Reparations and Victim Support in the International Criminal Court Conor McCarthy, 2012-04-12 Explores the ICC's regime of victim redress including both its reparations regime and the work of the ICC Trust Fund

Practices of Reparations in International Criminal Justice

Christoph Sperfeldt, 2022-07-07 Combining interdisciplinary techniques with original ethnographic fieldwork Christoph Sperfeldt examines the first attempts of international criminal courts to provide reparations to victims of mass atrocities The observations focus on two case studies the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia where Sperfeldt spent over ten years working at and around and the International Criminal Court's interventions in the Democratic Republic of Congo Enriched with first hand observations and an awareness of contextual dynamics this book directs attention to the social life of reparations that too often get lost in formal accounts of law and its institutions Sperfeldt shows that reparations are constituted and contested through a range of practices that produce change and give meaning to reparations Appreciating the nature and effects of these practices provides us with a deeper understanding of the discrepancies that exist between the reparations ideal and how it functions imperfectly in different contexts

The Reparation System of the International Criminal Court Eva Dwertmann,2010-03-02 When the Rome Statute for the International Criminal Court was adopted in 1998 one of its great innovations was that victims were granted an active role in the proceedings In its early jurisprudence on victims rights the International Criminal Court stated that the success of the Court is to some extent linked to the success of its reparation system This book is among the first to focus on the International Criminal Court s power to order reparations to victims It provides a comprehensive analysis of the legal framework of the reparation system taking into account relevant Court decisions Possibilities for its implementation are drawn up providing potential solutions for its multiple challenges including the distinct asymmetry between the individualized responsibility to provide reparations and the collective nature of the crimes and its consequences With its practical approach this book is particularly valuable for practitioners but also for students and researchers

International Prosecution of Human Rights Crimes Wolfgang Kaleck,Michael Ratner,Tobias Singelstein,Peter Weiss,2006-11-22 1 In his separate opinion in the Nuclear Weapons case Judge Mohammed Bedoui then the President of the International Court of Justice called nuclear weapons the absolute evil There are a few other things which merit being called solutely evil They are the predicates of the International Criminal Court and of various domestic laws patterned on the Rome Statute war crimes crimes against humanity genocide and aggression A conference organized by the Berlin based Republikanischer Anwaltinnen und Anwalteverein Republican Lawyers Association and the New York based Center for Constitutional Rights was held in Berlin in June 2005 under the title Globalverfassung versus Realpolitik Global Constitution versus Realpolitik It dealt with the tension between these universally accepted norms and the actual practice of governments in an age characterized by the ill defined concept of the war on terror This book is the outcome of that conference It is intended for a wide variety of readers academics all kinds of jurists as well as human rights activists who sometimes know more about the applicable law than the legal experts It owes its existence to a paradox On the one hand new structures for dealing with the most serious international crimes are being put into place

Realizing Reparative Justice for International Crimes Miriam Cohen,2020-07-02 Provides an original approach to the emerging practice of reparations for international crimes and a fresh analysis of the recent jurisprudence at the International Criminal Court

International Criminal Procedure Göran Sluiter,Sergey Vasiliev,2013-03-21 The ambitious aim of the work is to create a guiding framework for international criminal procedural law and practices in the future As explained by the working groups the overarching objective of the project is to assist the challenge of delivering fair but also effective trials
