Evangelical Theology Michael F. Bird, 2013-10-29 Evangelical Theology is a systematic theology written from the perspective of a biblical scholar Michael F Bird contends that the center unity and boundary of the evangelical faith is the evangel gospel as opposed to things like justification by faith or inerrancy The evangel is the unifying thread in evangelical theology and the theological hermeneutic through which the various loci of theology need to be understood Using the gospel as a theological leitmotif an approach to Christian doctrine that begins with the gospel and sees each loci through the lens of the gospel this text presents an authentically evangelical theology as opposed to an ordinary systematic theology written by an evangelical theologian According to the author theology is the drama of gospelizing performing and living out the gospel in the theatre of Christian life The text features tables sidebars and questions for discussion The end of every part includes a

What to Take Home section that gives students a run down on what they need to know And since reading theology can often be dry and cerebral the author applies his unique sense of humor in occasional Comic Belief sections so that students may enjoy their learning experience through some theological humor added for good measure Resting in His Redemption

James Gills,2011-07-05 The Scriptures teach clearly that God desires to live in intimate fellowship and communion with mankind He wants us to enjoy His love peace joy and companionship and to rest in His redemption experiencing the perfect harmony and contentment and fulfillment of purpose for which He created us God s original purpose for creating mankind was simply for us to enjoy relationship with Him the kind of fellowship that the first couple Adam and Eve enjoyed in the Garden of Eden when God walked with them in the cool of the evening Gen 3 8 Then sin entered the human experience and separated all mankind from that divine fellowship But when we place our faith in Christ s sacrifice for our sin we are redeemed by the blood of Christ and justified in the sight of God But that is not the end of the matter it is only the beginning God s intention is that we be completely restored spirit soul and body to the divine rest found in His redemption He wants us to experience that mystery of intimate communion with our Creator Redeemer In this book we will discuss four important aspects of fulfilling the deepest desire of the human heart to know God personally and intimately in the way God s great loving heart intended To know the love of God that brings true heart contentment we need to walk in the understanding of these divine principles The biblical basis for all prayer is resting in His redemption The biblical basis for all Christian living is resting in His redemption The biblical basis for total forgiveness is resting in His redemption The biblical basis for divine contentment is resting in His redemption Your life can be transformed when you allow Him to make them a reality to your heart The love of God can fill your heart and make you a victorious lover of the Christ You will be ruined for any lesser temporal pleasure or love once you taste more deeply the wonders of resting in His redemption Christian Theology for a Secular Society Mark G. McKim,2008-01-01 It s hard to be the only one That single sentence from a teenage congregant sums up the conviction that motivated Christian Theology for a Secular Society In these dying days of Christendom the reality that most Western Christians face is living out their faith as a minority in the midst of a culture that is at every level personal institutional and societal secular in nature While most living in Western societies still affirm belief in God and often other vaguely recognizable Christian beliefs these affirmations frequently have little to do with how daily life is lived The idea that the God best known to us in Jesus Christ is actually in charge of life is foreign For most Christianity simply does not form an overarching system of meaning that shapes life Instead life is lived largely without reference to God And to live any other way is often hard In this volume Mark McKim sets out to do theology in this context How does one explain the core historic Christian doctrines in a way that makes sense in a secular culture and in a way that will gain a hearing What does it mean to be the church in this new situation Throughout McKim asks the question so what as he relates Christian teachings to a secular society and to what is actually happening in the local church McKim s goal is to enable the singing of the Lord s song in the new and strange land of a secular society Draw My Heart After You in the Song of Love Virginia Helweg,2012-07-20 Readers will take a journey through the Song of Solomon Song of Songs which describes God s heart and His love Written as a devotional author Virginia Helweg uses the poetic metaphors from Solomon s song to teach how God created man and woman in His image and therefore have the capacity within to know Him intimately parallel to the same love in a marriage Helweg explains that the Song is about romantic love but not as man perceives romance It is an example of God s persistence to have a relationship with His creation and a love poem Solomon framed as a song because of a faith in a God of love singing praising and worshiping New SCM Dictionary of Christian Spirituality Philip Sheldrake,2013-05-20 This dictionary attempts to give direct access to the development of Christian Spirituality It is a series of pieces written by experts to provide instant accurate and thought provoking information of high scholarship Speak Your Healing from the Homosexual Deception Bonnie M. Egglehand,2014-10-08 The lies of homosexuality dissipate because a life of purity in Christ Jesus decidedly removes the homosexual deception Each step toward Jesus brings us closer to His image and we are changed We emerge free to be exactly whom Father God created us to be Leaving all secrets with honesty and transparency before God and man forgiving ourselves and all abusers we emerge in our true identity with a heterosexual desire This desire for the opposite sex is as natural as apple pie Leaving the judgments the facades the sins and all idols the stark truth remains Our true identity is found in Jesus Christ alone
