Regime Of The Brother After The Patriarchy:

The Regime of the Brother Juliet Flower MacCannell, 2002-01-22 The Regime of the Brother is one of the first attempts to challenge modernity on its own terms Using the work of Lacan Kristeva and Freud Juliet MacCannell confronts the failure of modernity to bring about the social equality promised by the Enlightenment On the verge of its destruction the Patriarchy has reshaped itself into a new and often more oppressive regime that of the Brother Examining a range of literary and social texts from Rousseau's Confessions to Richardson's Clarissa and from Stendhal's De L'Amour to James's What Maisie Knew and Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea MacCannell illustrates a history of the suppression of women revealing the potential for a specifically feminine alternative

The Regime of the Brother Juliet Flower MacCannell, 1991 Challenges modernity on its own terms using the work of Lacan Kristeva and Freud and texts as diverse as Rousseau's Confessions Richardson's Clarissa James's What Maisie Knew and Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea

Taking Back Desire: A Psychoanalytic Approach to Queerness and Neoliberalism on Screen James Lawrence Slattery, 2025-05-13 Taking Back Desire studies film television and video art texts through a Lacanian prism to restore a sense of queer as troubling identity and resistance to neoliberal forms of inclusion James Lawrence Slattery illuminates how the framing of desire identity enjoyment resistance and knowledge contribute to the investment in neoliberal formations of being and success despite the corrosive effects neoliberalism has had for much of society The book does not read queerness on screen as a discernible group of characters or narrative formulas but as a point that meaning fails in the visual and temporal field Examining the interrelation of the real the imaginary and the symbolic in contemporary politics and contemporary media Slattery investigates how a diverse selection of moving image texts forge queerness as a relationship to the lack while crucially resisting the creation of a new or definitive canon Taking Back Desire will be essential reading for academics and scholars of Freudian and Lacanian psychoanalysis queer theory late capitalism film television and media studies sexuality studies critical race theory cultural studies and feminist theory

Lacan on Madness Patricia Gherovici, Manya Steinkoler, 2015-02-11 This new collection of essays by distinguished international scholars and clinicians will revolutionize your understanding of madness Essential for those on both sides of the couch eager to make sense of the plethora of theories about madness available today Lacan on Madness Madness Yes You Can't provides compelling and original perspectives following the work of Jacques Lacan Patricia Gherovici and Manya Steinkoler suggest new ways of working with phenomena often considered impermeable to clinical intervention or discarded as meaningless This book offers a fresh view on a wide variety of manifestations and presentations of madness featuring clinical case studies new theoretical developments in psychosis and critical appraisal of artistic expressions of insanity Lacan on Madness uncovers the logics of insanity while opening new possibilities of treatment and cure Intervening in current debates about normalcy and pathology causation and prognosis the authors propose effective modalities of treatment and challenge popular ideas of what constitutes a cure offering a reassessment of the positive and creative potential of madness

Gherovici and Steinkoler's book makes Lacanian ideas accessible by showing how they are both clinically and critically useful. It is invaluable reading for psychoanalysts, clinicians, academics, graduate students, and lay persons. Stars and Masculinities in Contemporary Italian Cinema C. O'Rawe, 2014-06-18. Stars and Masculinities in Contemporary Italian Cinema is the first book to explore contemporary male stars and cinematic constructions of masculinity in Italy. Uniting star analysis with a detailed consideration of the masculinities that are dominating current Italian cinema, the study addresses the supposed crisis of masculinity.

Excavations and Their Objects Stephen Barker, 1996-01-01. This is a collection of essays concerned with the thematic implications of Freud's deep interest in the art objects in his collection of antiquity. The New Modernist Studies Reader Sean Latham, Gayle Rogers, 2021-01-28. Bringing together 17 foundational texts in contemporary modernist criticism in one accessible volume, this book explores the debates that have transformed the field of modernist studies at the turn of the millennium and into the 21st century. The New Modernist Studies Reader features chapters covering the major topics central to the study of modernism today, including Feminism, gender, and sexuality; Empire and race; Print and media cultures; Theories and history of modernism. Each text includes an introductory summary of its historical and intellectual contexts, with guides to further reading to help students and teachers explore the ideas further. Includes essential texts by leading critics such as Anne Anlin Cheng, Brent Hayes Edwards, Rita Felski, Susan Stanford Friedman, Mark Goble, Miriam Bratu Hansen, Andreas Huyssen, David James, Heather K. Love, Douglas Mao, Mark S. Morrisson, Michael North, Jessica Pressman, Lawrence Rainey, Paul K. Saint-Amour, Bonnie Kime Scott, Urmila Seshagiri, Robert Spoo, and Rebecca L. Walkowitz.

Shades of Noir Joan Copjec, 1993-11-17. These essays examine film noir in the light of contemporary social and political concerns, attempting to move beyond the views of the early French critics. Topics range from the re-emergence of noir in films such as Blade Runner to the relations between the sexes and the role of women. The Gender of Modernity Rita Felski, 2009-06-30. In an innovative and invigorating exploration of the complex relations between women and the modern, Rita Felski challenges conventional male-centered theories of modernity. She also calls into question those feminist perspectives that have either demonized the modern as inherently patriarchal or else assumed a simple opposition between men's and women's experiences of the modern world. Combining cultural history with cultural theory and focusing on the fin de siècle, Felski examines the gendered meanings of such notions as nostalgia, consumption, feminine writing, the popular, the sublime, evolution, revolution, and perversion. Her approach is comparative and interdisciplinary, covering a wide variety of texts from the English, French, and German traditions: sociological theory, realist and naturalist novels, decadent literature, political essays and speeches, sexological discourse, and sentimental popular fiction. Male and female writers from Simmel, Zola, Sacher-Masoch, and Rachilde to Marie Corelli, Wilde, and Olive Schreiner come under Felski's scrutiny as she exposes the varied and often contradictory connections between femininity and modernity. Seen through the lens of Felski's discerning eye, the last fin de siècle provides illuminating parallels with our own. And Felski's keen analysis of the matrix of modernism offers needed insight into the sense of cultural crisis brought on by postmodernism

Colonial Modernity in Korea

Gi-Wook Shin, Michael Robinson, 2020-03-23 The twelve chapters in this volume seek to overcome the nationalist paradigm of Japanese repression and exploitation versus Korean resistance that has dominated the study of Korea's colonial period 1910-1945 by adopting a more inclusive pluralistic approach that stresses the complex relations among colonialism, modernity and nationalism. By addressing such diverse subjects as the colonial legal system, radio, telecommunications, the rural economy and industrialization and the formation of industrial labor, one group of essays analyzes how various aspects of modernity emerged in the colonial context and how they were mobilized by the Japanese for colonial domination with often unexpected results. A second group examines the development of various forms of identity from nation to gender to class, particularly how aspects of colonial modernity facilitated their formation through negotiation, contestation and redefinition.

Up Against

Foucault Caroline Ramazanoglu, 2002-11-01 Up Against Foucault introduces key aspects of Foucault's work to feminists in ways which are less abstracted than much of the existing literature in this area. It includes an introduction to Foucault's terms and fills a gap in the literature by clarifying the links between the everyday realities of women's lives and Foucault's work on sexuality and power. The contributors explore the implications of analysing power relations, sexuality or the body without also thinking about gender and other social divisions. They bring their expertise from social theory and philosophy to bear on the same core issues: the ways in which Foucault provokes feminists into questioning their grasp of power relations and the implications of the absence of gender in his own work. Up Against Foucault shows that in spite of his lack of interest in gender, Foucault does have much to offer feminism, proposing new ways of understanding the control of women and especially the control of sexuality and bodies. This book offers new ground in relating Foucault's challenge to feminism to feminism's challenge to Foucault. Feminists are up against Foucault because he questions the key conclusions which feminists have come to about the nature of gender relations and men's possession of power. It is an appraisal of how seriously we need to take this challenge.

Ecopolitics Verena Andermatt Conley, 2006-07-13 Ecopolitics is a study of environmental awareness or non-awareness in contemporary French theory. Arguing that it is now impossible not to think in an ecological way, Verena Andermatt Conley traces the roots of today's concern for the environment back to the intellectual climate of the late 50s and 60s. The author considers key texts by influential figures such as Michael Serres, Paul Virilio, Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari, Michel de Certeau, Hélène Cixous and Luce Irigaray. Ecopolitics rehabilitates some ecological components of French intellectual thought of the past thirty years and reassesses French poststructural thinkers who explicitly deal with ecology in their work.

The Politics of (M)Othering Obioma Nnaemeka, 2005-08-04 This collection is a study of African literature framed by the central and multi-faceted idea of mother, motherland, mother-tongue, motherwit, motherhood, mothering, looking at the paradoxical location of mother as both central and marginal. Whilst the volume stands as a sustained feminist analysis, it engages feminist theory itself by showing how issues in feminism are in African literature recast in different and complex ways Politics of Mothering Obioma Nnaemeka,1997-01 This collection is a study of African literature framed by the central and multi faceted idea of mother motherland mothertongue motherwit motherhood mothering looking at the paradoxical location of m other as both central and marginal Whilst the volume stands as a sustained feminist analysis it engages feminist theory itself by showing how issues in feminism are in African literature recast in different and complex ways The Spoils of Freedom Renata Salecl,2002-01-31 The rise of nationalist racist and anti feminist ideologies is one of the most frightening repercussions of the collapse of socialism Using psychoanalytic theories of fantasy to investigate why such extremist ideologies have taken hold Renata Salecl argues that the major social and political changes in post communist Eastern Europe require a radical re evaluation of notions of liberal theories of democracy In doing so she offers a new approach to human rights and feminism grounded in her own active participation in the struggles first against communism and now against nationalism and anti feminism Desiring Whiteness Kalpana Seshadri-Crooks,2002-11-01 Desiring Whiteness provides a compelling new interpretation of how we understand race Race is often seen to be a social construction Nevertheless we continue to deploy race thinking in our everyday life as a way of telling people apart visually How do subjects become raced Is it common sense to read bodies as racially marked Employing Lacan s theories of the subject and sexual difference Seshadri Crooks explores how the discourse of race parallels that of sexual difference in making racial identity a fundamental component of our thinking Through close readings of literary and film texts Seshardi Crooks also investigates whether race is a system of difference equally determined by Whiteness She argues that it is in relation to Whiteness that systems of racial classification are organized endowing it with a power to shape human difference Ethnic American Literature Dean J. Franco,2006 Offers a comparative approach to ethnic literature that begins by accounting for the intrinsic historical geographical and political contingencies of different American cultures This work looks at a range of writing from novels to literature Subverting Masculinity ,2021-08-04 Contemporary Western societies are currently witness to a crisis of masculinity but also to an intriguing diversification of images of masculinity Once relatively stable regimes of masculine gender representation appear to have been replaced by a wider spectrum of varieties of masculine lifestyles taken up by the media and the market to produce new and immensely flexible forms consumerised gender hegemony The essays in Subverting Masculinity concentrate on contemporary film literature and diverse forms of popular culture The essays show that the subversion of traditional images of masculinity is both a source of gender contestation but may equally be susceptible to assimilation by new hegemonic configurations of masculinity Subverting Masculinity maps out the ongoing relevance of gender politics in contemporary culture but also raises the question of increasingly unclear distinctions between hegemonic and subversive versions of masculinity in contemporary cultural production Subverting Masculinity will be of interest to students and teachers of gender cultural film and literary studies Conrad and Masculinity A. Roberts,2000-09-05 This timely study offers a radical re reading of Conrad s work in the light of contemporary theories of masculinity Drawing on gay studies feminism film theory and literary theory Roberts shows how Conrad s fiction even as it reflects certain assumptions of its day about the role of men in society offers striking insights into the instability of the masculine The book explores the relationship of masculinity with colonialism modernity the visual and the body in a wide range of Conrad s major and lesser known fiction

Responsible Selves Kevät Nousiainen, Asa Gunnarsson, Johanna Niemi-Kiesilinen, Karin Lundström, 2018-12-20 This title was first published in 2001 In the Nordic countries women are considered equal to men Advanced social and economic rights are often given as the explanation for the equality In this volume Nordic feminist legal scholars give a more contradictory image of gender equality The gendered construction of the legal subject and the legal understanding of gender have a two pronged potential both to change and to reproduce gender relations Nordic women have been considered responsible for upholding the gendered social system as responsible selves rather than as individuals engaged in rights discourse The authors claim with examples that the belief in equality has made certain discriminative practices difficult to recognize and conceptualize Also a transformation of the social welfare system puts the collective equality policies to the test
