Phillips,2012-02-28 A Nightmare on Elm Street Halloween Night of the Living Dead These films have been indelibly stamped on moviegoers' psyches and are now considered seminal works of horror Guiding readers along the twisted paths between audience auteur and cultural history author Kendall R Phillips reveals the macabre visions of these films' directors in Dark Directions Romero Craven Carpenter and the Modern Horror Film Phillips begins by analyzing the works of George Romero focusing on how the body is used cinematically to reflect the duality between society and chaos concluding that the unconstrained bodies of the Living Dead films act as a critical intervention into social norms Phillips then explores the shadowy worlds of director Wes Craven In his study of the films The Serpent and the Rainbow Deadly Friend Swamp Thing Red Eye and Shocker Phillips reveals Craven's vision of technology as inherently dangerous in its ability to cross the gossamer thresholds of the gothic Finally the volume traverses the desolate frontiers of iconic director John Carpenter Through an exploration of such works as Halloween The Fog and In the Mouth of Madness Phillips delves into the director's representations of boundaries and the haunting consequences for those who cross them The first volume ever to address these three artists together Dark Directions is a spine-tingling and thought-provoking study of the horror genre In analyzing the individual works of Romero Craven and Carpenter Phillips illuminates some of the darkest minds in horror cinema
