The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Language and Literacy Teresa Grainger, 2004 For this essential collection of readings on literacy and language Teresa Grainger has carefully chosen journal articles and book chapters which offer significant and serious insights into the world of literacy in the twenty first century

The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Science Education John Gilbert, 2004 This Reader brings together a wide range of material to present an international perspective on topical issues in science education today In order to identify what themes should be addressed in the book thirty eight science educators from around the world responded to the question What issues are currently important in science education in your country The outcome is this lively and authoritative Reader which features topics as varied as globalisation assessment pupil s views on science education environmental education teaching approaches teacher development multimedia and ICT constructivism With a specially written introduction from the editor providing a much needed context to the current education climate students of science education will find this Reader an important route map to further reading and understanding Digital Literacies Victoria Carrington, Muriel Robinson, 2009-06-17 Facebook blogs texts computer games instant messages The ways in which we make meanings and engage with each other are changing Are you a student teacher trying to get to grips with these new digital technologies Would you like to find ways to make use of them in your classroom Digital technologies are an everyday part of life for students and Understanding Digital Literacies explores the ways in which they can be used in schools Carrington and Robinson provide an insight into the research on digital technologies stressing its relevance for schools and suggest ways to develop new more relevant pedagogies particularly for social learning literacy and literate practices With a practical focus the examples and issues explored in this book will help you to analyse your own practice and to carry out your own small scale research projects Explaining the theoretical issues and demonstrating their practical implementation this topical book will be an essential resource to new student teachers on undergraduate and PGCE courses and those returning to postgraduate study The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Gender & Education , Sense-making: Problematizing Constructs of Literacy for 21st Century Education Marilyn J. Narey, Kelli Jo Kerry-Moran, 2021-03-15 This book is a rich yet highly accessible volume that details an exciting and much needed inquiry into the notion of literacy what it is why it is and how it might be framed most effectively for 21st century education The chapters unfold in a creative interplay of practice and theory Narey s insightful questioning into the socio historical cultural implications of literacy as empowerment establishes the critical context while Kerry Moran s examination of the burgeoning literacy landscape reveals challenges for teacher education Drawing upon classic and cutting edge theories Narey builds a provocative and powerful case for a 21st century construct of literacy as sense making sense as relative to the senses i e sight hearing and sense as making meaning Her innovative model of the literacy event opens up a range of potential foci for analysis and facilitates her teasing out of two critical areas for instruction sensory perception and aesthetic knowledge This theoretical sense making lens is applied to Kerry Moran s teacher education classroom as the authors reflect upon further development As a timely original and thought provoking work this slim volume of big ideas promises to be a valuable resource for teacher educators and other scholars who seek a clear and cohesive frame for literacy in 21st century education This is a very well written scholarly text that provides a new and important theory of 21st century literacy Narey s sketches of literacy as sense making are laid out in logical form building upon researched and referenced sources to ground her ideas and offering the reader information examples and new insights In addition to providing many significant perspectives underpinning her new theory Narey provides excellent historical and current explanations about literacy from highly respected researchers in the field The inclusion of a practical application of Narey s conceptual theoretical framework to Kerry Moran s example of an instructional unit in a teacher education course is helpful to understanding the theory in practice The references throughout the work are extensive comprehensive and very well documented This text Sense making Problematising Constructs of Literacy for 21st Century Education contributes original thinking to the field of literacy and learning and would be an excellent resource for literacy and language professors or instructors in a post graduate or professional development program Penny Silvers Professor of Education Dominican University USA

Assessing New Literacies Anne Burke, Roberta F. Hammett, 2009 New literacies globally popular among children and adolescents in and out of school contexts are challenging educators and institutions to rethink pedagogies As educators begin to embrace the pedagogical possibilities of multimodal texts and digital practices they are exploring the complexities of assessing these new literacies The essays in this book explore what it means to assess the sophisticated textual engagements of new literacies including reading and writing online social networking gaming multimodal composing and creating virtual identities Chapters offer practical examples of new literacies and examine how assessment provides insight into the diverse ways in which language is conceived valued and used to inform the literate lives of its twenty first century users Scholars and educators will find this collection full of rich understanding of the assessment concerns raised by new communication practices youth culture digital engagements and semiotic diversification

The Space and Practice of Reading Chin Ee Loh, 2017-02-10 Mirroring worldwide debates on social class literacy rates and social change this study explores the intersection between reading and social class in Singapore one of the top scorers on the Programme for International Assessment PISA tests and questions the rhetoric of social change that does not take into account local spaces and practices This comparative study of reading practices in an elite school and a government school in Singapore draws on practice and spatial perspectives to provide critical insight into how taken for granted practices and spaces of reading can be in fact unacknowledged spaces of inequity Acknowledging the role of social class in shaping reading education is a start to reconfiguring current practices and spaces for more effective and equitable reading practices This book shows how using localized contextualized approaches sensitive to the home school national and global contexts can lead to more targeted policy and practice transformation in the area of reading instruction and intervention Chapters in the book include Becoming a Reader Home School Connections Singaporean Boys Constructing Global Literate Selves School Nation Connections Levelling the Reading Gap Socio Spatial Perspectives The book will be relevant to literacy scholars and educators library science researchers and sociologists interested in the intersection of class and literacy practices in the 21st century

Unlocking Speaking and Listening Pamela Hodson, 2011-10-07 Speaking and listening are key elements of the primary English National Curriculum they are also fundamental to children's language development and learning The need for teachers to develop children's talk in its own right and also to use talk as a means of learning is central to effective primary practice yet it is an area in which teachers often have little confidence The contributors offer creative and practical advice on teaching speaking and listening from the early years through Key Stages 1 and 2 underpinned by theory into the approach from publisher description Creativity in Primary Education Anthony Wilson,2014-12-04 An alien spaceship crash landed in my playground today For one primary school in England this was not an ordinary day It was a fabulous day of inspiration writing drawing discovering and learning for the pupils the staff and the parents But the best thing of all The only truly out of the ordinary thing was the alien spaceship So how do you make creativity a more everyday part of primary teaching Teachers and trainees agree that creativity is a fabulous thing But to get creative approaches into everyday teaching you need to tackle the question what is creativity This book explores this question in an accessible and practical way It helps trainees to do more than know it when they see it by helping them to understand the separate and very diverse elements of creativity The third edition of this popular text retains key material but it has been updated and revised to include two new chapters on the creative curriculum along with links throughout to the Standards and the new National Curriculum This book will help you enhance your teaching so you and the children in your class can be fellow explorers adventurous discoverers and spontaneous investigators Understanding Phonics And The Teaching Of Reading: A Critical Perspective Goouch, Kathy,Lambirth, Andrew,2008-01-01 This groundbreaking book offers critical perspectives on the teaching of reading and phonics openly challenging contemporary policy in both England and the US Inspiring Writing in Primary Schools Liz Chamberlain,2018-12-03 The second edition of this popular book includes a new charting your progress feature for more focused coverage of assessment and more examples of writing for a digital audience This practical text provides trainee teachers exemplar lessons that encourage purposeful writing across the curriculum alongside a detailed exploration of what makes them good and the theory behind them It encourages trainees to consider the teaching of writing critically and to envisage how they can shape lessons for their own teaching In starting with teaching then exploring theory the text mirrors how many trainees will learn Unlocking Speaking and Listening Deborah Jones,Pamela

Hodson,2012-10-12 Written by expert contributors from Brunel University this vital resource offers practical advice on teaching speaking and listening creatively from the Foundation Stage through Key Stages One and Two English Teaching in the Secondary School Mike Fleming,David Stevens,2015-05-15 English Teaching in the Secondary School is a comprehensive guide to the theory and practice of teaching English This updated 4th edition has been revised to take into consideration changes in national policy drawing on the most recent research and theory to produce engaging practical ideas for use in the classroom It challenges mechanistic and formulaic approaches to teaching instead placing an emphasis on reflection understanding and informed practice Guiding students and new teachers through the whole process of English teaching in the secondary school this edition has been fully updated to include a report of the most recent developments in national policy discussion of multiple literacies and critical literacy a new chapter on English as an additional language a new chapter on cross curricular themes new sections on approaches to the teaching of grammar reflections on international developments in language teaching and their relevance a guide to further reading on resources and research Written in an accessible style with a wealth of advice and ideas English Teaching in the Secondary School forms essential reading for all those training to become secondary English teachers
