Classes, Citizenship and Inequality T. K. Oommen, 2010 Rejecting the obsolete methodology of comparisons between categories Identities in South Asia Vivek Sachdeva, Queeny Pradhan, Anu Venugopalan, 2019-04-09 This book examines how identities are formed and expressed in political social and cultural contexts across South Asia It is a comprehensive intervention on how why and what identities have come to be and takes a closer look at the complexities of their interactions Drawing on an interdisciplinary approach combining methodologies from history literary studies politics and sociology this book Explores the multiple ways in which personal and collective identities manifest and engage are challenged and resisted across time and space Highlights how the shared history of colonialism and partition communal violence bloodshed and pogrom are instrumental in understanding present day developments in identity politics Sheds light on a number of current themes such as borders and nations race and ethnicity identity politics and fundamentalism language and regionalism memory and community and resistance and assertion A key volume in South Asian Studies this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern South Asian history politics sociology literary studies and social exclusion Nation, Civil Society and Social Movements T K Oommen, 2004-03-20 This book is a collection of 12 essays on three interrelated themes of Nation Civil Society and Social Movements organized in three parts each having four chapters Diversity and Citizenship Education James A. Banks, 2006-12-22 The increasing ethnic racial cultural religious and language diversity in nations throughout the world is forcing educators and policymakers to rethink existing notions of citizenship and nationality To experience cultural democracy and freedom a nation must be unified around a set of democratic values such as justice and equality that balance unity and diversity and protect the rights of diverse groups Diversity and Citizenship Education

Global Perspectives brings together in one comprehensive volume a group of international experts on the topic of diversity and citizenship education. These experts discuss and identify the shared issues and possibilities that exist when educating for national unity and cultural diversity. Diversity and Citizenship Education: Global Perspectives presents compelling case studies and examples of successful programs and practices from twelve nations, discusses problems that arise when societies are highly stratified along race, cultural, and class lines, and describes guidelines and benchmarks that practicing educators can use to structure citizenship education programs that balance unity and diversity. The book covers a broad range of issues and includes vital information on such topics as Migration, citizenship and education, The challenge of racialized citizenship in the United States, The contribution of the struggles by Indians and Blacks for citizenship and recognition in Brazil, Crises of citizenship education and ethnic issues in Germany, Russia and South Africa, Conflicts between religious and ethnic factions, Diversity, globalization and democratic education.

Children's Bioethics Maya Sabatello, 2009. Only scant attention has been given to the issue of children's bioethics. Even when such a discourse took place, it hardly touched upon children as social agents. In this novel work, Maya Sabatello looks at the interplay of politics of religious and cultural medical practices from a harmful traditional practice to genetic engineering. Building on literature from medical anthropology, cultural studies, disability studies, social sciences, and law, she explores the international discourse on children's bioethics from a previously uncharted child-centered approach. In light of the existing multiculturalism, she contends that in the discourse on children's bioethics, not only must the medical, social, and anthropological nexus of the child be taken into account, but that incorporating identity claims into the legal discourse is also essential for the child's voice to be heard.

Empirical Anthropology Georg Pfeffer, Nibedita Nath, 2018-01-01. Fieldwork tradition is the hallmark of anthropology. Unfortunately, this great tradition of anthropology is not given serious consideration in many anthropology departments. Against the backdrop of the volume in honour of Professor Deepak Kumar Behera, who himself was an excellent fieldworker, presents important issues and rich fieldwork experience of various scholars. The book has two sections. The first section, Issues of Academic Friends, consisting of eleven papers, covers aspects such as tribes, governance, health, food, language, youth, etc. The second section, Friends in the Field, consisting of seven papers, presents the fieldwork experiences of some German anthropologists in India. The volume makes an attempt to show the importance of fieldwork in anthropology and allied subjects. The shared fieldwork experiences will help the researchers to understand the ground realities and prepare them to be excellent fieldworkers.

Globalization and Religious Nationalism in India Catarina Kinnvall, 2007-01-24. This book develops an interesting angle on a recognised issue of concern not just in the politics of South Asia but much more broadly in the context of the contemporary world and developing global politics. It explores the key contemporary issue of religious nationalism using a new approach based on political psychology. It will appeal to scholars and students of political sciences, IR, sociology, religious studies, and social psychology, as well as to those interested specifically in Indian politics.

Politics of the 'Other' in India and China Lion

Koenig, Bidisha Chaudhuri, 2016-02-22 The social sciences have been heavily influenced by modernization theory focusing on issues of economic growth political development and social change in order to develop a predictive model of linear progress for developing countries following a Western prototype Under this hegemonic paradigm of development the world tends to get divided into simplistic binary oppositions between the West and the rest us and them and self and other Proposing to shift the discussion on what constitutes the Other as opposed to the Self from philosophy and cultural studies to the social sciences this book explores how the structural asymmetries existing between Western discourses and the realities of the non Western world manifest themselves in the ideas institutions and socio political practices of India and China and in how far they shape the social scientist s understanding of their discipline in general It provides a counter narrative by revealing the relativity of geographies and by showing that the conventional presentation of core elements of the Asian socio political set up as aberrations from the Western models fails to acknowledge their inherent strategic character of adapting Western concepts to meet local requirements Drawing on multiple disciplines concepts and contexts in India and China the book makes a valuable contribution to the theory and practice of politics as well as to International and Asian Studies

Cultural Dynamics of Women's Lives Ana Clara S. Bastos, Jaan Valsiner, Kristiina Uriko, 2012-12-01 This book explores the diverse landscapes wherein women struggle for their personal and social identities and lives between biology and culture destiny and choice shared and individual worlds tradition and modernity Their peripheral lives have central meaning Chaudhary this volume in any society and as such are approached as a primary subject in this book as the chapters traverse ten different countries on three continents North America United States Latin America Brazil Chile Colombia Asia India and Europe United Kingdom Ireland Portugal Finland Estonia Throughout these different places women s lives are an interesting stage for observing the interaction between biology and culture e g sex vs gender pregnancy and childbirth vs transition to motherhood The focus on the cultural variability of human experience opens the door for the search of commonalities so needed in psychological theorizing Here this search is directed by how cultural models of womanhood and motherhood constrain personal experiences especially through developmental transitions This book is ultimately an opportunity to approach women s lives from the perspective of the women themselves particularly making audible and explicit their voices and the axis of logic that structures their world Undoubtedly it is a valuable opportunity for women and men interested in understanding and constructing human experience inside better worlds
