Prescott, John H. Nelson, 1973-01-01 The World Turned Upside Down James H. Pickering, 1972 Prose Poems of the French Enlightenment Fabienne Moore, 2017-11-30 By examining nearly sixty works the author traces the prehistory of the French prose poem demonstrating that the disquiet of some eighteenth century writers with the Enlightenment gave rise to the genre nearly a century before it is habitually supposed to have existed In the throes of momentous scientific philosophical and socioeconomic changes Enlightenment authors turned to the past to revive sources such as Homer the pastoral Ossian the Bible and primitive eloquence favoring music to construct alternatives to the world of reason The result the author argues were prose poems including F lon s Les Aventures de T maque Montesquieu s Le Temple de Gnide Rousseau s Le L te d Ephra m Chateaubriand s Atala as well as many lesser known texts most of which remain out of print The author s treatment of Bible criticism and eighteenth century religious reform movements reveal the often neglected spiritual side of Enlightenment culture and tracks its contribution to the period s reflection about language and poetic invention The author includes in appendices four unusual texts adjudicating the merits of prose poems making evidence of their controversial nature now accessible to readers Prose Poetry and the City Donna Stonecipher, 2017-11-20 In this fascinating book Donna Stonecipher doubles down on the development of prose poetry and the city Tactically her sweeping complex yet meticulous essay engages Baudelaire s sudden or is it sudden incursion from the constraints of verse into the roominess of prose paragraphs of place while linking civic horizontality and corporate verticality Tracking possibilities m using everything from architecture to landscape to cookbooks fl neur like her essay exuberantly and expertly gathers together rhizomatic threads of thinkers and poets of the last two centuries Reads like a song Norma Cole This fascinating exploration of the prose poem begins with a question that most other studies have overlooked or taken for granted What if anything do cities and prose poetry have to do with each other Donna Stonecipher s touchstone for this question is Charles Baudelaire s prose poems in Le Spleen de Paris but her excavation of the relationship between the built environment of prose poem and city moves backwards to ancient Greece and forwards to the new sentence As Stonecipher unpacks the dialogic space of the prose poem her essay moves vertically and horizontally providing histories of the skyscraper and the aesthetics and ethics of vertical ascension and much else As she moves nimbly through large swaths of intellectual architectural urban and aesthetic history Stonecipher engages debates central to poetics and to modernity itself taking seriously the challenge of considering how aesthetic forms register respond to and transform their built social and historical environments An indispensable and enlightening guide that is also a pleasure to read Susan
