Restoration James Scott,2021-10-01 The restoration of Israel is one of those subjects which although crucial to our understanding of early Judaism has not received the focused attention it needs and deserves These seminal essays written by an international group of eminent scholars introduce the reader to the subject of restoration in a roughly chronological approach beginning with the formative period the Old Testament followed by the Greco Roman period formative Judaism and early Christianity These essays endeavor not merely to survey what is currently known about the subject from various vantage points but rather to extend what is knowable in each case This volume will stimulate much interest in the subject of restoration and will shape the future course of the scholarly discussion      Seder Olam: or, the Order of Ages. ... Translated by J. Clark Franciscus Mercurius van Baron HELMONT,1694      The History of the Jewish People in the Age of Jesus Christ: Volume 1 Emil Schürer,Fergus Millar,Geza Vermes,2014-01-30 Emil Schürer's Geschichte des jüdischen Volkes im Zeitalter Jesu Christi originally published in German between 1874 and 1909 and in English between 1885 and 1891 is a critical presentation of Jewish history institutions and literature from 175 B C to A D 135 It has rendered invaluable services to scholars for nearly a century The present work offers a fresh translation and a revision of the entire subject matter The bibliographies have been rejuvenated and supplemented the sources are presented according to the latest scholarly editions and all the new archaeological epigraphical numismatic and literary evidence including the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Bar Kokhba documents has been introduced into the survey Account has also been taken of the progress in historical research both in the classical and Jewish fields This work reminds students of the profound debt owed to nineteenth century learning setting it within a wider framework of contemporary knowledge and provides a foundation on which future historians of Judaism in the age of Jesus may build

Time and Process in Ancient Judaism Sacha Stern, 2003-10-01 This illuminating study is about the absence of time as an entity in itself in ancient Judaism and the predominance instead of process in the ancient Jewish world view Evidence is drawn from a complete range of Jewish sources from this period

History of the Jewish People Hersch Goldwurm, 1982 For the first time Jewish history is presented according to authentic Jewish sources well researched and clearly illustrated with photos charts and maps Vol I The Second Temple Era The era of the Second Commonwealth from the Destruction of the First Temple to the Destruction of the Second

Introduction to the Talmud and Midrash Hermann Leberecht Strack, 1996 Gunter Stemberger's revision of H L Strack's classic introduction to rabbinic literature which appeared in its first English edition in 1991 was widely acclaimed Gunter Stemberger and Markus Bockmuehl have now produced this updated edition which is a significant revision completed in 1996 of the 1991 volume Following Strack's original outline Stemberger discusses first the historical framework the basic principles of rabbinic literature and hermeneutics and the most important Rabbis The main part of the book is devoted to the Talmudic and Midrashic literature in the light of contemporary rabbinic research The appendix includes a new section on electronic resources for the study of the Talmud and Midrash The result is a comprehensive work of reference that no student of rabbinics can afford to be without

The Creation Everett Jenkins, 2003 The major monotheistic religions of the world Judaism Christianity and Islam have certain elements in common particularly in their scriptures concerning the beginnings of life and the early history of human beings This shared beginning is compellingly worth further study Common ground and common threads can only help a dialogue between people of different faiths This reference work could be a tool toward greater understanding of other faiths and focuses on the story of the creation of the universe and of humans Part One traces the development of the earth and its inhabitants from a scientific viewpoint so that the humanistic perspective may be contrasted with the scriptural accounts to follow Part Two features an introduction to the Tanakh information on the Torah and what is known about its authors and other influences on the Jewish religion followed by actual scriptures from the Torah from the creation through the destruction of the Tower of Babel Then a section each is devoted to an explanation of the Catholic Protestant and Fundamentalist Christian interpretations of these stories citing scripture as appropriate Part Three affords a Muslim perspective with excerpts from the Sirah that refer to events and characters from the early chapters of Genesis The appendices are rich various chronologies of similar events based on the different scriptures tables of contents for the various holy books tables presenting summaries of a particular perspective on a subject or comparisons between two perspectives and much more     The Jewish Encyclopedia: Samson-Talmid Hakam Isidore Singer, Cyrus Adler, 1905     Shem in the Tents of Japhet James L. Kugel, 2021-09-06 These essays by some of today's greatest scholars of Judaism and Hellenism in antiquity explore a variety of ways in which these two great civilizations interacted The common focus of these studies is the transition from one culture to the next how words or concepts or conventions from the one came to be transplanted and often modified in the process in the other Taken together however they provide something broader a large variegated picture of the cultural interaction that was to prove so crucial for the later history of Judaism and Christianity     Text and Canon of the Hebrew Bible Shemaryahu Talmon, 2010-06-30 The essays by Shemaryahu Talmon 1920 December 15 2010 presented in this fourth volume of his collected studies in English were written against the background of the momentous manuscript finds at various sites in the Judean Desert including approximately 200 biblical or Bible related manuscripts and manuscript fragments discovered at Qumran These discoveries date from the crucial period of the turn of the era and afford scholars unprecedented information on the early transmission history of the biblical text Talmon likens the transmission process in agreement with Paul Kahle and contrary to Paul de Lagarde to a confluence of variant pristine traditions that Judaism Christianity and the Samaritan communities severally channeled into one fixed and closely circumscribed text form It is his thesis that at least some of the biblical manuscripts and fragments from Qumran preserve original variants of the wording in the Masoretic Text which eventually was recognized and transmitted in Judaism as the acclaimed and exclusively binding wording of the Hebrew Bible These manuscripts and fragments evidence a textual strategy consisting of the interaction of the original authors and the transmitters of their work Scribes and editors were minor partners of the authors They did not refrain from occasionally changing wordings within a given range of poetic license often adapting literary techniques and patterns that had been used by the primary creators of the texts that they copied The 18 essays reprinted in this volume relate to a variety of phenomena that affected the biblical literature in the stages of transition from oral tradition to hand written transmission initially in Paleo Hebrew then in the square alphabet and ultimately in the promulgation of the Masoretic version in print Talmon's articles published herein initially appeared over a period of about 50 years thus giving expression to his developing thought regarding the transmission history of the biblical text up to the present time The papers have undergone revision in the process of preparing the present volume Scholars and students alike will benefit from owning and using this superb comprehensive collection of studies     The Jewish Encyclopedia Isidore Singer, Cyrus Adler, 1901     The Image of Bar Kokhba in Traditional Jewish Literature Richard G. Marks, 2004-05-01 Marks painstaking investigation into the figure of Bar Kokhba in traditional Jewish literature has indeed provided a corrective to those on both sides of the Zionist political spectrum and in doing so he has once again shown that historical investigations are often quite useful in elucidating and clarifying various modern debates Jewish Political Studies Review This is a very significant contribution to both Jewish literature and history The materials which Marks works through are well known but at many points he offers original interpretations He provides a comprehensive synthesis of all the historical interpretations of Bar Kokhba Richard D Hecht University of California Santa Barbara Bar Kokhba led the Jewish rebellion against Rome in 132-135 A.D. which resulted in massive destruction and dislocation of the Jewish populace of Judea In early rabbinic literature Bar Kokhba was remembered in two ways as an imposter claiming to be the Messiah and as a glorious military leader whose successes led Rabbi Akiva one of the great rabbinic authorities of Jewish tradition to acclaim him the Messiah These two earliest images formed the core of most later perceptions of Bar Kokhba so that he became the prototypical false messiah and the paradigmatic rebel of Jewish history The Image of Bar Kokhba in Traditional Jewish Literature is a history of the perceptions that later Jewish writers living in the fourth through seventeenth centuries formed of this legendary hero villain whose actions in their eyes had caused enormous suffering and disappointed messianic hopes Richard Marks examines each writer's account individually and in the context of its period exploring particularly political and religious implications He builds a history of images and looks at larger patterns such as the desacralizing of traditional imagery His findings raise timely political questions about Bar Kokhba's image among Jews today

The Literature of the Jewish People in the Period of the Second Temple and the Talmud, Volume 3: The Literature of the Sages Shmuel Safrai z"l, Ze'ev Safrai, Joshua J. Schwartz, Peter Tomson, 2006-01-01 This long awaited companion volume to The Literature of the Sages First Part Fortress Press 1987 brings to completion Section II of the renowned Compendia series The Literature of the Sages Second Part explores the literary creation of thousands of ancient Jewish teachers the often anonymous Sages of late antiquity and the Middle Ages Essays by premier scholars provide a careful and succinct analysis of the content and character of various documents their textual and literary forms with particular attention to the ongoing discovery and publication of new textual material Incorporating groundbreaking developments in research these essays give a comprehensive presentation published here for the first time This volume will prove an important reference work for all students of ancient Judaism the origins of Jewish tradition and the Jewish background of Christianity The literary creation of the ancient Jewish teachers or Sages also called rabbinic literature consists of the teachings of thousands of Sages many of them anonymous For a long period their teachings existed orally which implied a great deal of flexibility in arrangement and form Only gradually as parts of this amorphous oral tradition became fixed was the literature written down a process that began in the third century C.E. and continued into the Middle Ages Thus the documents of rabbinic literature are the result of a remarkably long and complex process of creation and editing This long awaited companion volume to The Literature of the Sages First Part 1987 gives a careful and succinct analysis both of the content and specific nature of the various documents and of their textual and literary forms paying special attention to the continuing discovery and publication of new textual material Incorporating ground breaking developments in research these essays give a comprehensive presentation published here for the first time The Literature of the Sages Second Part is an important reference work for all students of ancient Judaism as well as for those interested in the origins of Jewish tradition and the Jewish background of Christianity The Conflict of the Ages Teacher III They Deliberately Forgot: The Flood and the Ice Age Michael J. Karaite Judaism and Historical Understanding Fred Astren, 2004 Examines the changing relationship of this Jewish sect to rabbinic Judaism and the influence of Muslim and Christian environments Notions of history and the past contained in literature of the Karaite Jewish sect offer insight into the relationship of Karaism to mainstream rabbinic Judaism and to Islam and Christianity Karaite Judaism and Historical Understanding describes how a minority sectarian religious community constructs and uses historical ideology It investigates the proportioning of historical ideology to law and doctrine and the influence of historical setting on religious writings about the past In the present volume Fred Astren discusses modes of representing the past especially in Jewish culture and then poses questions about the past in sectarian particularly Judaic sectarian contexts He contrasts early Karaite scripturalism with the literature of rabbinic Judaism which embodying historical views that carry a moralistic burden draws upon the chain of tradition to suppose a generation to generation transmission of divine knowledge and authority Karaites in the medieval Islamic world eschewed historical thinking in concert with their rejection of the rabbinic concept of tradition One important medieval Karaite al Qirqisani however constructed a sophisticated historical argument as part of his philosophical exposition of Karaism demonstrating theological and philosophical strategies common in Islam and Christianity The center of Karaism shifted to the Byzantine Turkish world during the twelfth through sixteenth centuries when a new historical outlook unoblivious of the past accommodated legal developments influenced by rabbinic thought Reconstructing Karaite historical expression from both published works and previously unexamined manuscripts Astren shows that Karaites relied on rabbinic literature to extract and compile historical data for their own readings of Jewish history which they recorded in an encyclopedic literature similar to contemporary Byzantine Christian Orthodox writing Astren documents how as the Karaites moved toward a concept of tradition and echoed rabbinic historical formulations they developed a version of the chain of tradition to link archaic biblical history to their own community During the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Karaite scholars in Poland and Lithuania collated and harmonized historical materials inherited from their Middle Eastern predecessors Astren portrays the way that Karaites with some influence from Jewish Renaissance historiography and impelled by features of Protestant Catholic discourse prepared complete literary historical works that maintained their Jewishness while offering a Karaite reading of Jewish history

Shoshannat Yaakov Shai Secunda, Steven Fine, 2012-09-03 Shoshannat Yaakov honors Yaakov Elman Professor of Talmud at Yeshiva University and celebrates Elman's contributions to a broad range of disciplines within Jewish and Iranian studies. The Time of the End in the Book of Daniel Thomas C. Nixon, 2002-07-05 Dreamers and voyagers the boy and girl in this little story are on a journey from where they are to where they can be. In this ageless quest they are beckoned by the glimmer of their dreams as they behold the light that surrounds and suffuses all that is. They are tempted to lose heart though because of the darkness that can steal quietly into their lives but which can never completely overpower the enduring and triumphant light

The Olivet Discourse - The Mystery Revealed Thomas C. Nixon, 2003-06-10 This book came from experiences I have gone through in my Christian walk. I became a Christian in 1993 and soon enough I came to know that if I were to enjoy my Christian life I had to renew my mind with the Word of God. I also came to realize that the environment that I grew up in and the developed mind set over the years were directing how I related to God and His Word. To a larger extent this was always in conflict with the Word of God. I would get frustrated when my prayers were not answered how and when I wanted them to I would begin to ask myself questions such as Is God punishing me for something Did God really hear my prayers How did so and so receive what I have been asking for months But as I continued to study and mature in the Word of God things became clearer. Sometimes a believer will struggle with questions but fear to ask them fearing being judged or presuming they are of little or no faith. Throughout my ministry I have dedicated myself to encouraging people to overcome their fears in order to reach their God given potential. I believe that all of us are capable of living a full life but misinterpretation of what is a full life creates frustration. This book is a compass to the person who is trying to figure out where their Christian life is and where it is heading. I present truths in this book in a simple and understandable language without diluting the intended message. I am currently the founding Pastor at God Our Rock International Church in Toronto Ontario Canada.
