Spilsbury visitors to Desolation Sound have left behind a trail of books endowing the area with a romantic aura that helps to make it British Columbia's most popular marine park In this hilarious and captivating book CBC personality Grant Lawrence adds a whole new chapter to the saga of this storied piece of BC coastline Young Grant's father bought a piece of land next to the park in the 1970s just in time to encounter the gun-toting cougar lady left-over hippies outlaw bikers and an assortment of other characters In those years Desolation Sound was a place where going to the neighbours' potluck meant being met with hugs from portly naked hippies and where Russell the Hermit's school of life boating fishing and rock n roll was Grant's personal Enlightenment an influence that would take him away from the coast to a life of music and journalism and eventually back again With rock band buddies and a few cases of beer in tow an older cooler Grant returns to regale us with tales of going bush the tempting dilemma of finding an unguarded grow-op and his awkward struggle to convince a couple of visiting kayakers that he's a legit CBC radio host while sporting a wild beard and body wounds and gesticulating with a machete With plenty of laugh-out-loud humour and inspired reverence Adventures in Solitude delights us with the unique history of a place and the growth of a young man amidst the magic of Desolation Sound The Best Loved Boat Ian
