Limp Dan B. Allender,2011-11-30 Put your flawed foot forward Pick up most leadership books and you ll find strategies for leveraging your power and minimizing your areas of weakness But think about the leaders whose names have gone down in history Most of them were so messed up that if they were looking for work today no executive placement service would give them the time of day God s criteria for choosing leaders runs counter to the conventional wisdom Our culture equates strength with effectiveness but God favors leaders who know the value of brokenness In Leading With a Limp you ll discover what makes flawed leaders so successful They re not preoccupied with protecting their image they are undaunted by chaos and complexity they are ready to risk failure in moving an organization from what is to what should be God chooses leaders who aren t deceived by the myths of power and control but who realize that God s power is found in brokenness If you are a leader or if you have been making excuses to avoid leading find out how you can take full advantage of your weakness A limping leader is the person God uses to accomplish amazing things To go deeper check out the Leading With a Limp

Honor Your Father and Mother Pamela S. Ellis,2008-10

James Alison and a Girardian Theology John P. Edwards,2020-05-14 Opening with a Foreword by James Alison this volume is the first in depth treatment of Alison s theological method John P Edwards shows that Alison s theological project outstrips Ren Girard s application of mimetic theory to theology He concludes that an explicitly Christian theological perspective is necessary for providing a fully coherent account of Girard s notions of conversion and mimetic desire This volume grounds Alison s theological method in his understanding of the ongoing interaction between conversion and theological reflection which is informed by his use of mimetic theory While Alison describes this method as theology in the order of the discovery the author refers to it as an inductive theology The volume closes by demonstrating that such a theology bears fruit in a renewed understanding of the value of Christian doctrines and particularly the doctrine of revelation

Finding Hope in This World of Turmoil Trevor Bartley,2016-09-24 The resurrection message is the most important part of our belief system Without the truth of the resurrection message our faith is just another religion with no real substance The Resurrection sets Christianity apart This book is dedicated to establishing this truth The extent of the work of Christs resurrection is staggering However if there is one topic that is the central message of the Bible it is the sacrifice of Christ The Old Testament looks forward to it whereas the New Testament looks back at it We must be extremely careful not to allow these two ordinances to become routine in our Christian life communion and baptism and thereby reduce the significance of what Jesus did for us at his sacrifice and resurrection The greatest gift that anyone can be given is eternal life and the one that made that possible is Jesus In Christ we have victory provided we see ourselves dead to sin and raised together with him Even so consider yourselves also dead to sin and your relation to it broken but alive to God living in unbroken fellowship with Him in Christ Jesus Romans 6 11 AMP I have been crucified with Christ in Him I have shared His crucifixion it is no longer I who live but Christ the Messiah lives in me and the life I now live in the body I live by faith in by adherence to and reliance on and complete trust in the Son of God Who loved me and gave Himself up for me Therefore I do not treat Gods gracious gift as something of minor importance and defeat its very purpose I do not set aside and invalidate and frustrate and nullify the grace unmerited favor of God For if justification righteousness acquittal from guilt comes through observing the ritual of the Law then Christ the Messiah died groundlessly and to no purpose and in vain His death was then wholly superfluous Galatians 2 2021 AMP We need to remember that the story doesnt end with Jesuss death He is currently in heaven in his resurrected body and one day he will return The resurrection of Jesus was an act of the supreme love of God Remember our identification is in who we are in Christ and his resurrection The Bible tells us in John 14 12 that the things Christ has done we can do and greater than these we will do because he goes to the Father The resurrection demonstrated Jesus's victory over the power of death and confirms there is life beyond the grave Jesus Christ offers us a resurrection power beyond ourselves that can make us alive it empowers us to overcome the limitations of this realm with an infused ability as we focus on the Spirit of power working within us I hope you receive much insight and revelation as you discover the wholeness of what Jesus achieved for you and me

Mothers on the Margin? E. Anne Clements, 2014-05-01 The Gospel of Matthew opens with a patrilineal genealogy of Jesus that intriguingly includes five women Tamar Rahab Ruth she of Uriah and Mary In a gospel that has a strongly Jewish and male orientated outlook why are women incorporated In particular why include these four Old Testament women alongside Mary Rejecting traditional as well as feminist views Anne Clements undertakes a close literary reading of the narratives to discern how each woman is characterized and presented All are significant scriptural figures on the margins of Israelite society From this intertextual world established by Matthew Clements explores why Matthew may have named these women in the opening genealogy and what implications their inclusion may have for the ongoing gospel narrative Mothers on the Margin argues that Matthew's Gospel contains a counter narrative focused on women The presence of the five women in the genealogy indicates that the birth of the Messiah will bring about a crisis in Israel's identity in terms of ethnicity marginality and gender The women signal that Matthew's Gospel is concerned with the construal of a new identity for the people of God
