Women and Housing Patricia Kennett, Kam Wah Chan, 2010-12-07 In the context of contemporary economic political social and cultural transformations this book brings together contributions from developed and emerging societies in Europe the USA and East Asia in order to highlight the nature extent and impact of these changes on the housing opportunities of women The collection seeks to contribute to comparative housing debates by highlighting the gendered nature of housing processes locating these processes within wider structured and institutionalized relations of power and to show how these socially constructed relationships are culturally contingent and manifest and transform over time and space The international contributors draw on a wide range of empirical evidence relating to labour market participation wealth distribution family formation and education to demonstrate the complexity and gendered nature of the interlocking arenas of production reproduction and consumption and the implications for the housing opportunities of women in different social contexts Worldwide examples are drawn from Australia China Great Britain Hong Kong Japan Spain Sweden Taiwan and the USA

A Practical Approach to Housing Law Graham Robson, David Roberts, 2005 The authors provide a combination of the law and practice of housing law giving a detailed yet accessible analysis of the most important areas of housing law that practitioners currently encounter

Housing associations - rehousing women leaving domestic violence Davis, Cathy, 2003-07-02 Housing associations are central to the government's strategy to improve social housing yet have no direct statutory responsibility for rehousing homeless people This study critically examines the role of housing associations in responding to the needs of women who have become homeless due to domestic violence Housing associations rehousing women leaving domestic violence will fill a gap in the literature for academic staff and students interested in housing studies social policy sociology women's studies political studies and organisation management studies provide valuable guidance to staff in housing associations and local authorities working in general needs housing supported housing and homeless services and provide policy makers with a useful introduction to key issues

Women And Social Policy Christine Hallett, 2018-10-08 Women and Social Policy is a major new textbook on women and social policy in Britain in the 1990's Written by a team of leading academics the book provides an introduction to the key topics and issues in social policy as they directly affect women as both users and providers of welfare services All of the main social policy areas are covered employment poverty and social security housing education health the personal social services and community care The book also covers other issues such as race and domestic violence The book is published in association with the Social Policy Association Women and

Social Policy Group Making Sense of Prostitution J. Phoenix,1999-03-08 This book provides a compelling analysis of the conditions in which women are sustained within prostitution in Britain at the end of the millennium Based on a major empirical study it is a unique glimpse into how some women who live lives completely torn apart by poverty violence and criminalization are able to understand their lives in prostitution and make sense of the choices they make including their involvement in prostitution in their struggles to survive Housing Transitions Through the Life Course Andrew Beer,Debbie Faulkner,2011 Lifetime attitudes to housing have changed with new population dynamics driving the market and a greater emphasis on consumption This important contribution to the literature argues that how we think about households and their housing needs to be recast to acknowledge this changed environment and provide a more powerful conceptual framework Housing Shock Rory Hearne,2020-06-03 The unprecedented housing and homelessness crisis in Ireland is having profound impacts on Generation Rent the wellbeing of children worsening wider inequality and threatening the economy Hearne contextualises the Irish housing crisis within the broader global housing situation by examining the origins of the crisis in terms of austerity marketisation and the new era of financialisation where global investors are making housing unaffordable and turning it into an asset for the wealthy He brings to the fore the perspectives of those most affected new housing activists and protesters whilst providing innovative global solutions for a new vision for affordable sustainable homes for all , Ethnicity And Crime: A Reader Spalek, Basia,2008-07-01 Basia Spalek has compiled an excellent reader about a much researched and highly sensitive subject Crucially she contextualises ethnicity and crime within broadly defined social and intellectual contexts avoiding the limitation of all too frequently repeated research based solely on statistical measures and policy evaluations Simon Holdaway Professor of Criminology and Sociology Sheffield University Issues in relation to race and ethnicity have generated substantial and ever growing interest from and within a multitude of academic research and policy contexts This book brings together important material in race and ethnic studies and provides different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime and the criminal justice system Ethnicity and Crime A Reader consists of a collection of works that capture the main themes that arise from within this vast area of work It is divided into five sections Race and crime racial discrimination and criminal justice The racialisation of crime Social political and cultural contexts Race ethnicity and victimisation Self and discipline reflexivity Ethnic identities and crime Ethnic identities institutional reflexivity and crime Each section contains recurring and overlapping themes and includes many different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime It spans theoretical approaches that might be labelled as positivist critical race analyses left realist approaches feminist as well as post modern perspectives This is the first title in the new series Readings in Criminology and Criminal Justice and follows the series format of thematic sections together with an editor s introduction to the complete volume and an introduction to each section Law and Parenthood Chris Barton,Gillian Douglas,1995-05 Most academic literature focuses on the position of the child in relation to the parent or the state In reality the law is more concerned with the role and function of parents and this new book addresses the key issues of parental rights and responsibilities Understanding Inequality, Poverty and Wealth Ridge, Tess, Wright, Sharon, Sharon Elizabeth Wright, 2008-06-30 At a time when the divide between the wealthy and the disadvantaged is widening this major textbook provides students with a critical understanding of poverty and social exclusion in relation to wealth rather than as separate from it Raising fundamental questions about the organisation of society social structures and relationships and social justice the book is split into four main sections exploring key concepts and issues people and place poverty and wealth across different groups and situations the role of the state and prospects for the future This is the only textbook to focus on the links between wealth and poverty and contains an edited collection of chapters specially written by a distinguished panel of contributors including Pete Alcock Daniel Dorling Mary Shaw Gill Scott and Jay Ginn It is designed with the needs of students in mind and includes useful chapter summaries illustrative boxes and diagrams and pointers to relevant websites and other sources of further information This is an essential textbook for level 1 2 undergraduate students studying social policy either as a main subject or as part of their course It is a core text for level 3 4 specialist modules in this field

Children and Material Culture Joanna Sofaer Derevenski, 2005-07-05 This is the first book to focus entirely on children and material culture The contributors ask what is the relationship between children and the material world how does the material culture of children vary across time and space how can we access the actions and identities of children in the material record The collection spans the Palaeolithic to the late twentieth century and uses data from across Europe Scandinavia the Americas and Asia The international contributors are from a wide range of disciplines including archaeology cultural and biological anthropology psychology and museum studies All skilfully integrate theory and data to illustrate fully the significance and potential of studying children The Culture of Homelessness Megan Ravenhill, 2016-03-16 Despite an extensive literature on homelessness there is surprisingly little work that investigates the roots of homelessness by tracking homeless people over time In this fascinating and much needed ethnographic study Megan Ravenhill presents the results of ten years research on the streets and in the hostels and day centres of the UK incorporating intensive interviews with 150 homeless and formerly homeless people as well as policy makers and professionals working with homeless people Ravenhill discusses the biographical structural and behavioural factors that lead to homelessness Amongst the important and unique features of the study are the use of life route maps showing the circumstances and decisions that lead to homelessness a systematic study of the timescales involved and a survey of people's exit routes from homelessness Ravenhill also identifies factors that predict those most vulnerable to homelessness and factors that prevent or considerably delay the onset of homelessness The Routledge Handbook of Global Perspectives on Homelessness, Law & Policy Chris Bevan, 2024-06-06 This handbook provides a comprehensive global survey and assessment of the law and policy relating to homelessness prevention Homelessness is regarded internationally as one of the most pressing issues facing humanity and one of the greatest social challenges of our times This has been further amplified as a result of the Covid 19 pandemic Across the globe there is an enormous divergence in both experiences of and responses to homelessness from governments and state actors This handbook examines how different jurisdictions from across all five continents of the world have encountered framed and responded to homelessness Written by expert scholars and leaders in their field the book engages in a multidisciplinary and comparative analysis of homelessness as an issue of acute social concern Understandings of homelessness are geographically culturally and historically situated making analysis of each jurisdiction s approach by a national expert deeply insightful The collection examines legal and extra legal policy interventions targeted at reducing or preventing homelessness from across the globe Drawing on diverse perspectives differing cultures and welfare regimes it thus constitutes a timely evaluation of current approaches to homelessness internationally This book will appeal to students and scholars of homelessness sociology social policy anthropology and urban sociology as well as international and national policymakers

The Harassment and Abuse of Older People in the Private Rented Sector Nancy Carlton,2003-01-29 Help the Aged funded this major study because of concerns that older people living in private rented housing were vulnerable to abuse and harassment by landlords Drawing upon detailed research with older people professionals and landlords in six different localities the report provides the first major study of this important issue The report concludes with a series of recommendations to central and local government These include the need for changes in such areas as the overall regulation of the sector the rights of older tenants and in the housing benefit system The recommendations also cover the need for better training for professionals about abuse and harassment improved age related records and the need for improved funding for advice and advocacy services This study will be essential reading for a wide range of practitioners and academics whose interests and responsibilities span older people and their reliance upon the housing and welfare systems

Black British Culture and Society Kwesi Owusu,2003-09-02 Black British Culture and Society brings together in one indispensable volume key writings on the Black community in Britain from the Windrush immigrations of the late 1940s and 1950s to contemporary multicultural Britain Combining classic writings on Black British life with new specially commissioned articles Black British Culture and Society records the history of the post war African and Caribbean diaspora tracing the transformations of Black culture in British society Black British Culture and Society explores key facets of the Black experience charting Black Britons struggles to carve out their own identity and place in an often hostile society The articles reflect the rich diversity of the Black British experience addressing economic and social issues such as health religion education feminism old age community and race relations as well as Black culture and the arts with discussions of performance carnival sport style literature theatre art and film making The contributors examine the often tense relationship between successful Black public figures and the media and address the role of the Black intellectual in public life Featuring interviews with noted Black artists and writers such as Aubrey Williams Mustapha Matura and Caryl Phillips and including articles from key contemporary thinkers such as Stuart Hall A Sivanandan Paul Gilroy and Henry Louis Gates Black British Culture and Society provides a rich resource of analysis critique and comment on the Black community s distinctive contribution to cultural life in Britain today Causes of Action Pascoe Pleasence, Great Britain: Legal Services Commission, Nigel Balmer, Legal Services Research Centre, Alexy Buck, 2006-03-23 Civil law provides a framework within which people conduct their daily lives and civil court cases often relate to problems that affect people s basic life opportunities and well being This is the 2nd edition of this publication which sets out the key findings of surveys conducted in England and Wales in 2001 and 2004 the most extensive of its kind so far undertaken to examine people s experiences of civil law problems including exploring social economic and health consequences Issues discussed include the links between the civil justice system crime and social exclusion the relatively infrequent use of formal legal processes and the obstacles that can prevent problems being resolved
