eternal final results that will at last determine where you spend eternity That was the simple question I asked my dad one day nearly thirty five years ago This simple question was met with an incredible and angry response from my mother who thought that I had no right asking such a question and that it was none of my business This was basically the same response that I got from my sister when she learned that I had the temerity to ask this question of my dad This simple little question began a familial discord between my mother and me that resulted in what ended up as largely a dysfunctional family relationship for almost thirty years In addition to this underlying cause of our family dysfunction I did more than my share to advance the cause of dysfunction in our family Over the course of years our family relationships remained strained and distant largely my fault until that day when we all learned that our mom had cancer From that point on things were very different in our family The steady treatment and advance of Mom s cancer seemed to take an oddly twisted and tangled route to a result that left all of us arguably stunned and even more so surprised This is the story of that twisted and tangled trip

HORRID Maria Truth,2013-05-16 Finding deep hidden secrets behind the keyholes of their lives sisters Bell Jordan and Middle expect what most young girls dream of in the late 1800 s a good family However the abandonment of their father has left the family in the hands of their wicked Ma who has alternate plans of her own Tormented through the years the girls will have to battle themselves through Ma s faces of evil if they ever plan on having a normal life but that is only if they survive

Under Heaven's Brow Ward Hunt Goodenough,2002 For the people of Chuuk and for students of religion and Micronesian culture this book pulls together and makes available in English the somewhat scattered published accounts largely in German along with Goodenough s own as yet unpublished information about religious beliefs and ritual practices in pre Christian Chuuk The materials are presented in a way that seeks to document and illustrate a particular approach a functional one to understanding the kinds of human concerns that give rise to religious behavior Simply to describe traditional beliefs and rituals without the relevant social background information leaves the reader without any feeling for what were the emotional concerns engendered by life in Chuukese society that ritual practices helped people address Ward Goodenough offers a theoretical introduction the necessary background information about Chuuk and the ways in which members of Chuukese society experienced themselves and their fellows the world view and overall set of beliefs providing the intellectual framework within which ritual practices were formulated and understood and the various bodies of ritual practices He concludes the book with a summary that pulls together how the rituals described appear to related to the emotional concerns that growing up and living in Chuuk tended to create

Taxing Heaven's Storehouse Paul J. Smith,2020-10-26 Tea growing was a prosperous industry in Sichuan when Wang Anshi s New Policies created a Tea Market Agency to buy up Sichuanese tea and trade it to Tibetan tribesmen for cavalry horses At first the highly autonomous agency not only acquired the needed horses but made a profit After the Junchen conquest of North China however market realities changed and the combined Tea and Horse Agency s once successful policies ruined tea farmers failed to meet quotas for horses and ran a deficit Paul J Smith details the workings of Sichuan tea farming and the tea trade examines the geopolitical factors that forced the Song to buy horses and graphically describes the difficulties of driving them more than a thousand miles through rugged mountains with only inexperienced conscripts as trail hands In this study of fiscal sociology Smith also explains how the Tea and Horse Agency transformed the Sichuan local elite which was notorious for its resistance to state power into imperial civil servants eager to tax their own region He draws on modern theories of corporate behavior to explain what made the inner workings of the Agency an extraordinary departure for the Chinese civil service and he demonstrates how the agency put into practice the most radical New Policies theories of state economic activism The Agency made entrepreneurs out of bureaucrats but ultimately became ruinously tyrannical as the system of state rewards and punishments drove its personnel to actions that crippled key sectors of the economy
