Securing South Africa's Democracy Defense Development And Security In Transition:

Securing South Africa's Democracy Gavin Cawthra, 1997 Securing South Africa's Democracy G.

Cawthra, 1997-07-16 This book examines the defence and security challenges facing the new South Africa in the context of development and nation building priorities The transformation of security policy during the transition from apartheid and since the April 1994 elections is examined Challenges facing the defence force and the police service are examined and the relationships between defence development and domestic and external security are explored in an integrated way which points to a policy framework for security in the developing world Defensive Restructuring of the Armed Forces in

Southern Africa Bjørn Møller, Gavin Cawthra, 2019-01-15 Published in 1997 the work explores the reorientation of security policies and the accompanying restructuring of the armed forces going on in Southern Africa under entirely new circumstances Democracy has come to South Africa the civil wars in Angola and Mozambique have ended and the region is establishing a regional framework for cooperation While covering the entire region a special focus is placed on South Africa which is predestined to play a leading role but which is struggling with the legacy of the apartheid regime and its repeated aggressions against neighbouring states A defensive restructuring of the South African of the South African military is an element in the building of mutual trust The implications of such defensive restructuring to a non offensive defence are described in detail In addition to the analytical contribution the work also contains central documents and a bibliography

The Obligation of Empire James J. Hentz, 2021-12-14 Some of the nation's most respected scholars of international affairs examine the debates over U S grand strategy in light of U S security policies and interests in tactical regions around the world The contributors begin by describing the four grand strategies currently competing for dominance of U S foreign policy neo isolationism argues that the United States should not become involved in conflicts outside specifically defined national interests selective engagement proposes that the United States despite its position as the world's only remaining superpower should limit its involvement in foreign affairs cooperative security advocates that the United States is not and should not act as an imperial country primacy asserts that the United States is an empire and therefore it should conduct an expansive foreign policy Focusing on regions that present new challenges to U S grand strategy such as Sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and Latin America the contributors offer the most current examinations of U S policies and assess the effectiveness of competing strategies in each region The Obligation of Empire offers an innovative set of foreign policy initiatives that explore the tensions between global agendas and regionalist approaches Contributors Andrew J Bacevich Doug Bandow Dale Davis Thomas Donnelly James J Hentz Clifford Kiracofe Charles Kupchan Jeffrey Stark S Frederick Starr and Brantley Womack James J Hentz associate professor of international studies at the Virginia Military Institute is the coeditor of New and Critical Security and Regionalism Beyond the Nation State Ibss: Political Science: 1998 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2000-02 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures this

Beyond Settlement Vanessa E. Shields, Nicholas Baldwin, 2008 Political ideological and ethnic conflicts have resulted in countless deaths the creation of millions of refugees the destruction of livelihoods and widespread human suffering to say nothing of the economic destruction This book examines institution building and security sector reform in conflict states by analyzing eighteen case studies covering eleven countries and six decades With regard to institution building there is an analysis of four democratic levers elections the legislature the executive and devolution focusing on how the structure and function of these political institutions contribute to the management and reduction of conflict and to the consolidation of fragile democracies Concerning security sector reform there is an analysis of how military police and intelligence institutions are reformed in states that are coming out of conflict states that are moving beyond settlement Some of the conflicts in this study are ongoing Palestine while others have been resolved Spain South Africa while still others are in a peace building or immediate post conflict stage Northern Ireland

Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn, 2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples

Demobilization in Sub-Saharan Africa K. Kingma, 2016-04-30 In the early and mid 1900s several African countries demobilized part of their armed forces This book analyzes in the light of Africa's large development challenges and continuing wars and insecurity the question of how demobilizations have contributed to peace and human development It also explores what we can learn from the different approaches that have been taken

Achieving Security in Sub-Saharan Africa Geoff Harris, 2004

Securing South Africa's Democracy Gavin Cawthra, 1997

Securing Development Bernard Harborne, William Dorotinsky, Paul M. Bisca, 2017-03-01 Securing Development Public Finance and the Security Sector highlights the role of public finance in the delivery of security and criminal justice services This book offers a framework for analyzing public financial management financial transparency and oversight as well as expenditure policy issues that determine how to most appropriately manage security and justice services The interplay among security justice and public finance is still a relatively unexplored area of development Such a perspective can help security actors provide more professional effective and efficient security and justice services for citizens while also strengthening systems for accountability The book is the result of a project undertaken jointly by staff from the World Bank and the United Nations integrating the disciplines where each institution holds a comparative advantage and a core mandate The primary audience includes government officials bearing both security and financial responsibilities staff of international organizations working on public expenditure management and security sector issues academics and development practitioners working in an
