Paul McCarthy:

Paul McCarthy Paul McCarthy, Dan Cameron, Amelia Jones, Anthony Vidler, 2000 Working from a pioneering fusion of sculpture and conceptually based performance Paul McCarthy is one of the most influential yet least recognized artists in the U S today While his architectural installations incorporating video and performance artifacts have received critical and curatorial attention during the present decade few viewers are familiar with his artistic evolution or with the impact his work has had on two generations of Los Angeles artists This publication covering about 400 works from all areas of his activity gives an exemplary insight into McCarthy s works from the early 1970s up to the present day Experts on his work give comprehensive descriptions and analyses of the American artist s performances and installations examine the unique ties between his works and cinema and explore the dialogue between New York and Los Angeles particularly in the formulation and development of conceptual art Publisher s description Paul McCarthy Paul McCarthy, Butler Gallery (Kilkenny, Ireland), 2002

Let Them Haunt Us Anna-Lena Werner, 2020-05-07 Let Them Haunt Us analyzes contemporary aesthetics engaged in trauma and critically challenges its canonical status as unrepresentable Focusing on case studies in the aesthetic practices of Janet Cardiff and George Bures Miller Omer Fast Forensic Architecture and Paul McCarthy this book proposes to redefine trauma as a productive framework to exploring individual collective and cultural conflicts addressed in current artistic and curatorial practices Anna Lena Werner considers the aesthetic realm as a potential forum that provides methods of understanding the humanitarian consequences of violence and warfare and to reveal the effects of trauma on visual culture collective memory and politics Paul McCarthy: A&E, Dead End Hole, Picnic Paul McCarthy, 2025-04-29 A limited edition artist s book signed by McCarthy documenting his graphic explicit performance of Adolf Hitler and Eva Braun s relationship Published as a signed limited edition of 600 copies this artist s book documents a 2021 performance of the same name by Paul McCarthy born 1945 and German actress Lilith Stangenberg born 1988 continuing McCarthy s exploration of bodily abjection human entanglement power Hollywood and the underbelly of the cultural and political climate

McCarthy's Americans M. J. Heale, 1998 Was the communist witch hunt unleashed by Senator Joe McCarthy an aberration or has red scare politics been an intrinsic part of American political life since the 1930s Was McCarthyism a populist or an elitist phenomenon Was Senator McCarthy virtually irrelevant to the phenomenon McCarthy s Americans shows that some of the contending interpretations of McCarthyism are mutually compatible and reveals the importance of pressures usually overlooked M J Heale s deeply probing study of McCarthy s hinterland in the American states demonstrates that what is usually called McCarthyism was part of a political cycle that emerged in the 1930s and took two decades to run its course Heale also argues that much of the red scare dynamic came from the big cities and the white South It was here that a range of interests exhibiting a fundamentalist fury with the changing times that the political order had fashioned during the New Deal years rested on fragile foundations Defying the consensus liberalism of the 1950s McCarthy and more important the many little McCarthys in the states kept alive a brand of right wing politics preparing the way for George Wallace in the 1960s and the revitalized conservatism of Richard Nixon in the 1970s and Ronald Reagan in the 1980s

Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity Jaye Early, 2025-01-23 This is the first book of its kind to examine the development of the confessional subject in video art and demonstrate how it can provide a vital platform for navigating the politics of self subjectivity and resistance in society In doing so it reframes video art the most ubiquitous and yet most understudied art form of recent decades as an urgent socio political tool that is increasingly popular among contemporary artists as a means of exploring a broad range of social issues from politics and identity to the body and technologies of self representation Analysing a diverse selection of case studies from the 1960s up to the present day covering the work of Yoko Ono Gillian Wearing Ryan Trecartin Tracey Emin Anastasia Klose and Heath Franco among others the book brings together theory and practice to look afresh at contemporary video art through a Foucauldian lens It also brings the analysis of video art up to date by showing how social media and digital self representation has informed and further politicized time based art practices Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity shows how forms of confessional discourse not only play an important function in the construction of subjectivity but also open spaces for personal resistance and agency within contemporary video art As a result it offers researchers of contemporary art practice and media and cultural studies an updated framework through which to view this constantly evolving genre and a deeper understanding of wider contemporary video practices

Paul McCarthy - Revised and Expanded Edition , 2016-05-23 Definitive monograph on America s most challenging and influential artist Los Angeles based artist Paul McCarthy b 1945 creates Disneyesque installations sculptures of animal vegetable human hybrids and slapstick performances in a purge of a national subconscious The psycho sexual desires and anxieties induced by the media and the built environment of contemporary America emerge in his collisions of plastic prosthetic limbs and condiments that stand in for bodily fluids These works have been variously deployed through live actions often documented on video and more recently in outsized figures and artificial rural environments combined in overtly sexual ways McCarthy s work echoes that of European artists such as Joseph Beuys or the Viennese Aktionistes but gives action art a postmodern twist This new revised and expanded edition includes contributions by luminaries such as Kristine Stiles Ralph Rugoff Massimiliano Gioni and Robert Storr Paul McCarthy Paul McCarthy, Sarah Watson, 2010 This is is 2 book set Three Sculptures and Hummel Minnesota Libraries , 1906 Library Notes and News , 1904 Crossmappings Elisabeth Bronfen, 2018-05-22 The great influential cultural critic Elisabeth Bronfen sets out in this book a conversation between literature cinema and visual culture The crossmappings facilitated in and between these essays address the cultural survival of image formulas involving portraiture and the uncanny relation between the body and its visual representability the gendering of war death and the fragility of life as well as sovereignty and political power Each chapter tracks transformations that occur as aesthetic figurations travel from one historical moment to another but also from one medium to another Many prominent artists are discussed during these journeys into the cultural imaginary include Degas Francesca Woodman Cindy Sherman Paul McCarthy Eva Hesse Louise Bourgeois Wagner Picasso and Shakespeare as well as classic Hollywood's film noir and melodrama and the TV series The Wire and House of Cards

The Great Parade Pierre Théberge, Galleries Nationales du Grand Palais (Paris), National Gallery of Canada, 2004-01-01 A beautiful book that showcases how circus figures and artifacts have been portrayed in art over the past two centuries The circus is a dazzling world filled with acrobats and harlequins tumblers and riders monsters and celestial creatures Now this engaging book sets that world in a new light examining how painters sculptors and photographers from the eighteenth century to the present have used the circus as a springboard for their imaginative expression and have envisioned the clown as a metaphor for the modern artist The book presents more than 175 works by such artists as Degas Toulouse Lautrec Rouault Picasso Chagall and Léger Some of these are masterful works shown for the first time these range from the 18 meter stage curtain Picasso designed in 1917 for Erik Satie's ballet Parade to more intimate works such as Nadar and Tournachon's photographs of Pierrot as played by celebrated mime Charles Debureau

Minor Photography Mieke Bleyen, 2012 The first book to apply the concept of the minor to the theory of photography The notion of the minor developed by Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari in Kafka Towards a minor literature 1975 is introduced and connected applied here for the very first time to the field of photography theory Deleuze and Guattari defined minor literature in terms of deterritorialization politicization and collectivization By transferring the minor to the medium of photography this book enlarges the idea of the minor and opens it up to all kinds of mutations in the process The essays gathered in this book discuss the ways in which photography can make the dominant codes of representation stammer and how it can produce new effects and address people yet to come The authors consider the minor as a valuable tool to help photography research move beyond or in between binary and hierarchized ways of thinking of high and low art for example or centre and periphery As such it aims to contribute to a rethinking of photography as multiplicity and variation Consequently the term is connected with both marginal and canonical photographic practices covering photographers as different as Miroslav Tichý Paul McCarthy Tacita Dean Dan Graham and Paul Nougé After developing a theory of the minor this book explores how the operations of the minor can be found in major art practices It closes by tackling the question of photography as variation in case studies of belated forms of surrealist photography This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content

Disability, Space, Architecture: A Reader Jos Boys, 2017-02-17 Disability Space Architecture A Reader takes a groundbreaking approach to exploring the interconnections between disability architecture and cities The contributions come from architecture geography anthropology health studies English language and literature rhetoric and composition art history disability studies and disability arts and cover personal theoretical and innovative ideas and work Richer approaches to disability beyond regulation and design guidance remain fragmented and difficult to find for architectural and built environment students educators and professionals By bringing together in one place some seminal texts and projects as well as newly commissioned writings readers can engage with disability in unexpected and exciting ways that can vibrantly inform their understandings of architecture and urban design Most crucially Disability Space Architecture A Reader opens up not just disability but also ability dis ability as a means of refusing the normalisation of only particular kinds of bodies in the design of built space It reveals how our everyday social attitudes and practices about people objects and spaces can be better understood through the lens of disability and it suggests how thinking differently about dis ability can enable innovative and new kinds of critical and creative architectural and urban design education and practice

Art of Engagement Peter Selz, Susan Landauer, 2006-01-09 Art of Engagement focuses on the key role of California s art and artists in politics and culture since 1945 The book showcases many types of media including photographs found objects drawings and prints murals painting sculpture ceramics installations performance art and collage

Art and Obscenity Kerstin Mey, 2006-11-22 Explicit material is more widely available in the internet age than ever before yet the concept of obscenity remains as difficult to pin down as it is to approach without bias notions of what is obscene shift with societies shifting mores and our responses to explicit or disturbing material can be highly subjective In this intelligent and sensitive book Kerstin Mey grapples with the work of twentieth century artists practising at the edges of acceptability from Hans Bellmer through to Nobuyoshi Araki from Robert Mapplethorpe to Annie Sprinkle and from Hermann Nitsch to Paul McCarthy Mey refuses sweeping statements and knee jerk responses arguing with dexterity that some works regardless of their high art context remain deeply problematic whilst others are both groundbreaking and liberating

Ethics of Contemporary Art Theo Reeves-Everson, 2020-11-26 What happens when the shock of artistic transgression wears off when scandal dissipates when outrage becomes a tired routine In this original new book Theo Reeves Everson argues that transgressive art no longer succeeds on its own terms in societies where language prohibition and morality have become increasingly malleable This compels us to rethink the relationship between contemporary art and ethics and focus our attention on the potential of artworks to propose new values rather than simply challenge pre existing moral codes Assembling a novel theoretical framework from the writings of F lix Guattari Jacques Lacan and others Ethics of Contemporary Art narrates a journey away from transgression towards a new critical paradigm for the relationship between ethics and aesthetics that places questions of subjectivity centre stage Along the way artworks by Kader Attia Artur Zmijewski Dora Garcia and others serve as springboards launching discussions of the varied pathways along which a renewed ethics of contemporary art might develop Creating the Future Michael Fallon, 2014-08-18 Conceived as a challenge to long standing conventional wisdom Creating the Future is a work of social history cultural criticism that examines the premise that the progress of art in Los Angeles ceased during the 1970s after the decline of the Ferus Gallery the scattering of its stable of artists Robert Irwin Ed Kienholz Ed Moses Ed Rusha and others and the economic struggles throughout the decade and didn't resume until sometime around 1984 when Mark Tansey, Alison Saar, Judy Fiskin, Carrie Mae Weems, David Salle, Manuel Ocampo, among others, became stars in an exploding art market. However, this is far from the reality of the L.A. art scene in the 1970s. The passing of those fashionable 1960s era icons in fact allowed the development of a chaotic array of outlandish and independent voices, marginalized communities, and energetic, sometimes bizarre, visions that thrived during the stagnant 1970s. Fallon's narrative describes and celebrates through twelve thematically arranged chapters the wide range of intriguing artists and the world, not just the objects they created. He reveals the deeper, more culturally dynamic truth about a significant moment in American art history, presenting an alternative story of stubborn creativity in the face of widespread ignorance and misapprehension among the art cognoscenti who dismissed the 1970s in Los Angeles as a time of dissipation and decline. Coming into being right before their eyes was an ardent local feminist art movement which had lasting influence on the direction of art across the nation, an emerging Chicano Art movement spreading Chicano murals across Los Angeles and to other major cities, a new and more modern vision for the role and look of public art, a slow consolidation of local street sensibilities, car fetishism, gang and punk aesthetics into the earliest version of what would later become the Lowbrow art movement, the subversive co-opting in full view of Pop Art of the values, aesthetics, and imagery of Tinseltown by a number of young and innovative local artists who would go on to greater national renown, and a number of independent voices who, lacking the support structures of an art movement or artist cohort, pursued their brilliant artistic visions in near isolation. Despite the lack of attention, these artists would later reemerge as visionary signposts to many later trends in art. Their work would prove more interesting, more lastingly influential, and vastly more important than ever imagined or expected by those who saw it or even by those who created it. In 1970s Los Angeles, Creating the Future is a visionary work that seeks to recapture this important decade and its influence on today's generation of artists.
