Modern Societies & the Science of Religions Gerard Wiegers, 2018-11-13 This book brings together studies by seventeen specialists in the science of religions in which they relate the changes in their discipline to the changes which have occurred in a select number of modernising societies worldwide. It attempts to study these developments in their relation to and as conditioned and constrained by cultural change, changes in educational systems, technology, population, for example, migration, economic patterns, politics, and last but not least religious systems. The essays focus on resp. France, Germany, the Netherlands, Spain, the USA, Turkey, Israel, Morocco, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Indonesia, Japan, and China. Written in honour of Dr Lammert Leertouwer, professor of History of Religions and the Comparative Study of Religions at Leiden University from 1979 until his retirement in 1997, the book is particularly important for all those who are interested in the religious, social, and political contexts of the academic Study of Religions in general and in the various countries dealt with in particular.

Religions in the Modern World Linda Woodhead, 2002 This comprehensive guide offers an unrivalled introduction to recent work in the study of religion from the religious traditions of Asia and the West to new forms of religion and spirituality such as New Age. With an historical introduction to each religion and detailed analysis of its place in the modern world, Religions in the Modern World is ideal for newcomers to the study of religion. It incorporates case studies and anecdotes, text extracts, chapter menus, and end of chapter summaries, glossaries, and annotated further reading sections. Topics covered include religion, colonialism, and postcolonialism; religious nationalism; women and religion; religion and globalization; religion and authority; the rise of new spiritualities.
