Prospects For Change In North Korea:

Development Prospects for North Korea Tae Yong Jung, Sung Jin Kang, 2020-10-29 The contributors to this book explore the current situation of North Korea in various aspects and provide policy suggestions for North Korea to become part of the international community and achieve sustainable development Focusing on three key areas of economic development namely international sectors agriculture and urban development and energy and environment this book lays out recommendations and prospects for North Korea Authors assess the current situation of North Korea explore preconditions for becoming a member of the international community and suggest policies necessary for the sustainable development of North Korea They cover a wide range of areas including reforestation WTO accession and the potential for economic integration with South Korea These evaluations draw on both what is understood about the current situation in North Korea and comparisons with other countries and territories This book will be a valuable resource for scholars and policy planners who focus on North Korea Prospects for Change in North Korea Tae Hwan Ok, Hong Yung Lee, 1994 The Prospects for North Korea Survival David Reese, 2020-11-25 North Korea's economic and security policies imperil both itself and its neighbours The economy has been contracting for almost a decade and the regime appears unwilling or unable to arrest the decline Instead Pyongyang has resorted to begging for international aid This approach alone cannot work fundamental reform is needed without it the regime cannot survive In the meantime the North's problems will be destabilising for the region Pyongyang has secured short term international humanitarian assistance but in the long term the South is its best hope for investment and economic help Despite Pyongyang's defensive approach to the South limited commercial arrangements are in place and may moderate the North's policies and help to ease the unpredictable consequences of Pyongyang's collapse Pyongyang has tried to improve relations with the US in a bid to ease economic sanctions and attract investment However the nuclear deal reached with the US in October 1994 under which the North agreed to give up its ambiguous nuclear programme is in difficulties In this paper David Reese argues that despite these problems the North's neighbours must persevere with engagement policies At the same time South Korea and the US must maintain their security posture on the Peninsula South Korean President Kim Dae Jung's attempts to establish commercial links with the North need time and patience and should not be derailed by relatively minor incidents Both Seoul and Washington must ensure that they coordinate their policies to prevent the North from playing one off against the other Selectively easing sanctions on a case by case basis could allow the North to earn desperately needed hard currency Although it is difficult for Washington and Seoul to maintain political support for engagement both should make further efforts to draw the North into making significant policy changes The US and South Korea should ensure that they involve the interested regional parties in efforts to draw the North into the international community China has a key role to play in developments on the Peninsula Both Seoul and Washington should therefore ensure that they work closely with Beijing While historical sensitivities make it difficult for

Japan to play a leading role Tokyo would be central to the North's economic recovery and must not be marginalised Russia also has a contribution to make to the broader security guarantees which could develop from accommodation between North and South Ultimately the course of events on the Peninsula will depend primarily on the North Pyongyang shows little sign of being prepared to engage constructively with the US and South Korea As its economy deteriorates its options will narrow further Until domestic forces in North Korea shift the US and its allies should expect a protracted phase of desultory and sometimes destabilising diplomatic manoeuvres by Pyongyang

North Korea/South Korea John Feffer, 2011-01-04 The Korean peninsula divided for more than fifty years is stuck in a time warp Millions of troops face one another along the Demilitarized Zone separating communist North Korea and capitalist South Korea In the early 1990s and again in 2002 2003 the United States and its allies have gone to the brink of war with North Korea Misinterpretations and misunderstandings are fueling the crisis There is no country of comparable significance concerning which so many people are ignorant American anthropologist Cornelius Osgood said of Korea some time ago This ignorance may soon have fatal consequences North Korea South Korea is a short accessible book about the history and political complexities of the Korean peninsula one that explores practical alternatives to the current US policy alternatives that build on the remarkable and historic path of reconciliation that North and South embarked on in the 1990s and that point the way to eventual reunification

The Guerilla Dynasty Adrian Buzo, 2018-02-19 Throughout the 1990s North Korea has operated under a skeptical international eye due largely to the country's rigorous self imposed isolation its ongoing confrontation with South Korea a controversial nuclear arms program and the near total collapse of its economy North Korea's leaders have chosen to face the world with its Stalinist political culture and ideological framework intact for better or worse and by most reports almost exclusively for the worst How did this situation come to be and what are its consequences In The Guerilla Dynasty Adrian Buzo gives us an accessible up to date and rigorously researched account of the political economic and foreign policy developments in North Korea since 1945

Restructuring in East Asia Bjørn Møller, 2019-01-22 First published in 1998 this volume examines East Asia especially Northeast Asia which has been a region of considerable political security of importance for several key reasons It features several great and medium powers China Japan and Russia as well as North and South Korea Even though no arms race is yet discernible among these states with the partial exception of the two Koreas it is conceivable that one might commence If it did the level of militarization could become quite alarming if only because of the tremendous and rapidly growing economic potential of the regional states Even though relations among regional states except the two Koreas are currently peaceful the region features several unresolved issues e g concerning territory and a historical legacy of enmity between several states To prevent such conflicts of interest from erupting into armed conflict is of the utmost importance A stabilizing factor is that the military potentials in the region are still predominantly defensively oriented i e most states lack the requisite power projection or invasion capabilities to inflict serious harm on each other However this might change in the not so distant future Hence the importance of confidence building measures of an institutionalization of regional relations and of a strengthening of commitments to defensive military strategies and postures Avoiding the Apocalypse: The Future of the Two Koreas [ISBN not on www] Noland, Marcus, 2000 Korea North Export-Import Handbook Volume 1 Strategic, Practical Information, Contacts IBP USA, 2013-08 Korea North Export Import Handbook
