Assembling Unity Sarah A. Nickel,2019-03-13 Established narratives portray Indigenous unity as emerging solely in response to the political agenda of the settler state But the concept of unity has long shaped the modern Indigenous political movement With Indigenous perspectives and frameworks in the foreground Assembling Unity explores the relationship between global political ideologies and pan Indigenous politics in British Columbia through the history of the Union of BC Indian Chiefs UBCIC Sarah Nickel demonstrates that while unity has been an enduring goal for BC Indigenous peoples its expression was heavily negotiated between UBCIC members grassroots constituents and Indigenous women s organizations Nickel draws on oral interviews newspaper articles government documents and UBCIC records to expose the uniquely gendered nature of political work as well as the economic and emotional sacrifices that activists make This incisive work unsettles dominant Western and patriarchal political ideals that cast Indigenous men as reactive and Indigenous women as invisible and apolitical Rays from the Rose Cross ,1920 What Is Enlightenment? Mohammed D.

Cherkaoui,2016-04-11 Political sociology has struggled with predicting the next turn of transformation in the MENA countries after the 2011 Uprisings Arab activists did not articulate explicitly any modalities of their desired system although their slogans ushered to a fully democratic society These unguided Uprisings showcase an open ended freedom to question after Arabs underwent their freedom from struggle from authoritarianism The new conflicts in Egypt Syria Yemen and Libya have fragmented shar iya legitimacy into distinct conceptualizations revolutionary legitimacy electoral legitimacy legitimacy of the street and consensual legitimacy This volume examines whether the Uprisings would introduce a replica of the European Enlightenment or rather stimulate an Arab Islamic awakening with its own cultural specificity and political philosophy By placing Immanuel Kant in Tahrir Square this book adopts a comparative analysis of two enlightenment projects one Arab still under construction with possible progression toward modernity or regression toward neo authoritarianism and one European shaped by the past two centuries Mohammed D Cherkaoui and the contributing authors use a hybrid theoretical framework drawing on three tanwiri enlightenment philosophers from different eras Ibn Rushd known in the west as Averroes the twelfth century Immanuel Kant the eighteenth century and Mohamed Abed Al Jabri the twentieth century The authors propose a few projections about the outcome of the competition between an Islamocracy vision and what Cherkaoui terms as a Demoslamic vision since it implies the Islamist movements flexibility to reconcile their religious absolutism with the prerequisites of liberal democracy This book also traces the patterns of change which point to a possible Arab Axial Age It ends with the trials of modernity and tradition in Tunisia and an imaginary speech Kant would deliver at the Tunisian Parliament after those vibrant debates of the new constitution in 2014 Directed by Jack Arnold

Dana M. Reemes,2012-01-10 Arnold made some of the most enduring science fiction films of the 1950s It Came from Outer Space Creature from the Black Lagoon and The Incredible Shrinking Man But only recently has he been recognized as a distinguished genre director 3 D pioneer and artist of international repute This is the first complete critical appreciation of his career and works Extensive interview material many rare and previously unpublished photographs storyboards and the first complete Arnold filmography are included Ballou's Monthly Magazine ,1877 Osment Plays: 1 Philip
