Reindustrialization Of America:

The Reindustrialization of America Seymour Zucker,1982      The Reindustrialization of America Amitai Etzioni,1981
Revitalization and the U.S. Economy United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Economic Stabilization,1981      Making Things Again Richard F. Hanley,1993      Restoring America's Defense Industrial Base United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on Monetary and Fiscal Policy,1982      A History of American State and Local Economic Development Ronald W. Coan,2017-04-28 A History of American State and Local Economic Development relates the history of American local and state economic development from 1790 to 2000 This multi variable multi disciplinary history employs a bottom up policy making systems approach while exploring the three eras of economic development      Fossil Energy Update ,1984      Running Steel, Running America Judith Stein,2000-11-09 The history of modern liberalism has been hotly debated in contemporary politics and the academy Here Judith Stein uses the steel industry long considered fundamental to the U S economy to examine liberal policies and priorities after World War II In a provocative revision of postwar American history she argues that it was the primacy of foreign commitments and the outdated economic policies of the state more than the nation s racial conflicts that transformed American liberalism from the powerful progressivism of the New Deal to the feeble policies of the 1990s Stein skillfully integrates a number of narratives usually treated in isolation labor civil rights politics business and foreign policy while underscoring the state s focus on the steel industry and its workers By showing how those who intervened in the industry treated such economic issues as free trade and the globalization of steel production in isolation from the social issues of the day most notably civil rights and the implementation of affirmative action Stein advances a larger argument about postwar liberalism Liberal attempts to address social inequalities without reference to the fundamental and changing workings of the economy she says have led to the foundering of the New Deal state      U.S. Trade Policy United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means. Subcommittee on Trade,1980      The Administration's 1982 National Urban Policy Report United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee,1983      Congressional Record United States. Congress,1983 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873      The 1981 Economic Report of the President United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee,1981      American Science Policy since World War II Bruce Smith,2011-02-01 Just after the close of World War II America s political and scientific leaders reached an informal consensus on how science could best serve the nation and how government might best support science The consensus lasted a generation before it broke under the pressures created by the Vietnam War Since then the nation has struggled to reestablish shared beliefs about the means and goals of science policy In American Science Policy Since World War II author Bruce L R Smith makes sense of the break between science and government and identifies the patterns on postwar science affairs He explains that what might otherwise seem to be a miscellaneous set of separate episodes actually constituted a continuing debate of national importance that was closely linked to broad political and economic trends Smith s precise and unique analysis gives both the scholar and historian a better understanding of where we are and how we got there while casting a modest light on future policy directions      Administration's Fiscal Year 1983 Economic Program United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means,1982      Work in America United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Children, Youth, and Families,1986      Technology and Employment United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science and Technology. Subcommittee on Science, Research, and Technology,1984      The Myth of American Eclipse Alfred Balk,1990-01-01 In this title the respected public affairs journalist Alfred Balk refreshingly and authoritatively challenges the new orthodoxy Drawing on economic analyses and the perspective of thoughtful social researchers and government leaders abroad Balk presents a challengingly different thesis and one calculated to enliven current foreign and domestic policy debate

Business America ,1984 Includes articles on international business opportunities      Losing Time Otis Graham,1994-01-04 Industrial policy reform Otis Graham argues is an important part of a public private set of remedies but it hinges upon an improved use of policy history and of historical perspective generally He proposes an explicit if minimalist approach by the federal government that would unify and reform our de facto industrial policies in order to equip the United States with the institutional capacity to formulate industrial interventions guided by strategic vision and bipartisan participation by labor and management      Catholic Social Teaching and the United States Economy John W. Houck,Oliver F. Williams,1984 Essays first presented and discussed at a major symposium organized by the Center for Ethics and Religious Values in Business of the College of Business Administration of the University of Notre Dame Foreword Co published by arrangement with the Notre Dame Center for Ethics and Religious Values in Business T p verso Includes bibliographies and index
