John Finerty Reports the Sioux War John Finerty,2020-07-30 In War Path and Bivouac published in 1890 John Finerty 1846 1908 recalled the summer he spent following George Crook s infamous campaign against the Sioux in 1876 Historians have long surmised that Finerty s correspondence covering the campaign for the Chicago Times reappeared in its entirety in Finerty s celebrated book But that turns out not to be the case as readers will discover in this remarkable volume In print at last this collection of Finerty s letters and telegrams to his hometown newspaper written from the field during Crook s campaign conveys the full extent of the reporter s experience and observations during this time of great excitement and upheaval in the West An introduction and annotations by Paul L Hedren a lifelong historian of the period provide ample biographical and historical background for Finerty s account Four times under fire giving as well as he got Finerty reported on the action with the immediacy of an unfolding wartime story To his riveting dispatches on the Rosebud and Slim Buttes battles this collection adds accounts of the lesser known Sibley scout and the tortures of the campaign trail penned by a keen eyed newsman who rode at the front through virtually all of the action Here too is an intimate look at the Black Hills gold rush and at principal towns like Deadwood and Custer City captured in the earliest moments of their colorful history Hedren s introduction places Finerty not only on the scene in Wyoming Montana and Dakota during the Indian campaign but also in the context of battlefield journalism at a critical time in its evolution Publication of this volume confirms John Finerty s
