Protestantism And Revolution In Cuba:

Protestantism and Revolution in Cuba Marcos Antonio Ramos,1989 A Social History of Cuba's Protestants James A. Baer,2019-07-02 A Social History of Cuba's Protestants God and the Nation presents a religious and social history of Cuba focusing on the Presbyterian and other Protestant churches to show the continuity of ties between US and Cuban churches before and after the revolution in 1959 By examining the history of Cuba's Protestants as agents of social change within Cuba and as partners with US denominations James A Baer offers a unique assessment of Cuba's development as a nation and its relationship with the United States Scholars of Latin American studies religion history and social movements will find this book particularly useful Decolonizing Theology in Revolution Ary Fernández-Albán,2018-11-20 Drawing on decolonial perspective this book provides a critical retrieval of Sergio Arce's theological thought and proposes it as a source of inspiration to continue renewing liberation theologies in Cuba and in Latin America In light of current social contexts in Cuba and abroad this volume examines the relevance of Arce's theological legacy identifying significant contributions and also key limitations It presents a panoramic view of the historical contexts previous to Arce's articulation of his theology and also reconstructs the various stages of the development of his theology by reviewing his major writings from the early 1960s to the late 1990s Bringing Arce into a conversation with other recognized Latin American liberation theologians this book delivers a reconstruction of his major theological insights related to discourses and practices of liberation highlighting important similarities and differences between their approaches The Origins of the Cuban Revolution Reconsidered Samuel Farber,2007-09-06 Analyzing the crucial period of the Cuban Revolution from 1959 to 1961 Samuel Farber challenges dominant scholarly and popular views of the revolution's sources shape and historical trajectory Unlike many observers who treat Cuba's revolutionary leaders as having merely reacted to US policies or domestic socioeconomic conditions Farber shows that revolutionary leaders while acting under serious constraints were nevertheless autonomous agents pursuing their own independent ideological visions although not necessarily according to a master plan Exploring how historical conflicts between US and Cuban interests colored the reactions of both nations leaders after the overthrow of Fulgencio Batista Farber argues that the structure of Cuba's economy and politics in the first half of the twentieth century made the island ripe for radical social and economic change and the ascendant Soviet Union was on hand to provide early assistance Taking advantage of recently declassified US and Soviet documents as well as biographical and narrative literature from Cuba Farber focuses on three key years to explain how the Cuban rebellion rapidly evolved from a multiclass antidictatorial movement into a full fledged social revolution Encyclopedia of Protestantism J. Gordon Melton,2005 An illustrated A to Z reference containing over 600 entries providing information on the theology people historical events institutions and movements related to Protestantism A History of the Cuban Revolution Aviva Chomsky,2015-04-20 A fully revised and updated new edition of a concise and insightful socio historical analysis of the Cuban revolution and the course it took over five and a half decades Now available in a fully revised second edition including new material to add to the book's coverage of Cuba over the past decade under Raul Castro All of the existing chapters have been updated to reflect recent scholarship Balances social and historical insight into the revolution with economic and political analysis extending into the twenty first century Juxtaposes U S and Cuban perspectives on the historical impact of the revolution engaging and debunking the myths and preconceptions surrounding one of the most formative political events of the twentieth century Incorporates more student friendly features such as a timeline and glossary Global Renewal Christianity Amos Yong, Vinson Synan, Miguel Alvarez, 2016-05-03 The growth of Spirit empowered Christianity has been nothing short of phenomenal From a handful of believers in the early twentieth century to over six million people in almost every culture and denomination today those who embrace the Holy Spirit and His gifts are not the fastest growing religious group in the world But if any generation ceases to emphasize the Holy Spirit's power the movement likely will lose its distinction This second of four volumes is an authoritative collection from nearly two dozen leaders and scholars of the Spirit empowered movement in Latin America Focusing on the history and future of the movement these world renowned scholars address the theological and cultural challenges facing Pentecostals throughout Latin America and the Caribbean and share emerging insights on how to meet them Protestantism and Political Conflict in the Nineteenth-century Hispanic Caribbean Luis Martínez-Fernández, 2002 Catholicism has long been recognized as one of the major forces shaping the Hispanic Caribbean Cuba Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic during the nineteenth century but the role of Protestantism has not been fully explored Protestantism and Political Conflict in the Nineteenth Century Hispanic Caribbean traces the emergence of Protestantism in Cuba and Puerto Rico during a crucial period of national consolidation involving both social and political struggle Using a comparative framework Martínez Fernández looks at the ways in which Protestantism though officially illegal for most of the century established itself competed with Catholicism and took differing paths in Cuba and Puerto Rico One of the book's main goals is to trace the links between religion and politics particularly with regard to early Protestant activities Protestants encountered a complex social economic and political landscape both in Cuba and in Puerto Rico and soon found that their very presence coupled with their demands for freedom of worship and burial rights involved them in a series of interrelated struggles in which the Catholic Church was embroiled along with the other main forces of the period the peasantry the agrarian bourgeoisie the mercantile bourgeoisie and the colonial state While the established Catholic Church increasingly identified with the conservative pro slavery and colonialist causes newly arrived Protestants tended to be nationalistic and to pursue particular economic activities such as cigar exportation in Cuba and the sugar industry in Puerto Rico The author argues that the early Protestant communities reflected the socio cultural milieus from which they emerged and were profoundly shaped by the economic activities of their congregants This influence in turn shaped not only the congregations composition but also their political and social orientations Debating Cuban Exceptionalism L.

Whitehead,B. Hoffman,2016-04-30 This volume traces the developments in Cuba following the fall of the Berlin Wall and the subsequent definitive demise of state socialism Topics covered include the reasons for the persistence of the Cuban model and an examination of the interaction between elite and non elite actors as well as between domestic and international forces

Protestant Pentecostalism in Latin America Karl-Wilhelm Westmeier,1999 This book is a theological missiological study on the intercultural communication of Faith drawing heavily from anthropological sociological and historical sources The book is helpful to church workers in Latin America to colleagues who teach both on college and seminary levels to scholars who research the phenomenon of Latin American Protestantism to students to Latin American studies and in religion and culture in general
