

Religion based politics.!

In India, different political parties represent the interests of different caste groups. A majority of Indians prefer political leaders from their own caste, tribe or religion, according to a 2018 study, indicating how identity politics plays a significant role in state and general elections. This was especially so among non-literates across caste and religious groups.

The mainstream media also reports how political parties, manipulate the religious sentiments of the people for their own benefits and to harm the rival or opponent party. This caste based politics can be seen when parties sees the Muslim minorities as vote banks only, and they uses them to rebel against the government in power.

Religion And Politics Minorities And The Regeneration Of The Mainstream:

Religion and Politics Valson Thampu, 1999 Religions in Dialogue Alan Race, Ingrid Shafer, 2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2002 Judaism Christianity and Islam as Abrahamic religions share much theological common ground and the momentum for dialogue between them at theological levels has greatly increased in recent decades This book explores the relationship between religion and the modern democratic state from the perspective of these three monotheistic traditions It investigates how the three religions in dialogue might overcome their historic antagonism as a prelude to working for the development of the global common good As part of the test of religious ideals some of the contributions bring theory down to earth by examining the role of religion in three democratic states with different histories Turkey Indonesia India and also in relation to a culture of human rights Drawing together leading Muslim Christian and Jewish authors from America Europe and Asia the book presents a rare collaboration of faiths and ideas to make a contribution to studies of inter religious dialogue and the changing role of religion in the democratic state Minority Politics in India Emanuel Nahar, 2007 Religion and Faith-Based Welfare Rana Jawad, 2012-09-26 This original book makes a timely and potentially controversial contribution both to the teaching of social policy and the wider debates surrounding it in Britain today It offers a critical and theoretically sensitive overview of the role of religious values actors and institutions in the development of state and non state social welfare provision in Britain combining historical discussion of the relationship between religion and social policy in Britain with a comparative theoretical discussion that covers continental Europe and North America Grounded in new empirical research on religious welfare organisations from the nine major faiths in the UK the book brings together all of these perspectives to argue for an analytical shift in the definition of wellbeing through a new concept called ways of being This reflects the moral ideational and cultural underpinnings of social welfare Written in a readable style the book will appeal to students and tutors of social policy as well as policy makers seeking to inform themselves about the key issues surrounding faith based welfare in modern Britain New Geographies of Race and Racism Caroline Bressey, 2016-04-29 In recent years geographers interested in ethnicity race and racism have extended their focus from examining geographies of segregation and racism to exploring cultural politics social practice and everyday geographies of identity and experience This edited collection illustrates this new work and includes research on youth and new ethnicities the contested politics of race and racism intersections of ethnicity religion and race and the theorisation and interrogation of whiteness Case studies from the UK and Ireland focus on the intersections of race and nation and the specificities of place in discourses of racialisation and identity A key feature of the book is its engagement with a range of methodological approaches to examining the significance of race including ethnography visual methodologies and historical analysis Religion and Politics Bernhard Giesen, Daniel Šuber, 2005-06-01 This volume brings together essays by such eminent scholars like Shmuel N Eisenstadt Mary Douglas Thomas Luckmann Reinhart Koselleck and Jan Assmann on the topic of politics and religion The relationship between religious and cultural visions on the one hand and socio political structures on the other becomes elaborated from a wide historical and culturalist perspective These accounts are flanked by contributions of a younger generation of scholars that focus on new aspects of secularisation The book aims at reviving the interdisciplinary discourse on a matter which seems to be crucial to the question of future solidarity between different cultures and religions in a globalising world The Unfinished Politics of Race Les Back, Michael Keith, Kalbir Shukra, John Solomos, 2022-12 A novel history of the politics of race in British society over the past few decades that draws on original research at local and national levels Political Engagement Amongst Ethnic Minority Young People T. O'Toole, R. Gale, 2013-09-26 This book engages with debates on ethnic minority and Muslim young people showing beyond apathy and violent political extremism the diverse forms of political engagement in which young people engage Islam and identity politics among British-Bangladeshis Ali Riaz, 2016-05-16 This book probes the causes of and conditions for the preference of the members of the British Bangladeshi community for a religion based identity vis vis ethnicity based identity and the influence of Islamists in shaping the discourse The first book length study to examine identity politics among the Bangladeshi diaspora delves into the micro level dynamics the internal and external factors and the role of the state and locates these within the broad framework of Muslim identity and Islamism citizenship and the future of multiculturalism in Europe Empirically grounded but enriched with in depth analysis and written in an accessible language this study is an invaluable reference for academics policy makers and community activists Students and researchers of British politics ethnic migration diaspora studies cultural studies and political Islam will find the book extremely useful Race and Religion in Mid-nineteenth Century America, 1850-1877 Joseph R. Washington, 1988 This study focuses on Protestant philanthropic agencies Calvinist conservatives and social liberals as competing colour conscious clerical classes of charioteers driving chariots of charity behind the Cotton Curtain The Politics of Multiculturalism in the New Europe Tariq Modood, Pnina Werbner, 1997-08 On multiculturalism The Far-Right in World Politics Alexander Anievas, Richard Saull, 2024-11-01 This book addresses the reasons why the contemporary far right has gained political resonance in a variety of states across both the Global North and South The rise of far right forms of politics in recent years throughout a range of geopolitical locales suggests the emergence of a distinct conjuncture in world politics indicating a common set of enabling conditions and characteristics It is this unprecedented context in the history of the post war liberal international order that this edited volume aims to address In doing so it brings together a diverse range of scholars many of whom have developed an internationally recognized expertise in the study of the far right and International Relations IR Reflecting a plurality of methodological and theoretical perspectives the chapters cover a variety of theoretical and conceptual issues including analyses of different geopolitical and national expressions of the contemporary far right Notwithstanding such diversity the primary analytical focus of the book is to situate and explain the far right as a distinct part of the history of modern international relations especially with respect to the development of and crises within the contemporary international order From this perspective the contributions combine to demonstrate the deeply embedded symptoms of far right politics centred on racialized imaginaries across the globe and re produced within the sinews of an evolving liberal international order even as the far right also represents an antagonism to some elements of said order Providing a much needed global perspective this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of populism far right politics conservatism and international relations The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Globalizations and are accompanied by a new epilogue Rhetorics of Race and Religion on the Christian Right Samuel P. Perry, 2019-11-20 As the first African American president Barack Obama faced unique challenges and obstacles when addressing issues of race While rhetorical attacks on the basis of race directed at Obama were not unexpected many of the most consistent racially motivated criticisms of Obama were associated with his religious identity The Jeremiah Wright controversy gave way to the birther and secret Muslim conspiracy theories while anxieties about Obama's identity proved particularly potent as modes of political attack in the context of the war on terror This book examines the ways in which those attacks often originated in the rhetoric of the Christian Right and the ways in which these theories circulated amongst the Christian Right Perry argues that the intersections of race and religion in American politics produced rhetoric that often caricatured Obama as an American anti Christian and an enemy of the state By exploring the arguments used to cultivate these characterizations and tracing the roots of conspiracies that worked to delegitimize Obama's religious identity through racial claims and stereotypes a clearer picture emerges of what is at stake when people can no longer separate religious convictions from political arguments

Urban Regeneration in the UK Andrew Tallon, 2009-08-21 Exploring the streets of London Manchester Belfast Edinburgh or Cardiff one cannot help but notice the striking transformations taking place in the urban landscapes This prominent regeneration of urban areas in the UK and around the world has become an increasingly important issue amongst governments and populations The growing concern has been a result of the impacts of the decline of cities since the collapse of manufacturing industries and the heightening of global competition A range of innovative approaches to tackle urban problems have been taken over many decades to attempt to regenerate the fortunes of towns and cities across the UK This text provides an accessible yet critical synthesis of urban regeneration in the UK incorporating key policies approaches issues and debates The central objective of the book is to place the historical and contemporary regeneration agenda into context Section one sets up the conceptual and policy framework for urban regeneration in the UK Section Two traces policies that have been adopted by central government to influence the social economic and physical development of cities including early municipal interventions in the late nineteenth century community focused urban policies of the late 1960s entrepreneurial property led regeneration of the 1980s and competition for urban funds in the 1990s The penultimate section illustrates the key thematic policies and strategies that have been pursued by cities themselves focusing particularly on improving economic competitiveness and tackling social disadvantage These approaches are contextualized by discussions covering for example urban competitiveness policies and the focus on sustainable urban regeneration The final section summarizes key issues and debates facing urban regeneration and speculates upon future directions Urban Regeneration in the UK blends the approaches taken by central government programmes and cities themselves in the regeneration process The latest ideas and examples from across disciplines and across the UK's urban areas are illustrated This book provides a comprehensive and up to date synthesis that will fill a significant gap in the current literature on regeneration and will be a tool for students as well as a seminal read for practitioners and researchers Urban Political Geographies Ugo

Rossi, Alberto Vanolo, 2011-11-10 Ugo Rossi and Alberto Vanolo take us on a journey around the ascent and crisis of urban liberalism providing a clear and highly readable analysis of key issues and debates in the field of urban political geography Ola S derstr m Universit de Neuch tel It is in the city trenches that the crises contradictions and counterpolitics of neoliberalization are finding some of their most vivid and consequential expressions where new worlds are being imagined made and unmade This has yet to be mapped But in Urban Political Geographies we have a timely and astute field guide to this unfolding process Jamie Peck University of British Columbia How can we think about the urban within a political and geographical framework This compelling textbook scrutinizes urban politics through a theoretical and empirical lens to provide readers with a clear understanding of the relationship between political spatial and economic issues relating to the urban environment Taking a truly global analysis the book uses international comparative case studies from cities across the world including London Beijing Austin and Vancouver It draws on ideas and theories from human geography politics sociology economics and development Engaging in style and thorough in its coverage of the key issues the book is essential reading for students and scholars looking for a book that deals with contemporary urban debates from a political economic and geographical perspective Communities and Local Government Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons:

Communities and Local Government Committee, 2008-01-03 The single theme that underlies this report on the performance of the Department for Communities and Local Government DCLG is delivery The DCLG faces unusual challenges as a result of how it is structured and its reliance on the performance of other departments agencies local authorities for the achievement of its goals set by the Government Most of the money for which DCLG is responsible is spent for it by someone else by over 450 local authorities 47 local fire brigades by large government agencies such as the soon to exist Homes and Communities Agency with a 2.2 billion budget The challenge of delivery is examined under several headings the capability review carried out by the Prime Minister's Delivery Unit the ten public service agreements focussing particularly on decent homes fire and rescue services race equality and community cohesion and gender equality home information packs FireLink and FiReControl two major technology projects currently under way and both overdue and exceeding planned costs On the Departmental report the Committee welcomes the higher standard of the report and the improvement in provision of full and clear information to Parliament and the public A concern remains about the number of staff reporting feeling bullied harassed or discriminated against

Ethnicity, Race and Inequality in the UK Bridget Byrne,Claire Alexander,Omar Khan,James Nazroo,William Shankley,2020-04-08 Available Open Access under CC BY NC licence 50 years after the establishment of the Runnymede Trust and the Race Relations Act of 1968 which sought to end discrimination in public life this accessible book provides commentary by some of the UK s foremost scholars of race and ethnicity on data relating to a wide range of sectors of society including employment health education criminal justice housing and representation in the arts and media It explores what progress has been made identifies those areas where inequalities remain stubbornly resistant to change and asks how our thinking around race and ethnicity has changed in an era of Islamophobia Brexit and an increasingly diverse population

Faith in the Public Realm Adam Dinham,Robert Furbey,Vivien Lowndes,2009-01-28 Faith and religion is a hot topic at the moment and this text explores key issues for faith and religious groups Understanding the role of faith in the policy world is of increasing importance and chapters are arranged around themes which helps students understand the concepts

A Mighty Baptism Susan Juster,Lisa MacFarlane,1996 Follows the influences of race and gender on the Protestant tradition in America from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century

Migration and the Global Landscapes of Religion David Garbin,2023-06-29 This book draws upon case studies of the Congolese Christian diaspora in the UK and US and an ethnography of religious urbanization in the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC to explore the making of religious spaces and moral landscapes in an era of globalization Religion is a key aspect of the community social and political life of Congolese migrants many of whom have to address the predicaments of displacement relocation and the status of being a minority within a minority as Francophone black African migrants in English speaking countries The book demonstrates the role of religion in the production of moral worlds and the ways in which for Congolese Christians this process both results from and facilitates a process of regrounding in the midst of ambivalent urban environments Through a multi sited ethnography the book also examines the impact of transnational religious practices on development and city making in the homeland in a context of increasing informalization and infrastructural deficit Drawing on extensive ethnographic data David Garbin captures the nuances of a complex and changing social political and religious landscape for Congolese migrants relying on the construction of moral worlds and revealing the role of a range of connections but also disconnections between diaspora and homeland across multiple scales An essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in the intersections of religion migration and urbanization in both Global North and Global South contexts
