visionary sense of creating as a particular presence something which as such had not been present before Carbone proposes original connections between Merleau Ponty and Paul Gauguin and articulates his own further development of the new idea of light that the French philosopher was beginning to elaborate at the time of his sudden death Carbone connects these ideas to Merleau Ponty's continuous interest in cinema an interest that has been traditionally neglected or circumscribed Focusing on Merleau Ponty's later writings including unpublished course notes and documents not yet available in English Carbone demonstrates both that Merleau Ponty's interest in film was sustained and philosophically crucial and also that his thinking provides an important resource for illuminating our contemporary relationship to images with profound implications for the future of philosophy and aesthetics Building on his earlier work on Marcel Proust and considering ongoing developments in optical and media technologies Carbone adds his own philosophical insight into understanding the visual today Degas Landscapes Richard Kendall, Edgar Degas, 1993-01-01 Biografi om Degas landskaber set i relation til andre kunstneres behandling af landskabet som motiv Prehistories of the Future Elazar Barkan, Ronald Bush, 1995 Examining the emergence of modernism from the fin de siècle primitivist project this volume shows how ethnographic materials shaped a variety of high and low discourses ethnology social theory gender construction classical scholarship as well as travel photography at the turn of the century Illustrated with 98 photographs and drawings Gauguin Belinda Thomson, 2021-04-06 This authoritative account of the life and work of Paul Gauguin one of the most original artists of the late nineteenth century is revised and updated with color illustrations throughout Artist Paul Gauguin achieved a high public profile during his lifetime and was one of the first artists of his generation to achieve international recognition But his prominence has always been tangled up with the dramatic and problematic events of his life his self imposed exile on a remote South Sea island and his turbulent relationships with his peers as with the appeal of his art In this revised and updated edition art historian Belinda Thomson gives a comprehensive and accessible account of the life and work of one of the most complicated artists of the late nineteenth century Gauguin's painting sculpture prints and ceramics are discussed in the light of his public persona his relations with his contemporaries his exhibitions and their critical reception His private world beliefs and aspirations emerge through his extensive cache of journals letters and other writings Fully illustrated in color and drawing on the new more global conversation surrounding the artist Gauguin is the definitive volume on this controversial and often contradictory figure Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The
