Pauline A La Plage D Eric Rohmer:

The Cinema of Eric Rohmer Jacob Leigh,2012-05-03 Presents in chronological order the themes and ideas of his twenty three feature films and the complexity of their cinematic style Eric Rohmer Derek Schilling,2019-01-04 Few filmmakers have taken the principle of the talking picture so far as Eric Rohmer the internationally renowned director of the Moral Tales Comedies and Proverbs and Tales of the Four Seasons cycles Occasionally dismissed as precious or overly literary Rohmer s features may leave the impression that there is more to listen to than to look at Yet as the secretive director b Maurice Sch rer in 1920 points out dialogue is no less engaging than the best gunfights and if his characters prefer discussing love to making it they are no less the heroes of the stories they tell Charges of political conservatism aside the author of My Night at Maud s Summer and such period films as Perceval and the all digital The Lady and the Duke emerges like Hitchcock before him as a singular inventor of cinematic forms This critical overview which contains an extensive bibliography and a filmography will appeal to students of Film Studies French Studies and enthusiasts Color and the Moving Image Simon Brown,Sarah Street,Liz Watkins,2013-10-28 This new AFI Film Reader is the first comprehensive collection of original essays on the use of color in film Contributors from diverse film studies backgrounds consider the importance of color throughout the history of the medium assessing not only the theoretical implications of color on the screen but also the ways in which developments in cinematographic technologies transformed the aesthetics of color and the nature of film archiving and restoration Color and the Moving Image includes new writing on key directors whose work is already associated with color such as Hitchcock Jarman and Sirk as well as others whose use of color has not yet been explored in such detail including Eric Rohmer and the Coen Brothers This volume is an excellent resource for a variety of film studies courses and the global film archiving community at large Film Moments James Walters,Tom Brown,2019-07-25 Film is made of moments In its earliest form the cinema was a moment mere seconds recorded and projected into the darkness Even as film has developed into today s complex and intricate medium it is the brief temporary and transitory that combines to create the whole Our memories of films are composed of the moments we deem to be crucial touchstones for our understanding and appreciation Moments matter The 38 specially commissioned essays in Film Moments examine a wide selection of key scenes across a broad spectrum of national cinemas historical periods and genres featuring films by renowned auteurs including Alfred Hitchcock Jean Renoir and Vincente Minnelli and important contemporary directors such as Pedro Costa Zhang Ke Jia and Quentin Tarantino addressing films including City Lights Gone with the Wind The Wizard of Oz The Night of the Hunter Wild Strawberries 8 1 2 Bonnie and Clyde Star Wars Conte d t United 93 and Lord of the Rings Return of the King Film Moments provides both an enlightening introduction for students to the diversity of approaches and concerns in the study of film and a dynamic and vibrant account of key film sequences for anyone interested in enhancing their understanding of cinema French Film in Britain Lucy Mazdon,Catherine Wheatley,2013-03-01 In a market long dominated by Hollywood French films are consistently the most widely distributed non English language works French cinema however appears to undergo a transformation as it reaches Britain becoming something quite different to that experienced by audiences at home Drawing on extensive archival research the authors examine in detail the discourses debates and decisions which have determined the place accorded to French cinema in British film culture In so doing they provide a fascinating account of this particular instance of transnational cinematic traffic while simultaneously shedding new light on British film history From the early days of the Film Society via the advent of the X certificate to the new possibilities of video and DVD this book reveals the complex and detailed history of the distribution exhibition marketing and reception of French cinema in Britain

Catherine Breillat Douglas Keesey,2016-05-16 This is the first English language book on controversial female director Catherine Breillat whose films include Romance A ma soeur Fat Girl Anatomy of Hell and The Last Mistress This volume explores the director's complex relation to religion and to feminism and it examines the differences between Breillat's films and patriarchal pornography engaging in detailed analysis of her intimate scenes between men and women Keesey also discusses the literature films paintings and photos that have influenced Breillat's work and extends this to show how Breillat's films have influenced other filmmakers and artists in turn A lively and accessible introduction this book will appeal to students and researchers as well as all those with an interest in gender studies French film and contemporary cinema

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège,2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard

Screenwriters in French cinema Sarah Leahy,Isabelle Vanderschelden,2021-03-16 Screenwriters have been central figures in French cinema since the conversion to sound from early French language talkies for the domestic market to lavish literary adaptations of the notorious quality tradition of the 1950s and from the aesthetic revolution of the New Wave to the contemporary popular and auteur film in the 2000s The first English language study to address screenwriters in French cinema this volume will be of particular interest to scholars and students of French film and screenwriting Taking a diachronic approach it includes case studies drawn from the early sound period to the present day in order to offer an alternative historiography of French cinema shed light on these overlooked figures and revisit the vexed question of film authorship

Eric Rohmer Vittorio Hösle, 2016-07-28 Rohmer is one of the most popular French directors of the second half of the 20th century one of the members of the famous Nouvelle Vague that reconstituted French cinema based on the theoretical principles articulated in the Cahiers du Cinéma from whose editorship he was fired when the conservative Catholic opposed its turn toward politicization Like some of his colleagues Rohmer is extremely interested in both the history and the philosophy of film Brother of the noted French philosopher Ren Scherer he begins his career as a film critic In his films deep moral conflicts as well as the search for one's own identity emerge from the intricacies of seemingly superficial everyday life interactions particularly between a man and a woman Hösle's book puts Rohmer in the context of a long French tradition of reflected eroticism with Marivaux Musset Stendhal and Jean Renoir as crucial figures and shows how Rohmer both recognizes the inner logic of eroticism and subjects it to moral demands that he inherits from his Catholic background For Rohmer the tension between the two can usually only be solved by some unexpected event that can be interpreted as an equivalent of grace

Indian Summer Mieko Kanai, 2012-09-30 Indian Summer Koharu biyori is the title of a relatively short novel by Kanai Mieko b 1947 recognized by critics both inside and outside Japan as one of the most important Japanese writers of recent decades The work brilliantly demonstrates Kanai's light hearted wit in addition to her penchant for biting commentary on conservative elements in Japanese society Kanai is also an acclaimed essayist film critic literary critic and poet and has produced a steady output of high quality material since making her literary debut in her teens

Eric Rohmer Éric Rohmer, 2013 The 1969 film Ma Nuit chez Maud catapulted its shy academic film director Eric Rohmer 1920-2010 into the limelight selling over a million tickets in France and earning a nomination for an Academy Award Ma Nuit chez Maud remains his most famous film the highlight of an impressive range of films examining the sexual romantic and artistic mores of contemporary France the temptations of desire the small joys of everyday life and sometimes the vicissitudes of history and politics Yet Rohmer was already forty years old when Maud was released and had already had a career as the editor of Cahiers du Cinéma a position he lost in a political takeover in 1963 The interviews in this book offer a range of insights into the theoretical critical and practical circumstances of Rohmer's remarkably coherent body of films but also allow Rohmer to act as his own critic providing us with an array of readings concerning his interest in setting season color and narrative Alongside the application of a theoretical rigor to his own films Rohmer's interviews also discuss directors as varied as Godard Carné Renoir and Hitchcock and the relations of film to painting architecture and music This book reproduces little known interviews such as a debate Rohmer undertakes with Women and Film concerning feminism alongside detailed discussions from Cahiers and Positif many produced in English here for the first time

How do we explain what Perry Anderson calls the bizarre prominence of Bernard Henri Lévy easily the best known thinker under sixty in France? It would be difficult to imagine a more extraordinary reversal of national standards of taste and intelligence than the attention accorded this crass booby in France's public sphere despite innumerable demonstrations of his inability to get a fact or an idea straight. Could such a grotesque flourish in any other major Western culture today? This book, based on a careful investigation comparing BHL's words with his deeds, seeks to explore the remarkable persistence of this celebrity pseudo-philosopher since he burst onto the scene in 1977. Delving into his networks in the spheres of politics, the media, and big business, Lindgaard and de la Porte reveal what the success of this three-decade-long imposture tells us about the degeneration of contemporary French intellectual and cultural life.
