is a highly original exploration of the sources and motivations underpinning this canonical work treated here as a melting pot of ideas and a proto modernist masterpiece Jeremy Parrott casts himself as a literary detective tracking down clues hidden in the text following in Dickens's footsteps and laying bare a previously unsuspected symbolic scaffolding which ranges across Greek mythology English history Romantic poetry and the latest advances in science Following the example set by Betsey Trotwood every proper name in this enormously rich text is subjected to rigorous analysis laying bare the deepest currents of Dickens's mind and showing him to be an even greater artist than previously imagined From the search for an elephant in Great Yarmouth to the discovery of the mysterious reader whom Dickens loved in 1850 this engaging and readable study will radically alter what you thought you knew about the best loved Victorian novelist and his own favourite child The

Edinburgh Companion to Charles Dickens and the Arts Claire Wood, Juliet John, 2024-05-31 The Edinburgh Companion to

Charles Dickens and the Arts explores Dickens's rich and complex relationships with a myriad of art forms and the far reaching resonance of his works across the arts overall. This volume reassesses Dickens's prescient philosophy of art both through a historical and a present day lens and in the context of debates about the cultural value of the arts. Across thirty three original essays it outlines the ways in which Dickens broke down oppositions between high and low art, money and the aesthetic, the extraordinary and the ordinary, and art for its own sake and the social good. In doing so it considers how Dickens prefigured the arts of the future including rap music, television, fanfiction and global cinema. The Oxford Handbook of Charles Dickens Robert L. Patten, John O. Jordan, Catherine Waters, 2018-09-13. The Oxford Handbook of Charles Dickens is a comprehensive and up to date collection on Dickens's life and works. It includes original chapters on all of Dickens's writing and new considerations of his contexts from the social, political and economic to the scientific, commercial and religious. The contributions speak in new ways about his depictions of families, environmental degradation and improvements of the industrial age as well as the law, charity and communications. His treatment of gender, his mastery of prose in all its varieties and genres and his range of affects and dramatization all come under stimulating reconsideration. His understanding of British history of empire and colonization of his own nation and foreign ones and of selfhood and otherness like all the other topics is explained in terms easy to comprehend and profoundly relevant to global modernity. Authors and Adaptation Annie Nissen, 2024-04-25. This book studies British literary writers' engagement with adaptations of their work across literary, theatrical and film media in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. It considers their critical, reflective and autobiographical writings about the process of adaptation and traces how their work was shaped as well as delimited by their involvement with adaptations to different media and intermedial writing. Linking canonical and non canonical writers both chronologically and contemporaneously and bridging studies of prose fiction, adaptation from nineteenth century theatre to early twentieth century film, this book offers an interdisciplinary, transhistorical, cultural and analytical study of adaptation and the variable positions of writers within and across media. The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1897. Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom. Publisher and Bookseller, 1897. Vols for 1871-76, 1913-14 include an extra number. The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series. The Literature of Food Nicola Humble, 2020-02-06. Why are so many literary texts preoccupied with food? The Literature of Food explores this question by looking at the continually shifting relationship between two sorts of foods: the real and the imagined. Focusing particularly on Britain and North America from the early 19th century to the present, it covers a wide range of issues including the politics of food, food as performance and its intersections with gender, class, fear and disgust. Combining the insights of food studies and literary analysis, Nicola Humble considers the multifarious ways in which food both works and plays within texts and the variety of functions: ideological, mimetic, symbolic, structural, affective, which it serves. Carefully designed and structured for use on the growing number of literature of food courses, it examines the food of modernism post modernism the realist novel and children s literature and asks what happens when we treat cook books as literary texts From food memoirs to the changing role of the servant experimental cook books to the cannibalistic fears in infant picture books The Literature of Food demonstrates that food is always richer and stranger than we think
