Earth Revealing; Earth Healing Denis Edwards, 2015-05-15

The damage human beings are doing to the atmosphere the seas the rivers the land and the life forms of the planet is extreme and deadly It constitutes a crisis that demands all of humanity's wisdom ingenuity and commitment The whole human community needs to be involved in the response to this crisis young and old women and men farmers politicians gardeners teachers planners scientists engineers artists builders cooks and theologians In Earth Revealing Earth Healing the authors attempt to make clear the way in which Christian theology opens out into a theology of Earth revealing and challenges us towards a practice of Earth healing Earth Revealing Earth Healing offers a rethinking of theology as a significant part of the rethinking that the human community must do in its stance toward creation Aware that some theological attitudes have contributed to exploitative attitudes and to disregard for the good of the planet the contributors are also convinced that the biblical and theological tradition has resources that can be retrieved and developed as an ecological theology Such a theology can contribute to the healing of our planet The chapters of Earth Revealing Earth Healing stretch across a number of theological sub disciplines and related areas Among the perspectives from the Christian theological tradition there are reflections on the theology of the Trinity Christology Christian anthropology the theology of the Holy Spirit and contemporary feminist theology There are also more general philosophical and cultural perspectives including discussions of place and of landscape traditions Finally there are practical perspectives including discussions of globalization the challenge of suffering and bioethics Essays and contributors are The Landscape Tradition A Broader Vision for Ecotheology by Stephen Downs Globalization and Ecology by Christine Burke IBVM For Your Immortal Spirit Is in All Things The Holy Spirit in Creation by Denis Edwards Enfleshing the Human An Earth Revealing Earth Healing Christology by Duncan Reid God's Shattering Otherness The Trinity and Earth's Healing by Patricia Fox RSM Embracing Unloveliness Exploring Theology from the Dung heap by Lorna Hallahan Up Close and Personal In the End Matter Matters by Anthony Lowes The Relationship Quilt Feminism and the Healing of Nature by Lucy Larkin A Timely Reminder Humanity and Ecology in the Light of Christian Hope by Gregory Brett CM Ecotheology as a Plea for Place by Phillip Tolliday Situating Humanity Theological Anthropology in the Context of the Ecological Crisis by James McEvoy and Bioethics Ecology and Theology by Andrew Dutney Denis Edwards is a senior lecturer in systematic theology at Catholic Theological College and in the ecumenical consortium at the Adelaide College of Divinity Flinders University He has written other books on theology and is a priest of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide

Gosling, 2007-09-12 This new text is a detailed study of an important process in modern Indian history During the late nineteenth and early twentieth century India experienced an intellectual renaissance which owed as much to the influx of new ideas from the West as to traditional religious and cultural insights Gosling examines the effects of the introduction of Western science into India and the relationship between Indian traditions of thought and secular Western scientific doctrine He charts the early development of science in India its role in the secularization of Indian society and the subsequent reassertion adaptation and rejection of traditional modes of thought The beliefs of key Indian scientists including Jagadish Chandra Bose P C Roy and S N Bose are explored and the book goes on to reflect upon how individual scientists could still accept particular religious beliefs such as reincarnation cosmology miracles and prayer Science and the Indian Tradition gives an in depth assessment of results of the introduction of Western science into India and will be of interest to scholars of Indian history and those interested in the interaction between Western and Indian traditions of intellectual thought

Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay, 2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don't people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in mainstream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women's autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women's spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women's spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women's religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point
