and utilized to choose the passages in the Pastoral Epistles to be studied to test the New Perspective s hermeneutic outside undisputed Paul The four tenets are as follows Justification Salvation Law and Works Paul s View of Judaism and the Opponents Based on these tenets the passages considered are 1 Tim 1 6 16 2 3 7 2 Tim 1 3 8 12 and Titus 3 3 7

The Message of Discipleship Peter Morden, 2018-11-15 Soon after Jesus began his public ministry he called his first disciples. He would teach and train them and then after his death and resurrection commission and empower them to go to the nations to make more followers. The risen Jesus is still calling and sending people today. If we heed his call the result can be just as transformative and exciting as it was for the first disciples. While there are no explicit occurrences of the term disciple outside the Gospels and Acts with only two further biblical references to followers of Jesus it is Peter Morden's conviction that we need the entire Bible if we are going to be whole life disciples. He reflects on Scripture and asks: How do we live as committed disciples of Jesus today? He explores the foundations, resources and practice of discipleship in a range of Old and New Testament texts. The result is a well-rounded and satisfying picture of Christian discipleship, one that is wonderfully attractive as well as deeply challenging. With a fully integrated study guide suitable for both individuals and groups, The Message of Discipleship will help you to see how the Bible's unified teaching on this vital theme can impact your life today. The Bible Speaks Today series covers every book of the Old and New Testaments as well as Bible themes that run through the whole of Scripture.

Intimate Partner Violence in the Black Church Carlos Jermaine Richard, 2017-07-07 Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) or Domestic Violence (DV) continues to be a perennial issue in the Black church and Christendom as a whole. Women in the church continue to experience violence at increased rates but leadership has been delayed in providing a meaningful response to IPV as families experience the turmoil of abuse. Further more and more children suffer from the trauma of family violence that perpetuates as males who witness IPV have a greater susceptibility of becoming abusers and females who witness abuse are put in risk of choosing abusers in relationships. The church must now become the leading change agent in the struggle to reduce and end family violence by addressing the heart of the issue: the pulpit, namely male leaders in the church who abuse their wives and hide behind the scripture text. The church must expose the biblical truth regarding marriage and relationships and embed policy within the by-laws of the church that provide victims and survivors with opportunities for confidential reporting, resources when they are ready to leave and ongoing support for women who desire to transition from abuse to survivorship.
